Opposition No. 91176065

Lenovo (Singapore) Pte. Ltd

v.

H. Co. Computer Products

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

Opposer's consented motion (filed February 24, 2012) to re-suspend proceeding for an additional five months so that the parties may continue with their settlement efforts is granted for good cause shown.

Accordingly, proceedings herein are suspended up to, and including, July 3, 2012, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set out below.

Trial dates are reset as follows:

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.

As a final matter, if the parties agree to another extension or suspension for settlement, they will be expected to report to the Board on the progress of their settlement negotiations. Such report must include a recitation of issues that have been resolved, identification of the settlement activities which have occurred for each month of the five-month suspension period granted herein,¹ issues that remain to be resolved, and a firm timetable for resolution. Absent such a report, any future motion to extend or suspend, even though agreed to by the parties, will not be granted.

¹ If no settlement activity has occurred for any month of suspension time granted herein, the parties must explain why no settlement activity occurred.
