1. The ESTTA system does not have enough total spaces for opposer's full name: Vantage Technologies Knowledge Assessment, L.L.C.
2. Opposer is a licensee of the mark INTELLIFINDER, registration 1,908,265, and its goodwill, and has been offering goods/services under said mark in the United States.
3. Opposer's goods/services include a computer software "engine" and the services performed by the software, namely searching structured and unstructured databases for any sort of information by locating, compiling, identifying and "clusterizing" and hierarchically prioritizing the information requested. Opposer's software engine performs services of searching through and identifying key pieces of data and information from public record databases, service bureaus, and private sources of compiled files and data. The services are offered as an ASP service (application service provider, i.e., web-based), OEM, and stand-alone service.
4. Applicant's intent-to-use mark, INTELIFINDER, is essentially identical to the mark, INTELLIFINDER ®, used by opposer.
5. Applicant's intent-to-use services are either identical, or substantially identical, or substantially similar to the services already offered by opposer.
6. Applicant's intent-to-use services are either identical or substantially identical to services which opposer is expanding into.
7. Opposer will be substantially harmed by the registration of applicant's intent-to-use mark.
