Opposition No. 91183300

Nordstrom, Inc.

v.

L. Justin Gayle

On June 24, 2008, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 77289972, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal with prejudice of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods from "belts; caps; tops; hunting vests; camp shirts; long-sleeved shirts; shirts; short-sleeved or long-sleeved t-shirts; short-sleeved shirts; sport shirts; sports shirts; sports shirts with short sleeves; sweat shirts; t-shirts; tee shirts; cargo pants; pants; golf shirts; knit shirts; open-necked shirts; polo shirts; bib overalls; overalls; working overalls; coveralls; hats; baseball caps; cap visors; caps with visors; knitted caps; jackets; men and women jackets, coats, trousers vests" to "shirts, t-shirts, caps, pants and jackets, all marketed to hunters and outdoor enthusiasts and distributed through online and retail outlets that target hunters and outdoor enthusiasts."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(b), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed with prejudice.
