Opposition No. 91176661

Intuit, Inc.

v.

Aptuit, Inc.

Angela Lykos, Interlocutory Attorney

On June 5, 2008, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 78657790, with opposer's consent.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in Class 42 from "medical and scientific research, namely, conducting clinical trials; clinical research; pharmaceutical research; product research; medical research; medical and scientific research consultation pertaining to pharmacology, toxicology, drug metabolism, pharmacokinetics, bioanalysis, and tablet compression; research of medicines and vaccines; development of pharmaceutical preparations, formulations, drug substances, drug products, active pharmaceutical ingredients, and medicines; design and testing of new products for others" to "medical and scientific research, namely, conducting clinical trials; clinical research; pharmaceutical research; research to develop pharmaceutical products; medical research; medical and scientific research consultation pertaining to pharmacology, toxicology, drug metabolism, pharmacokinetics, bioanalysis, and tablet compression; research of medicines and vaccines; development of pharmaceutical preparations, formulations, drug substances, drug products, active pharmaceutical ingredients, and medicines; design and testing of new pharmaceutical products for others."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(b), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

If this resolves the dispute herein, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to file a withdrawal of the opposition, failing which the opposition will go forward on the application as amended. See Trademark Rule 2.106(c).

NEWS FROM THE TTAB:

The USPTO published a notice of final rulemaking in the Federal Register on August 1, 2007, at 72 F.R. 42242. By this notice, various rules governing Trademark Trial and Appeal Board inter partes proceedings are amended. Certain amendments have an effective date of August 31, 2007, while most have an effective date of November 1, 2007. For further information, the parties are referred to a reprint of the final rule and a chart summarizing the affected rules, their changes, and effective dates, both viewable on the USPTO website via these web addresses:
<http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/com/sol/notices/72fr42242.pdf>
http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/com/sol/notices/72fr42242_FinalRuleChart.pdf

By one rule change effective August 31, 2007, the Board's standard protective order is made applicable to all TTAB inter partes cases, whether already pending or commenced on or after that date. However, as explained in the final rule and chart, this change will not affect any case in which any protective order has already been approved or imposed by the Board. Further, as explained in the final rule, parties are free to agree to a substitute protective order or to supplement or amend the standard order even after August 31, 2007, subject to Board approval. The standard protective order can be viewed using the following web address:
