DECLARATION OF LAURA POPP-ROSENBERG, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF OPPOSER/PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

LAURA POPP-ROSENBERG declares under penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am an attorney at Fross Zelnick Lehrman & Zissu, P.C., attorneys for Dr Pepper/Seven Up, Inc. ("Dr Pepper"), opposition in Opposition No. 91180472 and petitioner in Cancellation No. 92048446. I submit this declaration in support of Opposer/Petitioner's Motion for Summary Judgment. I make this declaration based on personal knowledge of the facts and circumstances set forth herein, on the pleadings and papers submitted in connection with these proceedings, and on the records of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (the "Board") and the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "PTO").

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit 28 is a true and correct copy of Opposer/Petitioner's First Set of Interrogatories to Applicant/Registrant, served in connection with this proceeding on February 21, 2008, showing the definitions used across Dr Pepper's discovery requests.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit 30 is a true and correct copy of Krush Global Limited's Response to Opposer/Petitioner's Second Set of Requests for Admission to Applicant/Registrant.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 31 is a true and correct copy of Krush Global Limited's Response to Opposer/Petitioner's First Set of Requests for the Production of Documents and Things to Applicant/Registrant.

6. Attached hereto as Exhibit 32 is a true and correct copy of Krush Global Limited's Response to Opposer/Petitioner's First Set of Interrogatories to Applicant/Registrant.

7. Attached hereto as Exhibit 33 is a true and correct copy of Krush Global Limited's Response to Opposer/Petitioner's Second Set of Interrogatories to Applicant/Registrant.

8. Attached hereto as Exhibit 34 is a true and correct copy of printouts of the website located at www.crush.com, as printed on October 16, 2008.

9. Attached hereto as Exhibit 35 are true and correct copies of photographs taken of materials produced by Krush Global Limited ("Krush Global") in connection with this proceeding.

10. Interrogatory No. 3 to Krush Global requested the identification of "all third parties who are making actual use of the designation CRUSH or any phonetic equivalent thereof, either alone or in conjunction with other terms or symbols, as a mark for foods, beverages or related services." See Exhibit 6 hereto. Krush Global responded to this Interrogatory by indicating that it would produce responsive documents in lieu of providing a written response. See id. Attached hereto as Exhibits 36 and 37 is a true and correct copy of correspondence between counsel for Dr Pepper and counsel for Krush Global, in which Krush Global states that the only document Krush Global produced in response to Interrogatory No. 3 is "Doc. No. 25."

12. The parties have agreed that all produced documents are made of record for the proceedings, so that the parties can avoid the authentication procedure set forth in Trademark Board Manual of Procedure Section 704.11(1). Attached hereto as Exhibit 39 is a true and correct copy of a letter confirming the foregoing agreement.

13. Dr Pepper's Interrogatories to Krush Global numbered 28 and 29 required Krush Global to "[i]dentify all evidence in [Krush Global]'s possession, custody, control or knowledge, including all documentary evidence, that" (i) "CRUSSH has a different commercial impression than CRUSH"; and (ii) "consumers perceive CRUSSH to have a different meaning than CRUSH." See Exhibit 7. In response to these Interrogatories, Krush Global responded that "[t]o the extent evidence exists within Applicant's possession, custody or control, it has been produced in response to Opposer's Document Demands." See id. I have reviewed all of the documents produced by Krush Global in this proceeding. Krush Global has produced no documents evidencing that CRUSSH has a different commercial impression than CRUSH or evidencing that consumers perceive CRUSSH to have a different meaning than CRUSH.

14. RESPONSE TO OPPOSER/PETITIONER'S FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS TO APPLICANT/REGISTRANT

Pursuant to Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Krush Global Limited, Applicant/Registrant, LLC (hereinafter "KRUSH" or "Applicant") hereby responds to Opposer/Petitioner, Dr. Pepper/Seven Up, Inc.'s (hereinafter "Opposer") First Set of Document Requests. To the extent not objected to below, and to the extent that KRUSH can locate the documents by a reasonably diligent search, non-privileged, responsive documents will be produced.

General Objections

KRUSH objects to Defendant's requests to the extent that they seek the production of "each" or "all" documents or things where summary reports or representative documents or things would adequately respond to the requests.

KRUSH objects to each request to the extent that it seeks documents beyond the scope permitted or required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other applicable rule or law.

In addition, KRUSH objects to each request to the extent that it seeks documents protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege or evidentiary principle.

