ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO AMEND APPLICATION AND SUSPEND PROCEEDINGS

Halbro, LLC ("Applicant") moves, pursuant to TBMP §§ 514.01 and 514.02, and 37 C.F.R. §2.133(a), with the consent of the Opposer, Whatapartnership, L.P. The proposed amended mark and a specimen of the amended mark as used in commerce are attached as Exhibits A and B respectively. In addition, Applicant requests, pursuant to TBMP §510.03(a), that the TTAB suspend proceedings under the Opposition while it considers Applicant's motion, which, if granted, will be dispositive of this proceeding. WHATAPARTNERSHIP, L.P. Opposer V. HALBRO, LLC Applicant	OPPOSITION NO. 91166232 SERIAL NO. 76/579,951

APPLICANT'S MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO AMEND APPLICATION

I. NATURE AND STATUS OF PROCEEDINGS

Applicant, Halbro, LLC ("Applicant"), has applied for registration of a composite mark (Serial No. 76, 579,951) for restaurant and take-out food services in International Class 43, with the mark consisting of the words "The 'Wow! ... What a Sub!!' Boyz Subs and Steaks" and design ("original mark"). The original mark was published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office dated June 28, 2005.

On August 5, 2005, WhataPartnership, L.P. ("Opposer"), filed a Notice of Opposition in which it opposed registration on the grounds that the original mark for which Applicant sought registration was, because of the inclusion of the phrase "What A," confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and family of WHATA registered marks.

Since that time, Applicant and Opposer have conducted discovery, and more recently, have engaged in settlement discussions pursuant to which Applicant, with the consent of the Opposer, has elected to move this Board for permission to amend its application to seek registration of a mark consisting of the words "The 'Wow! ... That's a Sub!!' Boyz Subs and Steaks," in order to eliminate the likelihood of confusion with Opposer's mark, and, in support of this motion, has submitted a new drawing (Exhibit A to Applicant's motion) and a new in-use specimen (Exhibit B to Applicant's motion).

For the reasons stated below, Applicant contends that the amended mark qualifies for registration under 37 C.F.R. §2.72(a) and the amendment should be approved by this Board.

II. ARGUMENT

A. AMENDMENT IS PERMITTED UNDER 37 C.F.R. §2.133

1. Applicant has obtained the consent of Opposer.

TBMP §514.01 provides in pertinent part that, "[t]he amendment of any application ... which is the subject of an inter parties proceeding before the Board is governed by 37 C.F.R. §2.133.

37 C.F.R. §2.133 provides in pertinent part that:

> (a) An application subject to an opposition may not be amended in substance ... with the consent of the other party or parties and the approval of the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board ....

As shown on the motion, the Applicant has obtained the consent of the Opposer to the amendment.

2. Amendment of the original drawing of the mark is permitted under 37 C.F.R. §2.72(a) because it does not materially alter the mark.

In addition to obtaining the Opposer's consent, TBMP §514.01 provides that "[a] proposed amendment to any application ... which is the subject of an inter parties proceeding must also comply with all applicable rules and statutory provisions ... includ[ing] 37 C.F.R. §§2.71-2.75 in the case of a proposed amendment to an application. ..."

37 C.F.R. §2.72(a) provides in pertinent part as follows:

> (a) In an application based on use in commerce under section 1(a) of the Act, the applicant may amend the description or drawing of the mark only if:
> (2) The proposed amendment does not materially alter the mark. The Office will determine whether a proposed amendment materially alters a mark by comparing the proposed amendment with the description or drawing of the mark filed with the original application.

As stated by this Board most recently in In re Who? Vision Systems, Inc., 57 USPQ2d 1211 (TTAB 2000):

> the test for determining whether an amendment is a material alteration [for purposes of §2.72(a)] was articulated in Visa Int'l Serv. Ass'n v. Life-Code Systems, Inc., 220 USPQ 740 (TTAB 1983):'The modified mark must contain what is the essence of the original mark, and the new form must create the impression of being essentially the same mark.' 220 USPQ at 743. 'That is, the new and old forms of the mark must create essentially the same commercial impression.' Id. at 1218, quoting In re Nationwide Indus. Inc., 6 USPQ 1882, 1885 (TTAB 1988).

The requirements for amendment under §2.72(a)(2) are met in this case because the amendment proposed by Applicant does not materially alter the mark:

The only difference between the two marks is that the contraction "That's" has replaced the word "What." Indeed, the two marks appear identical, and it would only be by close comparison of the two that the word substitution would even be apparent. A side-by-side comparison of the old and new mark reveals instantly that the overall design of the mark has not changed. Compare In re Dillard Department Stores, Inc., 33 USPQ2d 1052 (Comm'r Pats. 1993) (if a design is integrated into a mark and is a distinctive feature necessary for recognition of the mark, then a change in design would materially alter the mark; proposed deletion of highly stylized display features of mark "IN.VEST.MENTS" held to be a material alteration); Ex parte Kadane-Brown, Inc., 79 USPQ 307 (Comm'r Pats. 1948)(proposed amendment of "Blue Bonnet" mark to delete a star design and to change the picture of the girl held a material alteration).

The commercial impression created by the original mark is that a customer will be so impressed when she bites into one of the Applicant's subs that she will exclaim "Wow! ... What a Sub!!" The exclamatory language is clearly meant to give the impression that The Boyz's subs are the best anyone has ever eaten and are so far superior to other subs that, when one is consumed for the first time, it is as if a sub is being tasted for the very first time.

The commercial impression of the new mark is exactly the same: that subs made by The Boyz will prompt a customer to be so impressed upon eating one that she will exclaim, "Wow! ... That's a Sub!!" The substitution of "That's" for "What" does nothing to alter the commercial impression of the mark. Compare In re Who?, 57 USPQ2d at 1218 (amendment rejected where words "Tactilesense" and "Tacilesense" have "distinctly different commercial impressions"). Any difference from using the word "That" instead of "What," when referring to the word "Sub," is negligible. See In re Finlay Fine Jewelry Corp., 41 USPQ2d 1152 (TTAB 1996)("NEW YORK JEWELRY OUTLET" not a material alteration of "NY JEWELRY OUTLET"); In re Larios, S.A., 35 USPQ2d 1214 (TTAB 1995) ("VINO DE MALAGA LARIOS" and design not a material alteration of "GRAN VINO MALAGA LARIOS" with similar design). Because the old and new mark's meaning or connotation are identical, the new mark does not materially alter the old mark. See In re Finlay Fine Jewelry, 41 USPQ2d at 1154 ("NEW YORK" and "NY" interchangeable and create the same commercial impression despite being visually and phonetically different); compare In re Who?, 57 USPQ2d at 1217 ("The phonetic dissimilarities between the two terms, as well as their obviously dissimilar meanings or connotations, preclude any finding that the two terms create essentially the same commercial impression.").

Because the two marks are virtually identical, and because the words "What" and "That" are generic, republication of the amended mark will not be necessary to give fair notice to third parties. See In re Vienna Sausage Mfg. Co., 16 USPQ2d 2044, 2047 (TTAB 1990)("The question of whether a new search is necessitated by the amendment is a factor to be considered but is not the determining element of whether or not to accept the amendment.").

This case is virtually on all fours with In re Larios. Like the amendment allowed by the Board in that case, "given the manner in which [the words "What" and "That"] are used in the overall design schemes of the respective marks, including the identity in both their relative size and their arrangement immediately [after] ...the word [Wow! and before the words "a Sub!"], ... substituting [That's] for [What] changes nothing of trademark significant. The modified mark [The "Wow! ... That's a Sub!!" Boyz Subs and Steaks] and design still contains the essence of the mark [The "Wow! What a Sub!!" Boyz Subs and Steaks] and design, and creates the impression of being essentially the same mark." 35 USPQ2d at 1218.

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Applicant Halbro, Inc., respectfully requests this Board grant its assented-to motion to amend its application under Serial No. 76/579,951 to replace the original drawing and specimen with the amended drawing and new specimen attached as Exhibits A and B to its motion.

WHATAPARTNERSHIP, L.P. Opposer V. HALBRO, LLC Applicant	OPPOSITION NO. 91166232 SERIAL NO. 76/579,951

SECOND ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO AMEND APPLICATION AND SUSPEND PROCEEDINGS

Halbro, LLC ("Applicant") moves, pursuant to TBMP §§ 514.01 and 514.02, TMEP §806.03(c), and 37 C.F.R. §2.133(a), and with the consent of the Opposer, Whatapartnership, L.P., to further amend its application for registration of a composite mark under Serial No. 76/579,951 to substitute §1(b) as the basis for registration. For its grounds, Applicant states that such amendment is appropriate under the circumstances because Applicant's original basis under §1(a) for registration of the amended mark (as submitted with Applicant's original Assented-To-Motion to Amend Application and Suspend Proceedings) fails because the amended mark was not in use in commerce when the application was filed.

In accordance with the requirements of 15 U.S.C. §1051(b)(3)(B) and 37 C.F.R. §§ 2.20 and 2.34(a)(2), Applicant attaches as Exhibit A the Declaration of Lindsey M. Straus stating that the Applicant has had a bona fide intention to use the mark in commerce on or in connection with the goods/services since the application filing date.

WHEREFORE, Applicant respectfully requests that the TTAB grant its motion to further amend its application under Serial No. 76/579,951 and suspend this proceeding while such motion is under consideration by the Board.

By this notice, various rules governing Trademark Trial and Appeal Board inter partes proceedings are amended. Certain amendments have an effective date of August 31, 2007, while most have an effective date of November 1, 2007. For further information, the parties are referred to a reprint of the final rule and a chart summarizing the affected rules, their changes, and effective dates, both viewable on the USPTO website via these web addresses:

By one rule change effective August 31, 2007, the Board's standard protective order is made applicable to all TTAB inter partes cases, whether already pending or commenced on or after that date. However, as explained in the final rule and chart, this change will not affect any case in which any protective order has already been approved or imposed by the Board. Further, as explained in the final rule, parties are free to agree to a substitute protective order or to supplement or amend the standard order even after August 31, 2007, subject to Board approval. NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 77/403,811 – WHATADOG for "dog training" in International Class 41, filed February 22, 2008, by Christine J. Mahaney ("Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated July 8, 2008. Whataburger Partnership will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. Whataburger Partnership puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. Whataburger Partnership is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Opposer").

2. Opposer operates over 600 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABURGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA formative marks to identify its food products, and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA formative marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law (photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A).

(a) Registration No. 652,137 – WHATABURGER for "hamburger sandwich," registered on the Principal Register September 24, 1957.

(c) Registration No. 1,011,927 – WHATABURGER for "hamburgers, cheeseburgers, french fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, and frankfurter sandwiches" and "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register on May 27, 1975.

(d) Registration No. 1,011,928 – WHATABURGER & W Design for "hamburgers, cheeseburgers, french fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, and frankfurter sandwiches" and "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register on May 27, 1975.

(e) Registration No. 1,014,196 – WHATABURGER JR. for "prepared hamburger sandwich for consumption on or off premises," registered on the Principal Register on June 24, 1975.

(f) Registration No. 1,116,918 – WHATAMEAL for "prepared meal consisting of a hamburger sandwich, french fries and a beverage for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register April 24, 1979.

(g) Registration No. 1,206,344 – WHATACATCH for "breaded fish fillets suitable for fish sandwiches" and "prepared fish sandwich for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register August 24, 1982.

(h) Registration No. 2,160,285 – WHATACHICK'N for "chicken sandwich," registered on the Principal Register May 26, 1998.

(i) Registration No. 2,335,590 – WHATABURGER for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register March 28, 2000.

(j) Registration No. 2,372,372 – WHATAKIDS for "clothing for children, namely, shirts, polo shirts, t-shirts, dresses, overalls, onesies, baseball caps and hats," registered on the Principal Register August 1, 2000.

(k) Registration No. 2,418,380 – WHATAGUY for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register January 2, 2000.

(l) Registration No. 2,432,191 – WHATAKIDS for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register February 27, 2001.

(m) Registration No. 2,519,854 – WHATACOMIX for "comic books and children's activity books," registered on the Principal Register December 18, 2001.

(n) Registration No. 2,534,527 – WHATAPLACE! WHATATASTE! for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register January 29, 2002.

(o) Registration No. 2,757,109 – WHATABURGER for "charitable fundraising services," registered on the Principal Register August 26, 2003.

(p) Registration No. 2,846,139 – WHATABLENDERS for "milk shake drinks, bases for milk shake drinks and candy flavored toppings," registered on the Principal Register May 25, 2004.

(q) Registration No. 3,185,230 – WHATASIZE for "restaurant services featuring a prepared meal containing french fries and a soft drink for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

(r) Registration No. 3,188,132 – WHATABURGER FIELD for "providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

(s) Registration No. 3,188,136 – WHATABURGER FIELD & Design for "providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

8. Many of Opposer's pleaded registrations are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. Opposer has continuing common law rights in its trademark WHATADOG for frankfurter sandwiches, which Opposer used beginning in 1962 and has not abandoned.

10. Opposer has invested substantial sums advertising and promoting the sale of its goods and services under its WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks, the relevant consuming public has come to recognize the WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks as being used by Opposer and to associate and identify the WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks with Opposer. Opposer has obtained and enjoys an exceedingly valuable reputation and goodwill symbolized by the WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks.

11. Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks are entitled to a broad scope of protection against similar marks.

12. The constructive and actual dates of first use of Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks precede the filing date of, and dates of first use alleged in, the opposed application.

13. On information and belief, Applicant has adopted and commence use of the designation WHATADOG in connection with dog training services. The services recited in the opposed application are not restricted as to types of customers and channels of trade.

14. The designation WHATADOG so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks, including but not limited to Opposer's mark WHATADOG, in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to Applicant's services, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

15. The designation WHATADOG is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks so that registration of the designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive and prior rights in its registered and common law marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

16. Any defect, objection or fault found with any service sold under the designation WHATADOG would injure the valuable reputation and goodwill Opposer has established for its products and services sold under its WHATABURGER and WHATA formative marks.

17. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that the opposed mark be denied registration.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

Respectfully submitted,

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

WhataPartnership, L.P., a limited partnership organized under the laws of Delaware, with offices located at 300 Delaware Avenue, Suite 900, Wilmington, DE 19801, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 78/340,067 – CHIHUAHUA WHAT A SANDWICH & Design for "chili sandwich sold for consumption at a movie theatre" in International Class 30, filed on December 12, 2003 by R.A. "Skeet" Noret (hereinafter "Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated September 28, 2004. WhataPartnership, L.P. will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. WhataPartnership, L.P. puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. WhataPartnership, L.P. is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses to Whataburger, Inc., a Texas corporation with principal offices at 4600 Parkdale Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas 74811-9230, the right to operate and to authorize franchisees to operate restaurants using the pleaded trademarks and service marks. (WhataPartnership, L.P. and Whataburger, Inc. are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Opposer.")

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABUGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify a diverse array of food products.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to its identify food products, and collateral goods such as printed materials and clothing.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Opposer will submit current status and title copies, prepared by the Patent and Trademark Office, of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. Photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. Opposer's Reg. Nos. 652,137; 891,082: 1,011,927; 1,011,928; 1,014,196; 1,116,918; 1,206,344; 2,150,703; and 2,160,285 are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Opposer has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. On information and belief, Applicant has adopted and is using the designation CHIHUAHUA WHAT A SANDWICH & Design in connection with the food product identified in the opposed application.

11. The product identified in the opposed application is substantially identical to many of the products offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks and closely related to Opposer's remaining products and restaurant services.

12. The proposed designation CHIHUAHUA WHAT A SANDWICH & Design so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to the food product identified in the opposed application, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

13. Applicant's proposed designation is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of Applicant's proposed designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive rights in and to its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that Applicant's proposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding to be debited to the deposit account of Wiley Rein & Fielding, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

WhataPartnership, L.P., a limited partnership organized under the laws of Delaware, with offices located at 300 Delaware Avenue, Suite 900, Wilmington, DE 19801, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 76/511,369 – WHATTA JERK X-TREME BEEF JERKY for "meats and processed foods, namely, beef jerky," in International Class 29, filed on May 2, 2003 by SCJ Enterprises, Inc. (hereinafter "Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated March 23, 2004. WhataPartnership, L.P. will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. WhataPartnership, L.P. puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. WhataPartnership, L.P. is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses to Whataburger, Inc., a Texas corporation with principal offices at 4600 Parkdale Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas 74811-9230, the right to operate and to authorize franchisees to operate restaurants using the pleaded trademarks and service marks. (WhataPartnership, L.P. and Whataburger, Inc. are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Opposer.")

2. Opposer, either directly or through its franchisees, operates over 500 restaurants in the United States and Mexico under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABUGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to its identify food products, and collateral goods such as printed materials and clothing.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Opposer will submit current status and title copies, prepared by the Patent and Trademark Office, of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. Photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. Opposer's Reg. Nos. 652,137; 891,082: 1,011,927; 1,011,928; 1,014,196; 1,116,918; 1,206,344; 2,150,703; and 2,160,285 are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Opposer has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. On information and belief, Applicant intends to adopt and commence use of WHATTA JERK X-TREME BEEF JERKY in connection with the food product identified in the opposed application.

11. The product identified in the opposed application is substantially identical to many of the products offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks and otherwise closely related to Opposer's remaining products and restaurant services.

12. The proposed designation WHATTA JERK X-TREME BEEF JERKY so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to the food product identified in the opposed application, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

13. Applicant's proposed designation is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of Applicant's proposed designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive rights in and to its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that Applicant's proposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding in two classes to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein & Fielding, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

Respectfully submitted,

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 77/286,324 – WHATTACAKE & Design ("WHATTACAKE") for "bakery desserts; bakery goods; bakery products; ice cream sandwiches; cakes; ice cream," in International Class 30, filed September 21, 2007, by TBC Investments Inc. ("Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated March 11, 2008. Whataburger Partnership will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. Whataburger Partnership puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. Whataburger Partnership is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Opposer").

