Intellectual Reserve, Inc.,
Corporation of the President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

v.

Pam L. Hartnett

Vionette Baez, Paralegal:

The notice instituting this proceeding, a copy of the petition to cancel and a notice of default were forwarded to registrant but were returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable forwarding time expired. The Board personnel conducted an online search of the records and obtained a more current address for applicant's attorney:

Jeffrey R. Bousquet
5525 Queensberry Avenue
Springfield, VA 22151-2414

Accordingly, the above notice, with enclosure, is remailed as indicated above.

Registrant is allowed until FORTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order in which to inform this Office of its correct address in order that all records may be amended.

Compliance with Trademark Rule 2.193(b) and Trademark 2.119(a) is required.

If there has been any transfer of interest in the involved registration, registrant must so advise the Board and registrant must submit copies of the appropriate documents. See Section 10 of the Trademark Act and Patent and Trademark Rules 3.71 and 3.73.

In view of the circumstances, the time for filing an answer to the petition to cancel is extended to FORTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order. Notice is hereby given that unless the registrant listed herein, its assigns or legal representatives, shall enter an appearance, answer or other response to the petition within the time frame allowed, the cancellation may proceed as in the case of default.

In accordance with the Trademark Rules of Practice, conferencing, disclosure, discovery and testimony dates are set below. In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony, together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Appeal Board inter partes proceedings are amended. Certain amendments have an effective date of August 31, 2007, while most have an effective date of November 1, 2007. For further information, the parties are referred to a reprint of the final rule and a chart summarizing the affected rules, their changes, and effective dates, both viewable on the USPTO website via these web addresses:

By one rule change effective August 31, 2007, the Board's standard protective order is made applicable to all TTAB inter partes cases, whether already pending or commenced on or after that date. However, as explained in the final rule and chart, this change will not affect any case in which any protective order has already been approved or imposed by the Board. Further, as explained in the final rule, parties are free to agree to a substitute protective order or to supplement or amend the standard order even after August 31, 2007, subject to Board approval.
