REQUEST FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT AND JUDGMENT

On January 17, 2008, Opposer served Applicant, NATIONAL R.V. HOLDINGS, INC., with the Notice of Opposition. Respondent was given 40 days or until February 26, 2008 to file an Answer. On February 23, 2008, a motion for suspension based upon an ongoing civil action was filed on consent. The opposition has remained in suspension until September 25, 2009. That same day, Applicant was given 30 days, or until October 25, 2009 to advise the Board regarding the civil action. Applicant failed to respond prior to October 25, 2009 resulting in the resetting of trial dates on November 10, 2009. That same day, Applicant was given until December 10, 2009 to file an Answer. As of the date of this motion, we have no record of the Applicant having served Opposer with its Answer and a search of the TTAB website similarly reveals that no Answer has been filed. Additionally, counsel for Opposer has not been contacted by opposing counsel and counsel has no knowledge regarding the status of the civil action. As a result, Opposer respectfully requests that a default be entered, that judgment be entered against Applicant and in favor of Opposer and the application refused.

Dated: December 31, 2009

Respectfully submitted for Opposer
