Opposition No. 91177064

Akzo Nobel Paints LLC

v.

Jason Kinsella

On January 28, 2011, opposer filed (1) papers evidencing a change of name of opposer from The Glidden Company to Akzo Noble Paints LLC, (2) a revocation of attorney and appointment of new counsel, and (3) a withdrawal of the opposition without the written consent of applicant.

Board records have been updated accordingly to reflect opposer's name change and the revocation and appointment of new counsel.

With regards to opposer's withdrawal, the Board notes that Trademark Rule 2.106(c) provides that after an answer is filed, the opposition may not be withdrawn without prejudice except with the written consent of applicant.

In view thereof, and because the withdrawal was filed after answer, the opposition is dismissed with prejudice.