2. Opposer operates over 600 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABURGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to identify its food products, and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law (photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A).

(d) Registration No. 1,011,928 – WHATABURGER & W Design for "hamburgers, cheeseburgers, french fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, and frankfurter sandwiches" and "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register on May 27, 1975.

(s) Registration No. 3,188,136 – WHATABURGER FIELD & Design for "providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

8. Many of Opposer's pleaded registrations are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. Opposer has invested substantial sums advertising and promoting the sale of its goods and services under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, the relevant consuming public has come to recognize the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks as being used by Opposer and to associate and identify the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks with Opposer. Opposer has obtained and enjoys an exceedingly valuable reputation and goodwill symbolized by the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

10. The constructive and actual dates of first use of Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks precede the filing date of the opposed application.

11. On information and belief, Applicant intends to adopt and commence use of the designation WHATTACAKE in connection with food products consisting of bakery desserts; bakery goods; bakery products; ice cream sandwiches; cakes; ice cream.

12. Opposer's food products include various bakery type goods and products such as biscuits, rolls, pies and cookies.

13. The food products identified in the opposed application are closely related, if not identical, to the products and services offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks. The products in the opposed application are not restricted as to types of customers and channels of trade.

14. The designation WHATTACAKE so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to Applicant's food products, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

15. The designation WHATTACAKE is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of the designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive and prior rights in its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

16. Any defect, objection or fault found with any food product sold under the designation WHATTACAKE would injure the valuable reputation and goodwill Opposer has established for its products and services sold under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

17. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that the opposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding in two classes to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

Respectfully submitted,

NEWS FROM THE TTAB:

The USPTO published a notice of final rulemaking in the Federal Register on August 1, 2007, at 72 F.R. 42242. By this notice, various rules governing Trademark Trial and Appeal Board inter partes proceedings are amended. Certain amendments have an effective date of August 31, 2007, while most have an effective date of November 1, 2007. For further information, the parties are referred to a reprint of the final rule and a chart summarizing the affected rules, their changes, and effective dates, both viewable on the USPTO website via these web addresses:

http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/com/sol/notices/72fr42242_FinalRuleChart.pdf

By one rule change effective August 31, 2007, the Board's standard protective order is made applicable to all TTAB inter partes cases, whether already pending or commenced on or after that date. However, as explained in the final rule and chart, this change will not affect any case in which any protective order has already been approved or imposed by the Board. Further, as explained in the final rule, parties are free to agree to a substitute protective order or to supplement or amend the standard order even after August 31, 2007, subject to Board approval. NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

WhataPartnership, L.P., a limited partnership organized under the laws of Delaware, with offices located at 300 Delaware Avenue, Suite 900, Wilmington, DE 19801, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 78/200,218 – WHAT A BAGEL & Design for the following goods and services:

> Bagels, breads, donuts, pastries, and beverages, namely, coffee, including specialty coffees, tea and hot chocolate, in International Class 30;
> Restaurant services, namely, operating bakeries, bakery shops, bagel shops, donut shops and pastry/patisserie takeout restaurants, in International Class 43, filed on January 6, 2003 by W.A.B. Bakery Franchising Ltd. (hereinafter "Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated March 16, 2004. WhataPartnership, L.P. will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. WhataPartnership, L.P. puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. WhataPartnership, L.P. is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses to Whataburger, Inc., a Texas corporation with principal offices at 4600 Parkdale Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas 74811-9230, the right to operate and to authorize franchisees to operate restaurants using the pleaded trademarks and service marks. (WhataPartnership, L.P. and Whataburger, Inc. are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Opposer.")

2. Opposer, either directly or through its franchisees, operates over 500 restaurants in the United States and Mexico under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABUGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to its identify food products, and collateral goods such as printed materials and clothing.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Opposer will submit current status and title copies, prepared by the Patent and Trademark Office, of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. Photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. Opposer's Reg. Nos. 652,137; 891,082: 1,011,927; 1,011,928; 1,014,196; 1,116,918; 1,206,344; 2,150,703; and 2,160,285 are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Opposer has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. On information and belief, Applicant intends to adopt and commence use of the designation WHAT A BAGEL & Design in connection with the products and services identified in the opposed application.

11. The products and services identified in the opposed application are substantially identical to the products and services offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

12. The proposed designation WHAT A BAGEL & Design so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to the products and services identified in the opposed application, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

PAGE 6/25 * RCVD AT 6/30/2004 3:36:45 PM [Eastern Daylight Time] * SVR:USPTO-EFXRF-2/4 * DNIS:7467093 * CSID:Wiley Rein Fielding * DURATION (mm-ss):06-08

13. Applicant's proposed designation is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of Applicant's proposed designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive rights in and to its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that Applicant's proposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS ($600.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding in two classes to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein & Fielding, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

Respectfully submitted,

PETITION TO CANCEL

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby petitions to cancel Registration No. 3,389,431 – WATTA for "fresh fruits; fresh vegetables," in International Class 31, registered on the Principal Register February 26, 2008, by Agroamerica Corporation ("Registrant"). Whataburger Partnership is being damaged by the continued registration of Registration No. 3,389,431 and puts forth the following grounds for cancellation:

1. Whataburger Partnership is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Petition to Cancel and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Petitioner").

2. Petitioner operates over 700 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Petitioner, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABURGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Petitioner uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Petitioner has developed a family of WHATA marks to identify its food products, and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Petitioner's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Petitioner's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

Cancellation No. 92050094

Whataburger Partnership L.P.

v.

Agroamerica Corporation

On November 3, 2009, the parties filed registrant's proposed amendment to its Registration No. 3389431, with petitioner's consent, and petitioner's withdrawal of the petition to cancel, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment registrant seeks to change the identification of goods from "Fresh fruits; Fresh vegetables" to "fresh fruits and vegetables not sold through restaurants, including quick and full-service restaurants."

