REQUEST TO WITHDRAW AS ATTORNEY

John A. Galbreath, to the extent he is even considered to be the attorney for Applicant in the above-referenced opposition, hereby requests to withdraw, and states as follows:

I am the attorney of record for the underlying trademark application, Serial No. 77/247,611, and prosecuted the application to approval for publication for opposition. An opposition was instituted, and upon receiving the Opposition Notice, I forwarded it to the Applicant. Applicant's answer has been filed by another attorney. Thus, to whatever extent I was considered to be Applicant's attorney in the opposition by virtue of having been Applicant's attorney in the underlying trademark application, I have now been discharged by Applicant.

In addition, I have:

- 1) Notified the Applicant of my desire to withdraw from employment;
- 2) Allowed time for employment of another practitioner in the United States;
- 3) Delivered to the Applicant all papers and property that relate to the proceeding;
- 4) Served this request on the Applicant and every other party to the proceeding.

No fees have been paid in advance.

Respectfully submitted,

/John A. Galbreath/