Nothing in KRUSH's responses are intended as, or shall be deemed to be, a waiver of any attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege or evidentiary principle. If KRUSH produces a privileged document, such production is to be deemed inadvertent and not a waiver of any applicable privilege or protection, and the inadvertently produced document will be subject to prompt return to KRUSH by Opposer and its attorneys.

To the extent Opposer seeks documents containing confidential or proprietary business information of a third party, KRUSH will not disclose any such documents absent the consent of the third party in question or an order of the Court.

By responding to these requests, KRUSH does not intend to, nor shall they be deemed to have admitted or otherwise adopted the definitions set forth by Opposer in its requests.

KRUSH have not completed its investigation of the facts relating to this case, discovery in this case, or preparation for trial. These responses are given without prejudice to KRUSH's right to produce evidence of any subsequently discovered facts, including the right to supplement or modify these responses if it obtains further information. KRUSH have made a diligent and good faith search for documents in its possession, custody, or control that are responsive to Opposer's requests.

However, KRUSH cautions that, because of the overly broad nature of Opposer's requests, it is possible that KRUSH currently may have in their possession, custody, or control responsive documents of which it is not presently aware or that it does not presently know are responsive. Accordingly, KRUSH reserve the right to supplement their responses, including the objections contained herein, if and when such supplementation may be determined by KRUSH to be appropriate as a result of its continuing investigation of this matter.

KRUSH reserve the right to produce at trial and make reference to any evidence, facts, documents, or information not discovered at this time, omitted through good faith error, mistake, or oversight, or the relevance of which have not presently been identified by KRUSH.

KRUSH also reserve the right to further modify these responses as a result of subsequently discovered information.

By making documents responsive to the requests available for inspection and copying, KRUSH does not waive any objections as to competence, relevance, materiality, propriety, admissibility, and/or to any and all other objections on any ground that would require the exclusion from evidence of any document produced in accordance with Defendant's requests.

Subject to and without waiver of these General Objections, KRUSH respond to the Document Requests as follows:

KRUSH hereby asserts the following General Objections and incorporates its General Objections in each of the individual responses set forth below:

1. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory in the First Set of Interrogatories to the extent it imposes obligations on KRUSH beyond those required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

General Objections

KRUSH hereby asserts the following General Objections and incorporates its General Objections in each of the individual responses set forth below:

1. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory in the First Set of Interrogatories to the extent it imposes obligations on KRUSH beyond those required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other privilege or evidentiary principle available under federal or state statutory, constitutional, or common law. Nothing in KRUSH's responses to Interrogatories is intended as, or shall in any way be deemed, a waiver of any attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other privilege or evidentiary principle available under federal or state statutory, constitutional, or common law.

3. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it purports to require KRUSH to disclose confidential or proprietary business information concerning itself or a third party or the content of any part of any agreement between KRUSH and a third party which by its terms may not be disclosed by KRUSH. KRUSH will not disclose any such information absent the consent of the third party in question or pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order entered in this action.

4. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that is not in the possession, custody, or control of KRUSH.

5. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory as being unduly burdensome to the extent it seeks information that is a matter of public record or that is equally available to Opposer/Petitioner from other sources.

6. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that could be obtained more efficiently through other methods of discovery.

7. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent it asks for duplicative or cumulative information.

9. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it requires interpretation and application of the legal conclusions and contentions of the parties.

10. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it contains any factual or legal misrepresentation.

11. KRUSH objects to each definition, instruction, and Interrogatory to the extent that it calls for information that is not now known by or reasonably available from sources within the custody or control of KRUSH. KRUSH's search for information is ongoing. KRUSH reserves the right to rely on facts, documents, or other evidence that may develop or come to KRUSH's attention at a later time, or that are produced by the other party in or third parties to this action. KRUSH's responses are based on information presently known to KRUSH and are set forth without prejudice to KRUSH's right to assert additional objections and/or provide supplemental responses should KRUSH discover additional grounds for objections or additional documents or information. KRUSH reserves the right to supplement or amend its responses to the Interrogatories at any time prior to the trial(s) of this proceeding. Any statement made herein is not an admission of any factual or legal contention contained in any Interrogatory.

