Henkel Corporation

v.

AMSENG

Cheryl Butler, Attorney, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On February 15, 2007, applicant filed an request to extend time to file an answer to the notice of opposition.

On March 15, 2007, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 78746096, with opposer's consent.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in International Class 1 from "Adhesives for industrial applications" to "Industrial adhesives, namely, industrial adhesives for use in the packaging and core winding industries, the flooring industries, the textile and insulation industries, and the wood and construction industries."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(b), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

If this resolves the dispute herein, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended, and trial dates including the time for applicant to file its answer to the notice of opposition will be reset.¹ See Trademark Rule 2.106(c).
