Dear Sir/Madam:

The applicant respectfully requests an additional sixty (60) days within which to appoint new counsel for this matter. Applicant asserts that Applicant's company experienced a change in management during this trademark opposition, which has resulted in many unforeseen events, including a previous failure to communicate with counsel. Applicant is in the process of attempting to secure counsel for representation in this matter, and Applicant respectfully contends that sixty days should be sufficient for this purpose. The Board's respectful consideration of this request would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 1/22/07
