Opposition No. 91188241

Innocent Skin, Inc.

v.

Morgen Bentsen

Robert H. Coggins, Interlocutory Attorney:

On October 5, 2009, opposer's attorneys filed a second request to withdraw as opposer's counsel of record in this case. The request to withdraw as counsel is now in compliance with the requirements of Trademark Rule 2.19(b) and Patent and Trademark Rule 10.40, and is accordingly granted. The law firm of Lauson & Tarver, LLP no longer represents opposer in this proceeding.

In view of the withdrawal of opposer's counsel, and in accordance with standard Board practice, proceedings herein remain suspended, and opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to appoint new counsel, or to file a paper stating that opposer will represent itself. If opposer files no response, the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against opposer based on opposer's apparent loss of interest in the case.

As noted above, proceedings remain suspended. The parties will be notified by the Board when proceedings are resumed, and dates will be rescheduled at the appropriate time.
