Opposition No. 91178655

v.

International bodyworks Inc. d/b/a
Massage Masters Massage Therapy
Center,

Applicant

Motion to NOT dismiss

Response to International Bodyworks motion to dismiss:

- 1) A. The opposition WAS filed on time. I (Ronald Kaluzna) was verbally informed on July 18 by USPTO that my mailing date of July 18 would be acceptable, and that I should mail my opposition along with required check, which I did.

B. I sent my opposition certified mail on July 18 2007 and I am herby including a copy of my mailing receipt for your review.
- 2) The cause upon which relief may be granted is that I am currently using the name "Hypnossage" and now your clients want to use the name and use it for the same function and service that I have been using it for.
- 3) I believe, I have, thus far properly pleaded my case.

Note: A copy of this letter has been sent to Christopher Day, attorney for International Bodyworks.

Sincerely,

Ronald Kaluzna
