ANSWER

1. The original application filed was for the mark Jill Kelly Productions. . Jill Kelly is my common law right that I have used for the past 13 years and I intended to continue to use with good and services of that mark. During the examination of the Jill Kelly Productions mark, the examining attorney called to clarify such marks not excluding the mark Jill Kelly. At that time the opposer and myself were involved in a disagreement as to the what was actually purchased at the auction , United State Bankruptcy Court Central District of California (BK- SV-05 -15389-KT) which commenced on April 17 2006 (acution) June 30 2006, and July 3 2006.

At which time I agree not to pursue my right to the use of Jill Kelly Productions mark in order to protect my rights in other areas that were not an asset of the above said debtor . I explained all of the matters at that time to the Trademark Examiner Attorney in which he the best to my belief withdrew my initial filing for JILL KELLY PRODUCTIONS mark and extended it to the mark Jill Kelly with goods and services in class 22 O41 entertainment such as dance performances ,class 52 O41 live performance., 57 041 entertainment services namely personal apperances by an adult celebrity .

2. The Opposer makes reference to sale order 9 and 10 in which causes concern for its validity when the trustee is a former Jill Kelly Productions employee and not an officer or director of the debtor, and is now the current employee of the Opposer .

3 Currently opposer and applicant are trying to resolve the above issues and 3 stated in this opposition outside of court and there is a preliminary hearing that is set with the Bankruptcy court to seek resolution to this matter on the date of March 16 2007.