Inasmuch as the amendment complies with all of the procedural requirements of Trademark Rule 2.173, it is clearly limiting in nature, and petitioner consents thereto, it is approved. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The amendment will be forwarded to the Post Registration Branch of this Office for appropriate action in accordance with Section 7(e) of the Trademark Act.

The contingency in petitioner's withdrawal having now been met, the petition to cancel is dismissed in accordance with the agreement between the parties.

PETITION TO CANCEL

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby petitions to cancel Registration No. 3,155,106 – WHAT A PICKLE for "pickles," in International Class 29, registered on the Principal Register October 10, 2006, by Gielow Pickles, Inc. ("Registrant"). Whataburger Partnership is being damaged by the continued registration of Registration No. 3,155,106 and puts forth the following grounds for cancellation:

1. Whataburger Partnership is the owner of all right, title and interest in the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Petition to Cancel and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Petitioner").

2. Petitioner operates over 700 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Petitioner, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABURGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Petitioner uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Petitioner has developed a family of WHATA marks to identify its food products and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Petitioner's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Petitioner's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Petitioner is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law (photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A).

(a) Registration No. 652,137 – WHATABURGER for "hamburger sandwich," registered on the Principal Register September 24, 1957.

(b) Registration No. 891,082 – WHATABURGER for "restaurant services and drive in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register May 12, 1970.

(c) Registration No. 1,011,927 – WHATABURGER for "hamburgers, cheeseburgers, french fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, and frankfurter sandwiches" and "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register on May 27, 1975.

(d) Registration No. 1,011,928 – WHATABURGER & W Design for "hamburgers, cheeseburgers, french fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, and frankfurter sandwiches" and "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register on May 27, 1975.

(e) Registration No. 1,014,196 – WHATABURGER JR. for "prepared hamburger sandwich for consumption on or off premises," registered on the Principal Register on June 24, 1975.

(f) Registration No. 1,116,918 – WHATAMEAL for "prepared meal consisting of a hamburger sandwich, french fries and a beverage for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register April 24, 1979.

(g) Registration No. 1,206,344 – WHATACATCH for "breaded fish fillets suitable for fish sandwiches" and "prepared fish sandwich for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register August 24, 1982.

(h) Registration No. 2,160,285 – WHATACHICK'N for "chicken sandwich," registered on the Principal Register May 26, 1998.

(i) Registration No. 2,335,590 – WHATABURGER for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register March 28, 2000.

(j) Registration No. 2,372,372 – WHATAKIDS for "clothing for children, namely, shirts, polo shirts, t-shirts, dresses, overalls, onesies, baseball caps and hats," registered on the Principal Register August 1, 2000.

(k) Registration No. 2,418,380 – WHATAGUY for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register January 2, 2000.

(l) Registration No. 2,432,191 – WHATAKIDS for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register February 27, 2001.

(m) Registration No. 2,519,854 – WHATACOMIX for "comic books and children's activity books," registered on the Principal Register December 18, 2001.

(n) Registration No. 2,534,527 – WHATAPLACE! WHATATASTE! for "restaurant services," registered on the Principal Register January 29, 2002.

(o) Registration No. 2,757,109 – WHATABURGER for "charitable fundraising services," registered on the Principal Register August 26, 2003.

(p) Registration No. 2,846,139 – WHATABLENDERS for "milk shake drinks, bases for milk shake drinks and candy flavored toppings," registered on the Principal Register May 25, 2004.

(q) Registration No. 3,185,230 – WHATASIZE for "restaurant services featuring a prepared meal containing french fries and a soft drink for consumption on or off the premises," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

(r) Registration No. 3,188,132 – WHATABURGER FIELD for "providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

(s) Registration No. 3,188,136 – WHATABURGER FIELD & Design for "providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts," registered on the Principal Register December 19, 2006.

8. Many of Petitioner's pleaded registrations are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Petitioner's ownership thereof, and of Petitioner's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. Petitioner has invested substantial sums advertising and promoting the sale of its goods and services under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks. By reason of Petitioner's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, the relevant consuming public has come to recognize the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks as being used by Petitioner to associate and identify the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks with Petitioner. Petitioner has obtained and enjoys an exceedingly valuable reputation and goodwill symbolized by the WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

10. The constructive and actual dates of first use of many of Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks precede the filing date of the underlying application to Registration No. 3,155,106; the issuance date of Registration No. 3,155,106; and the dates of first use identified in the challenged registration.

11. On information and belief, Respondent has adopted and uses the designation WHAT A PICKLE in connection with food products consisting of "pickles."

12. The food products identified in the challenged registration are closely related to the products and services offered by Petitioner under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks; the products in the challenged registration are not restricted as to types of customers and channels of trade; and the designation WHAT A PICKLE so resembles Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to Respondent's food products, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

13. The designation WHAT A PICKLE is confusingly similar to Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that continued registration of the designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Petitioner's exclusive and prior rights in its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Any defect, objection or fault found with any food product sold under the designation WHAT A PICKLE would injure the valuable reputation and goodwill Petitioner has established for its products and services sold under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

15. Petitoner will continue to be damaged by registration of Respondent's designation.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that its petition for cancellation be sustained and that the challenged registration be cancelled in its entirety.

Petitioner hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Petitioner in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.111(b).

Respectfully submitted,

Answer of Registrant to Petition to Cancel

Gielow Pickles, Inc., ("Registrant"), a US corporation in the State of Michigan, hereby answers each of the allegations of the Petition to Cancel filed by Whataburger Partnership L.P., a general partnership organized and existing under the laws of Texas ("Petitioner").

Registrant denies Petitioner has been damaged or will be damaged as alleged in the first unnumbered paragraph and therefore denies the allegations.

The numbered Answers herein correspond to the numbered paragraphs set forth in Petitioner's Petition to Cancel.

12-01-2008

U.S. Patent & TMOfc/TM Mail Rcpt Dt. #30

1. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 1 and therefore denies the allegations.

2. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 2 and therefore denies the allegations. Registrant denies that Registrant's Mark could create or has created any likelihood of confusion with any of Petitioner's pleaded marks.

3. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 3 and therefore denies the allegations. Registrant's family used the mark WHAT A PICKLE in interstate commerce as early as January of 1949, a date prior to any date of first use or first use in commerce that Petitioner can claim, and the records of the USPTO reveal US Registration No. 0588866 evidencing same.

4. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 4 and therefore denies the allegations.

5. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 5 and therefore denies the allegations. Registrant denies the allegation that Registrant's mark WHAT A PICKLE! could cause, or has caused, likelihood of confusion or actual confusion with Petitioner's marks, and therefore Registrant denies the allegations.

6. Registrant wholeheartedly and enthusiastically admits the allegation. All of Petitioner's pleaded marks are used in connection with Petitioner's 'prepared fast foods' eat in or take out restaurant services and related goods. As revealed in the registrations for Petitioner's pleaded Marks, Petitioner provides prepared fast foods in the nature of "restaurant and drive-in restaurant services". Petitioner's pleaded registrations consist only of: a hamburger sandwich, soft drinks, hamburgers, cheeseburgers, French fried potatoes, fried pies, onion rings, malt and shake beverages, frankfurter sandwiches; prepared hamburger sandwich for consumption on or off the premises; prepared meal consisting of a hamburger sandwich, French fries and a beverage for consumption on or off the premises; breaded fish filets suitable for fish sandwiches; prepared fish sandwich for consumption on or off the premises; chicken sandwich; Clothing for children, namely, shirts, polo shirts, t-shirts, dresses, overalls, onesies, baseball caps and hats; comic books and children's activity books; Charitable fundraising services; milk shake drinks, bases for milk shake drinks and candy flavored toppings therefor; Restaurant services featuring a prepared meal containing French fries and a soft drink for consumption on or off the premises; and providing stadium facilities for sporting events, exhibitions, conventions, community festival events and concerts in connection with WHATABURGER FIELD located in Corpus Christi, Texas. As revealed in all of Petitioner's pleaded marks, none of Petitioner's goods or services are used in connection with pickles. J.J. Gielow & Sons was Registrant's family owned business started by Registrant's father, uncles, and grandfather who used the name WHAT A PICKLE as early as 1949 in retail and wholesale sales across the United States.

7. Registrant admits only that the records of the USPTO reveal the pleaded marks of Petitioner, and denies the allegation that any of Petitioner's Marks have caused or could be likely to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers within the trade as to the affiliation, connection, or association of Registrant with Petitioner, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Registrant's goods or services by Petitioner.

8. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 8 and therefore denies the allegations. Registrant admits only that Petitioner 'may' have exclusive rights to use the marks of Petitioner only in connection with the products and services identified in Petitioner's pleaded registrations.

9. Registrant is without knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 9 and therefore denies the allegations.

10. Deny. Registrant's family's use of Registrant's mark, first applied for in January of 1949, predates any date that Petitioner could claim.

11. Admit.

12. Deny.

13. Deny.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

16. Petitioner fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

17. All of Petitioner's pleaded Marks are compound marks containing the conjoined words 'WHATA'. To the contrary, Registrant's registered mark consists of three common English words, making the mark of Registrant and the marks of Petitioner highly dissimilar in sound, spelling, pronunciation, connotation, and commercial impression – while the mark of Registrant and the marks of Petitioner are unique and distinct.

18. An overwhelming preponderance of the DuPont Factors weigh heavily in favor of Registrant.

19. Registrant's goods are pickles, and Registrant's mark WHAT A PICKLE or WHAT A PICKLE! has appeared on the packaging of Registrant's goods since as early as 1949. To the contrary, Petitioner's goods and services are related to or in direct connection with restaurant services, and more specifically eat-in or take-out hamburgers. The nature of the goods of Registrant and the goods and services of Petitioner are highly dissimilar in the applications, and in actual use – and to claim a hamburger and a pickle are similar goods is a significant stretch and without basis or merit.

20. Registrant's customers are primarily institutional, across the U.S. and Canada, and are restaurants, delicatessens, schools, caterers, and other similar businesses. Registrant's mark WHAT A PICKLE! appears on individually wrapped pickles sold in restaurants and schools. To the contrary, Petitioner's goods and services are sold primarily or exclusively through fast food chain outlets bearing the brand name of Petitioner, namely 'WHATABURGER'. The established channels of trade and likely-to-continue channels of trade of Registrant are highly dissimilar to the channel of trade of Petitioner.

21. Registrant's goods are consumed as condiments while Petitioner's goods are consumed as prepared meals. The conditions under which sales of goods are made to consumers or the trade by Registrant or Petitioner are entirely dissimilar.

22. Registrant's Mark WHATA PICKLE or WHAT A PICKLE! has been in use since 1949, has been extensively advertised and promoted for nearly six decades, and while at least one of the Marks of Petitioner has been in use since 1950 according to the records of the USPTO, the length of use is about the same, while the Mark of Registrant may indeed be more famous than any of the marks of Petitioner.

23. Registrant uses its mark on goods related only to pickles. While Petitioner pleads 19 marks containing the conjoined term 'WHATA', not a single one of Petitioner's marks is in use on similar goods, namely pickles.

24. Since 1949, Registrant is unaware of any confusion whatsoever between the marks of Petitioner and the mark of Registrant.

25. Registrant's mark is a slogan, Petitioner's marks all relate to the name of Petitioner's fast food outlet franchises, or related derivatives thereof.

26. Petitioner does not have the right to preclude all others from the use of the common English term 'what a'.

27. IF the marks of Petitioner and the mark of Registrant could create likelihood of confusion as Petitioner alleges, Registrant, by virtue of Registrant's earlier use of Registrant's mark WHAT A PICKLE prior to any date Petitioner could claim, has senior rights and priority, and Registrant could claim, though does not claim herein, that all of the marks of Petitioner create and have created likelihood of confusion with the mark of Registrant.

