v.

Super Bakery, Incorporated

Michael B. Adlin, Interlocutory Attorney:

Opposers' motions for summary judgment,¹ applicant's responses thereto and opposers' reply briefs in the above-

¹ Filed October 7, 2009 in Opposition No. 91187796, October 9, 2009 in Opposition Nos. 91187905, 91187907, 91187908 and 91187927, October 13, 2009 in Opposition Nos. 91187917 and 91187921 and October 16, 2009 in Opposition No. 91187920.

Opposition Nos. 91187796, 91187905, 91187907, 91187908, 91187917, 91187920, 91187921 and 91187927 referenced proceedings are all noted, but will be given no consideration at this time, without prejudice to the parties' right to refile pursuant to this order. A number of applicant's responsive briefs and opposers' reply briefs exceed the page limitation set forth in Trademark Rule 2.127(a), and at least some of the briefs in support of opposers' motions, and opposers' reply briefs, on cursory review, appear to be potentially non-compliant with Trademark Rule 2.126(a)(1).² Under the circumstances, opposers are allowed until TWENTY DAYS from the mailing date of this order to refile compliant motions for summary judgment, and applicant's compliant responses thereto, and opposers' compliant reply briefs, if any, shall be due in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.127(e)(1). Proceedings remain otherwise suspended.

² In fact, it seems clear that the font of at least the footnotes in opposers' briefs is smaller than allowed.
