TRADEMARK: JUNK FOOD MONSTER

IN THE

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

In the matter of Trademark Registration Application Serial No. 77/200,933 published in the Official Gazette (Trademarks) on May 20, 2008:

MONSTER CABLE PRODUCTS, INC.

Opposer,

v.

LINDA NORCROSS DOSSEY,

Applicant.

Opposition No. _____

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

MONSTER CABLE PRODUCTS, INC., a California corporation ("Opposer"), whose address is 455 Valley Drive, Brisbane, CA 94005-1209, believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the mark "JUNK FOOD MONSTER," in International Class 25 for "short-sleeved t-shirts; long-sleeved t-shirts; t-shirts,” on the Principal Register, as shown in the above-referenced application made by Linda Norcross Dossey (“Applicant”), and hereby opposes same.

As grounds of opposition, it is alleged that:

1. Opposer has prior rights to the trademark MONSTER, as it first used said mark at least as early as May 18, 1978, and caused said mark to be placed in commerce at least as early as August 18, 1978.

2. Since long prior to June 7, 2007, the filing date of the subject ITU application or the actual date of first use of the JUNK FOOD MONSTER mark by Applicant, Opposer has used continuously the MONSTER mark and marks using the “Monster” stem word on or in connection with various goods and services in the United States. Among those goods and services sold and provided for by Opposer in the United States under these marks are a variety of goods and services including, but not limited to, electrical, audio, video, clothing, and musical items, and thereafter on related items, including products and services in connection with computers, the Internet and electronic commerce, professional sports events, community events, and related goods.

3. By reason of the adoption and continuous use of these marks, these marks have a distinctive quality and have acquired special and particular significance and very valuable goodwill as identifying Opposer and its goods and services. Opposer’s marks have become distinctive through, inter alia, Opposer’s extensive use, advertising, and promotion of those marks throughout the United States for a variety of goods and services over a substantial period of time.

4. Consequently, through such usage and recognition, Opposer has acquired common law rights in the marks as proprietary trademarks, which rights extend without limitation to the exclusive right to use such designation nationwide in conjunction with Opposer's goods and services.

5. Moreover, since prior to either the filing date of the subject application or the actual date of first use of the JUNK FOOD MONSTER mark by Applicant, Opposer has used the designation MONSTER, either alone or in connection with other terms, as a trademark on or in conjunction with a variety of goods and services and, as such, has acquired nationwide common law rights in the MONSTER designation as a proprietary trademark for its goods and services.
