Opposition No. 91183623

Hearst Communications, Inc.

v.

AT KidSystems Inc.

On December 29, 2008, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 78631512, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal without prejudice of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods from "interactive computer software for use in physical therapy, education, rehabilitation, entertainment, and child development" to "interactive computer software for use in physical therapy, education, rehabilitation, children's entertainment, and child development."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

Opposition No. 91183623

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed without prejudice.
