Opposition No. 91168834

National Bearings Company

v.

Federal-Mogul World Wide,
Inc.

Linda Skoro, Interlocutory Attorney

On April 9, 2007, applicant filed a response to the notice of default issued by the Board on March 9, 2007.

In applicant's response, applicant informed the Board that the parties have reached an agreement that will resolve this proceeding.

In view thereof, the Board's March 9, 2007 order is hereby discharged, proceedings are suspended until two months from the mailing date of this action, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their agreement, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set out below.

Applicant is allowed SIXTY DAYS from resumption in which to answer the notice of opposition. The parties are allowed THIRTY DAYS in which to serve responses to any outstanding discovery requests. Trial dates, including the close of discovery, are reset as follows:

Proceedings resume:	7/15/07
Discovery Period to close:	10/13/07
30-day testimony period for party in position of plaintiff to close:	1/11/08
30-day testimony period for party in position of defendant to close:	3/11/08
15-day rebuttal testimony period to close:	4/25/08

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
