...The circular advised customers to compare the product to Afrin "and save." The circular also noted that McNeil Consumer Healthcare's Zyrtec is now available without a prescription. Walgreen Co. featured Zyrtec at $18.99 for 30-count, 10-mg 24-hour tablets, and Zyrtec D 24-count 12-hour tablets at the same price. Walgreens also showed Mucinex expectorant varieties--including Mucinex, Mucinex D ...

...up with the authorization of added labeling for Schering-Plough Consumer Healthcare's Claritin and the switch of McNeil Consumer Healthcare's Zyrtec from prescription to over-the-counter status. To publicize the switch of Zyrtec, McNeil this winter set up the "Spring Wonderland Dome" in New York City's Central Park, letting visitors experience a virtual spring. "Physicians have been prescribing Zyrtec for the last decade to help patients manage their worst indoor and outdoor allergy symptoms," notes McNeil president Ashley McEvoy ...

...Zyrtec hits retail shelves in record time. [ILLUSTRATION OMITTED] Supply chains across some of the top names in mass and drug went into overdrive to deliver newly switched Zyrtec to allergy-suffering consumers. Zyrtec products, including tablets, chewable tablets and syrup in each of its 4,128 U.S. stores by Jan. 23, the company noted. "Many of the country's 50 million allergy sufferers have looked to us for their prescription Zyrtec, and we're sure they'll continue to look to us for the OTC product," stated John Agwunobi, senior vice president and president for Wal-Mart's professional services division. " In fact, they'll look to us for the lowest price on OTC Zyrtec, and we don't plan to let them down." Wal-Mart's efforts were not, however, a result of any special first-to-market arrangements with Zyrtec maker McNeil Consumer Healthcare. According to Walgreens spokesman Michael Polzin, Walgreens, too, took advantage of its supply chain to move Zyrtec into select stores by Jan. 21, and had it available in all 6,100-plus stores by Jan. 22. And CVS Caremark spokesman Mike DeAngelis told Drug Store News that CVS, too, had Zyrtec available in select stores as early as Jan. 21, and in all of its 6,200-plus stores by Jan. 22. In addition, CVS stores are carrying 10 Zyrtec SKUs, he noted. 258 Business Pharmaceuticals and cosmetics industries Retail industry Discount Stores Goods & services distribution Services information Channels of Distribution Zyrtec (Medication) Zyrtec (Medication) - Distribution Services Cetirizine Cetirizine - Distribution Discount stores Discount stores - Services WAL MART STORES INC WMT Variety Stores 5331 All ...

...from an Rx allergy remedy to OTC. Cigna HealthCare in January sent letters to patients alerting those who had filled Zyrtec prescriptions in the prior year that the remedy was now available OTC. Included in that mailing was a $5 coupon toward their first Zyrtec purchase. And Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan and its affiliated HMO Blue Care Network last month opted to include the OTC version of Zyrtec in its prescription formularies--maintaining co-pay coverage for a potential 2 million allergy sufferers. " Zyrtec OTC is available to Blue Cross members whose employers or groups have included this option in their benefit design," the insurer stated. " These members should check with their benefits administrator to confirm if their plan will cover Zyrtec OTC ... Blues members who decide to make a change still will need to get a prescription from their doctor for Zyrtec OTC."