12. KRUSH's responses and objections are made solely for the purpose of discovery in this action. Nothing herein is intended to waive the following objections, which are expressly reserved: all objections as to competency, relevancy, materiality, and admissibility of the subject matter of the Interrogatories; all objections as to vagueness, ambiguity, or undue burden; all objections to the use of any information, document or things identified or provided in response to these Interrogatories; all objections to any request for further responses to these or other discovery requests; all objections to the privileged or work-product nature of any information, document or thing; and any other objections which would require or permit the exclusion from

Re: Dr Pepper/Seven Up, Inc. v. Krush Global Ltd., Opp. No. 91180742 and Canc. No. 92048446 (Our Ref: DPSU 0708151)

Dear Jason:

We write with two goals. First, we are sending this letter pursuant to Trademark Rule of Practice 2.120 to see if we can resolve our concerns about the deficiencies in the responses of your client Krush Global Ltd. ("Krush Global") to Dr Pepper/Seven Up, Inc.'s First Set of Interrogatories and First Set of Requests for the Production of Documents and Things, as well as deficiencies in your client's document production, without resort to the Board. Second, we write seeking your consent to our client's intended motion to amend the Notice of Opposition and Petition for Cancellation.

Krush Global's Discovery Responses

Responses to the First Set of Interrogatories

Krush Global failed to provide substantive responses to Interrogatories No. 6 through 12, each of which asked Krush Global to set forth the basis for its various affirmative defenses. Instead, Krush Global stated that it would supply its responses at the conclusion of discovery or at trial. Neither the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure nor the Trademark Rules of Practice permit a party to arbitrarily select a date on which it will respond to duly-served discovery requests. While Krush Global may supplement its interrogatory responses as it obtains additional information during the course of discovery, it is not acceptable for the company to refuse to provide any response at this time, particularly since Krush Global is required to have had a good faith belief for pleading the affirmative defenses in its Answer. Your objection is not valid and not based on any rule or case law. We therefore request that Krush Global immediately provide substantive, supplemental responses to Interrogatories No. 6 through 12.

Krush Global also responded to Interrogatory No. 3 by stating that responsive documents would be produced in lieu of a written answer. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 33(d), Krush Global is required to "specify the records that must be reviewed, in sufficient detail to enable the interrogating party to locate and identify them as readily as the responding party could." Krush Global has not provided the required identifying information. Further, according to our review of the documents Krush Global has produced to date in this proceeding, Krush Global has not yet produced any documents in response to Interrogatory No. 3. This must be corrected.

Responses to the First Set of Requests for the Production of Documents and Things

Initially, we take objection to the statement in each of Krush Global's responses that documents will be produced to the extent such documents "are relevant to this U.S. action." As you know, the test for production is not "relevancy" but rather whether the request seeks documents that are reasonably calculated to lead to discovery of admissible evidence. Since Krush Global did not object to any of the discovery requests on this basis, you must produce all documents regardless of whether you consider them "relevant" or not.

As to Krush Global's document production, it does not appear that the documents have been produced either "as they are kept in the usual course of business" or "organize[d] and label[ed] . . . to correspond to the categories in the request," as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 33(b)(2)(E)(i). Therefore, we request that Krush Global supplement its document production by providing an index identifying which documents (by production number) are responsive to which requests.

Finally, it does not appear as though Krush Global has produced documents in response to Document Requests No. 3, 4, 6, 10-23, 25, 31, 33-35 and 37-42.<sup>1</sup> We ask that you provide us with a date certain by which we can expect documents responsive to the noted requests or supplemental responses indicating that there are not responsive documents. Note that we will vigorously oppose any attempt by your client to rely on documents or information that were requested but not produced during discovery.

Amendment of Pleadings

Dr Pepper/Seven Up, Inc. ("Dr Pepper") seeks to amend its Notice of Opposition and Petition for Cancellation to add a count of fraud. Based on our review of Krush Global's discovery responses and document production, Krush Global lacks the requisite bona fide intent to use the CRUSSH mark in the United States in connection with the services identified. Dr

<sup>1</sup> We also do not believe that Krush Global has produced documents responsive to Document Requests No. 5, 7, 8, 9 and 24, 27, but understand that this may be a result of a difference of perception.

Jason Drangel
May 16, 2008

Pepper intends to move the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board for permission to amend the pleadings, and we seek your client's consent to the motion.

As you know, the Board likely will grant the motion unless you can make a clear showing that the amendment would be prejudicial to your client or that the amendment would be futile. Here, we do not believe there would be any prejudice to Krush Global, since the discovery period has not yet run and, in any event, all of the relevant information already is in Krush Global's possession. Therefore, your only possible basis for objection would be futility. If Krush Global has additional information supporting its bona fide intent to use the CRUSSH mark in the United States – or if you have another basis to believe that amendment would be futile – please let us know.

