Opposition No. 91186343

Children's Miracle Network

v.

Meredith Corporation

On March 17, 2009, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 77054535, with opposer's written consent, and opposer's withdrawal of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.<sup>1</sup>

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of services from "Providing recognition by way of an award to individuals who have made significant contributions to children's causes; conducting events in the nature of an awards ceremony providing recognition to individuals who have made significant contributions to children's causes" to "Providing recognition by way of an award to individuals who have made significant contributions to children's causes; conducting events in the nature of an awards ceremony providing recognition to individuals who have made significant contributions to children's causes, none of the foregoing to include charitable fundraising."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed in accordance with the agreement between the parties.
