Converse Inc.

v.

Bape Co., Ltd. and Nowhere
Co., Ltd.

On April 20, 2009, plaintiff in this consolidated proceeding filed without the written consent of defendant, a withdrawal of its petition for cancellation and its opposition.

Trademark Rules 2.106(c) and 2.114(c) provide that after an answer is filed, the notice of opposition or petition for cancellation may not be withdrawn without prejudice except with the written consent of applicant/respondent.

In view thereof, and because the withdrawals were filed after answer, the petition for cancellation and the opposition are dismissed with prejudice. Trademark Rules 2.114(c) and 2.106(c).