We ask that Krush Global cure the discovery deficiencies noted above, and that you respond to our request for consent to amendment of the pleadings, by no later than May 30, 2008.

I am available by telephone to discuss any matter raised in this letter.

Very truly yours,

Laura Popp-Rosenberg

Re: Dr. Pepper / Seven Up, Inc. v. Krush Global Ltd., Opp No. 91180742 and Canc. No. 92048446

Dear Laura:

This letter is in response to your letter of May 16, 2008.

Interrogatories Nos. 6 – 12

I have considered your objections to the interrogatory responses. Contrary to your belief, my client has properly responded to Interrogatories Nos. 6 – 12. You are essentially asking for us to present our case. Under established Board precedent, a party is not obligated to specify in advance of trial all of the evidence it intends to present. See Charrette Corp. v. Bowater Communication Papers Inc., 13 USPO2d 2040 (TTAB 1989) and TBMP § 419(7). Accordingly, we will not supplement the responses at this time.

Interrogatory No. 3

See. Doc. No. 25.

Document Production

The second General Objection covers the objection that many of your document demands will not lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Each General Objection is incorporated into each response. The rationale behind the relevancy to the U.S. action objection is the same as the objection that the demand will not lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. As you must know, subject to some minor exceptions, information concerning applicant's foreign activities, including foreign trademark applications and/or registrations, is not relevant to the issues in an opposition proceeding. Oland's Breweries [1971] Limited v. Miller Brewing Company, 189 USPO 481, 483 n. 2 (TTAB 1975), affirmed, 192 USPO 266 (CCPA 1976); and Johnson & Johnson v. Salve S.A., 183 USPO 375 (TTAB 1974). Other than the documents already produced or where Krush has indicated it continues to search for relevant documents, Krush is not required to produce any further documents or otherwise respond to your demands that are not relevant to the issues in this proceeding.

Fraud Amendment

We do not consent to the amendment.

Very truly yours,

Jason M. Drangel

Re: Dr Pepper/Seven Up, Inc. v. Krush Global Ltd., Consolidated Opp. No. 91180742 (Our Ref.: DPSU USA TC-07/08151)

Dear Jason:

This letter will serve to confirm certain agreements reached during the initial discovery conference held between the parties on January 22, 2008 pursuant to Trademark Rule of Practice 2.120(a)(2) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f):

- The parties have agreed to a mutual exchange of the initial disclosures required under Trademark Rule of Practice 2.120(a)(2) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1) on February 8, 2008.<sup>1</sup>
- The parties have agreed to produce responsive documents and materials at opposing counsel's offices.<sup>2</sup>
- The parties have agreed that at the trial stage of these proceedings, direct testimony will be put into evidence in the form of affidavits (with all exhibits attached thereto), and that cross examination of witnesses, if requested, will be conducted orally. Plaintiff's direct testimony affidavits must be delivered no later than fifteen (15) days after the opening of its trial period, and the affiant must be made reasonably available for oral cross examination during the final fifteen (15) days of Plaintiff's trial period. Defendant's direct testimony affidavits must be delivered no later than fifteen (15) days after the opening of its trial period, and the affiant must be made reasonably available for oral cross examination during the final fifteen (15) days of Defendant's trial period. Rebuttal testimony affidavits must be delivered no later than seven (7) days after the opening of the rebuttal period, and rebuttal witnesses must be made reasonably available for oral cross-examination during the final eight (8) days of the rebuttal period.

<sup>1</sup> I spoke with the interlocutory attorney about the mistaken identification of "Cancellation No. 91180742" in the consolidation order issued by the Board today. He confirmed that the consolidated proceedings will follow the schedule set forth in the cancellation proceeding, No. 92048446.

<sup>2</sup> You indicated that you would confirm with your client whether it would be willing to exchange scanned images of produced materials in addition to hard copies, and whether it would be able to produce electronically stored information in searchable, electronic form. Please provide us with your client's position on these matters as soon as practicable.

- The parties have agreed that all produced documents are made of record for the proceedings, so that the parties can avoid the authentication procedure set forth in Trademark Board Manual of Procedure Section 704.11(1). In so agreeing, neither party waives any other objection(s) it may have to the admission of a particular document.

Should you disagree with any of the above items, please contact me to discuss as soon as possible.

Also, as discussed during the Rule 26(f) conference, we submit for your consideration the attached revision of the Board's Standard Protective Order. We look forward to your agreement to the revised terms.

Very truly yours,
