

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
Trademark Trial and Appeal Board
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

am/ar/apb

Mailed: April 15, 2009

Opposition No. 91177463

Promgirl, Inc.

v.

Promgirl, LLC

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

On March 11, 2009, the Board ordered opposer to show cause why opposer's failure to file a brief should not be treated as a concession of the case. In response thereto, opposer filed a response to the show cause order stated that the parties are engaged in settlement discussions and requested, with applicant's consent, that this proceeding be suspended for such discussions.¹

In view of the opposer's response to the order to show cause and parties' ongoing settlement discussions, the order to show cause is discharged. Proceedings herein are suspended until June 14, 2009 for settlement negotiations, subject to either party's right to request resumption at any time.

¹ Opposer's communication does not indicate proof of service of a copy of same on counsel for applicant as required by Trademark Rule 2.119. To expedite this matter, a copy of said communication is forwarded herewith to applicant, but strict compliance with Trademark Rule 2.119 is required in all further filings herein.

Opposition No. 91177463

If there is no further word from the parties regarding the status of their settlement negotiations, proceedings will resume on June 15, 2009 to the extent that opposer will be allowed until July 15, 2009 to show cause why this opposition should not be dismissed under Trademark Rule 2.132(a) based on its failure to prosecute.