28. Predecessors and family members, namely the grandfather, father and uncle of Registrant, owned J.J. Gielow & Sons of Detroit, Michigan. Founded in 1949, and owner of the Mark WHAT A PICKLE with dates of first use of January 1949, prior to any date Petitioner has claimed or could claim, J.J. Geilow & Sons was the parent company of Aunt Jane's Foods, with Aunt Jane's Foods a subsidiary of J.J. Gielow & Sons. J.J. Gielow & Sons assigned the registration of the mark WHAT A PICKLE, U.S. Registration No. 588866, to Aunt Jane's Foods, Incorporated on 05/03/1960 and Aunt Jane's continued extensive nationwide use of the mark WHAT A PICKLE on its pickle labels and packaging, in nationwide advertising, promotion, a green pickle-shaped full-sized truck, and inter alia, Marv Gielow, the uncle of Registrant Douglas Gielow, sponsored Gordon Deneau's "What A Pickle" race boats in the 1950's. Registrant's father retired as VP Manufacturing for Aunt Jane's Foods in 1966, and Registrant became Director of Manufacturing for Aunt Jane's Foods until Registrant resigned from Aunt Jane's Foods in 1970 to 're-start' Registrant's family business under the name Gielow Pickles, Inc. in 1970. Registrant was in charge of all pickle manufacturing for both pickle manufacturing plants, namely J.J. Geilow & Sons and Aunt Jane's Foods, from 1966 to 1970. Aunt Jane's Foods, Incorporated assigned the registration of the mark WHAT A PICKLE, U.S. Registration No. 588866, to The Borden Company on 03/28/1963. Borden distributed pickles under the Aunt Jane's label, continuously used the mark WHAT A PICKLE!, and Registrant personally ran the Borden Aunt Jane's division for Borden, unchanged in organization, for 6 years after Borden's bought Aunt Jane's. Aunt Jane's was the only pickle division of Borden. An employee working under Registrant at the Aunt Jane's plant confirmed that Borden was still using the mark WHAT A PICKLE! on the side of their trucks in 1993 even though Borden did not officially renew the WHAT A PICKLE! trademark. The Borden Company assigned the mark WHAT A PICKLE, U.S. Registration No. 588866, to Borden, Inc. on 04/25/1968. As evidenced by the records of the USPTO, The Borden Company or Borden, Inc. maintained the mark WHAT A PICKLE, U.S. Registration No. 588866 that became U.S. Registration No. 783746, US Serial No 72/120,686, until 04/19/1985 at which time the records reveal the mark Expired Section 9. Seeing the mark WHAT A PICKLE! had been abandoned for some time, on January, 26, 2005, Registrant filed its application for the mark WHAT A PICKLE!, and on October 25, 2006 Registrant's mark, and the mark of Registrant's family, pre-dating any date of first use Petitioner could claim, was granted US Patent and Trademark Office Registration No 3155106. Registrant made a scrivener's error in Registrant's application that became Registration No 3155106 regarding the actual date of first use, which should have been January of 1949. See Exhibit A.

29. The existence of as many as 426 'live' pending and registered marks for diverse goods and services containing the term 'what a' or the Spanish 'Que', as revealed in the records of the USPTO indicate that Petitioner does not have the rights or grounds to preclude all others from the use of all applied for and registered marks containing the term 'what a', and more specifically, Petitioner does not have the right, grounds or basis to preclude Registrant from use of the common English term 'what a'; nor does Petitioner have any basis to oppose the coined and fanciful and distinctive mark of Registrant WHAT A PICKLE!, where the goods of Registrant sold in connection with its Mark are sold to dissimilar types of buyers, in dissimilar channels of trade, and to informed, sophisticated buyers that could not be confused with the goods and services of Petitioner.

30. As Petitioner states on its own web Site, Petitioner's business under Petitioner's pleaded marks is overwhelmingly in connection with fast food hamburgers. To the contrary, Registrant's Mark and business is in connection with pickles directed to and sold to restaurants, delicatessens, schools, caterers, and other similar businesses. The channels of trade are dissimilar, the specific types of consumer are dissimilar, the purchasing decision is sophisticated, not casual, and therefore likelihood of confusion is de minimus while actual confusion is impossible.

31. Petitioner is barred by the doctrine of acquiescence and has acquiesced for more than five decades or nearly 60 years.

32. Applicant reserves the right to develop further defenses during the Discovery Phase of the Opposition.

WHEREFORE, Applicant prays the Petition to Cancel be dismissed in its entirety with prejudice, that the Board agrees a registration should be maintained by Registrant for its trademark WHAT A PICKLE! in IC 029, and that the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board grant such other relief as it deems just and proper.

BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

WHATAPARTNERSHIP, L.P., Petitioner v. SUITE ONE STAFFING GROUP, INC. Respondent.	Cancellation No. _____

2005 AUG 18 A 10:30
US PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
TRADEMARK TTAB MAIL PROCESS

PETITION TO CANCEL

WhataPartnership, L.P., a limited partnership organized under the laws of Delaware, with offices located at 300 Delaware Avenue, Suite 900, Wilmington, DE 19801, hereby petitions the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board to cancel Registration No. 2,480,278 – WHAT-A-RACK ("Respondent's mark") for "restaurant services," registered in the Patent and Trademark Office, Principal Register, on August 21, 2001, by Suite One Staffing Group, Inc. ("Respondent"). In support of this Petition, WhataPartnership, L.P. states that it is and will continue to be damaged by the registration of Respondent's mark and petitions to cancel the subject registration on the following grounds:

A. Likelihood of Confusion between Respondent's mark and Petitioner's WHATABURGER and family of WHATA marks identified more fully below.

B. Respondent's abandonment of use of Respondent's mark and Respondent's corresponding Registration No. 2,480,278.

A. LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

1. WhataPartnership, L.P. is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Petition to Cancel and licenses to Whataburger,

08-18-2005
U.S. Patent & TMOfc/TM Mail Rcpt Dt. #39

Inc., a Texas corporation with principal offices at 4600 Parkdale Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas 74811-9230, the right to operate and to authorize franchisees to operate restaurants using the pleaded trademarks and service marks. (WhataPartnership, L.P. and Whataburger, Inc. are hereinafter collectively referred to as "Petitioner.")

2. Petitioner, either directly or through its franchisees, operates over 500 restaurants in the United States and Mexico under the WHATABURGER name.

3. Petitioner, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABURGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Petitioner uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify a diverse array of food products.

5. Petitioner, prior to Respondent's adoption, use and registration of Respondent's mark, developed a family of WHATA marks to its identify food products as well as collateral goods such as printed materials and clothing.

6. Based on Petitioner's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Petitioner's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Petitioner is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Petitioner will submit current status and title copies, prepared by the Patent and Trademark

Office, of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. Photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. Petitioner's Reg. Nos. 652,137; 891,082: 1,011,927; 1,011,928; 1,014,196; 1,116,918; 1,206,344; 2,150,703; and 2,160,285 are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Petitioner's ownership of the marks, and of Petitioner's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. By reason of Petitioner's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Petitioner has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. On information and belief, Respondent provides restaurant services under Respondent's mark.

11. Respondent's services are identical and/or otherwise closely related to Petitioner's goods and services offered under Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

12. Respondent's mark so resembles Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks as to be likely, when applied to Respondent's services, to cause confusion, mistake and to deceive.

13. Respondent's mark is confusingly similar to Petitioner's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, so that continued registration of Respondent's mark would be inconsistent with and damaging to Petitioner's prior and exclusive rights in and to its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with the goods and services with which they are used.

14. Petitioner will continue to be damaged by the registration of Respondent's mark.

B. ABANDONMENT

15. Petitioner realleges and incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 14 of this Petition to Cancel.

16. On information and belief, Respondent has made no commercial use of Respondent's mark in connection with restaurant services for at least three years.

17. On information and belief, Respondent's non-use and/or discontinuance of use of Respondent's mark in connection with restaurant services has been without the intention to resume use of Respondent's mark in connection with the stated services.

18. On information and belief, Respondent has abandoned use of Respondent's mark and Respondent's corresponding Registration No. 2,480,278.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that its Petition be sustained and that Registration No. 2,480,278 be cancelled.

Petitioner hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding to be debited from the deposit account of Petitioner's counsel, Wiley, Rein & Fielding, Account No. 501129.

OPPOSER'S OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO APPLICANT'S REVISED FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO OPPOSER

Opposer, Whataburger Partnership, L.P., through counsel and pursuant to Rule 2.116 and 2.120(d) of the Trademark Rules of Practice and Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby provides the following general objections and responses to "Applicant's Revised First Set of Interrogatories" ("Interrogatories"), as follows:

A. The information supplied herein is not based solely on the knowledge of the executing party, but includes the knowledge of the party's agents and attorneys, unless privileged.

B. The word usage and sentence structure is that of the attorneys and does not purport to be the exact language of the executing party.

[redacted]

[redacted]

RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES

[redacted]

INTERROGATORY NO. 3. For each trademark, service mark or trade names containing the word(s) "Whata," "What a," "What-a", or "Whatta" that Opposer alleges the Whatta Wing! Mark has or will conflict with: (a) set forth each State in which the trademark, service mark or trade name has ever been used; (b) set forth the trademark, service mark or trade name as used in each State and (c) set forth the time period in which it was used.

ANSWER: Opposer objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome given Opposer's use of its WHATABURGER and other "whata" formative marks for a period approaching sixty years. Opposer further objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it does not seek information calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Without waiver of its objections, Opposer refers Applicant to the list of marks in Opposer's Notice of Opposition in this case. Opposer further responds that it has, at various times over the past sixty years, operated facilities or licensed third parties to operate facilities under the Whataburger Marks in at least the following states: Alabama; Arizona; Arkansas; Florida; Georgia; Louisiana; Mississippi; New Mexico; Oklahoma; and Texas; as well as in Mexico. Opposer expanded outside the state of Texas for the first time in 1959. Opposer also states that it has operated an internet website (which is accessible throughout the world) through which services are advertised and/or goods are sold, continuously since as early as 1996.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4. For each trademark, service mark or trade names containing the word(s) "Whata," "What a," "What-a", or "Whatta" that Opposer alleges the Whatta Wing! Mark has or will conflict with, describe each of the goods and/or services for which Opposer has ever used or has been identified by such marks.

ANSWER: Opposer objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome given Opposer's use of its WHATABURGER and other "whata" formative marks for a period approaching sixty years. Without waiver of its objections, Opposer refers Applicant to the list of pleaded registrations in Opposer's Notice of Opposition in this case. Without limitation, Opposer further responds that Opposer offers restaurant services and a variety of food products under its WHATABURGER and other WHATA formative marks. Opposer's WHATABURGER, WHATACHICK'N and other WHATA formative marks also are used on collateral products such as clothing and toys. Opposer further states that it presently sells a chicken sandwich product under the mark WHATACHICK'N, and has investigated a "boneless wing" product potentially under the trademark WHATAWING. Further, within the last six months, Opposer offered a LTO (limited time offer) chicken sandwich product under the mark BUFFALO WHATACHICK'N. Opposer also provides stadium facilities under the WHATABURGER name.

[redacted]

[redacted]

INTERROGATORY NO. 12. Describe all administrative, arbitration, or judicial proceedings (other than the present proceeding) involving any mark, including, but not limited to, trademarks, service marks or trade names containing the word(s) "Whata," "What a," "Whata," or "Whatta", which Whataburger has knowledge of or has been a party to, including but not limited to What-a-Burger of Va., Inc. v. Whataburger, Inc., and identify all documents referring or relating thereto.

ANSWER: Opposer objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, seeks information that is not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, and is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly given Opposer's use of its WHATABURGER and other "whata" formative marks for a period approaching sixty years, and is duplicative. Opposer also objects to the extent that this Interrogatory seeks to impose the undue burden of summarizing publicly available information on Opposer. Without waiver of its objections, Opposer responds Without waiver of its objections, Opposer responds that, in addition to the present action, it (or its predecessors-in-interest) has engaged in at least the following actions in the U.S. Trademark Trial and Appeal Board involving WHATA formative marks:

Identify and describe in detail each and every instance of "actual confusion" involving Whataburger's trademarks, service marks or trade names and any other trademark, service mark or trade names, including, but not limited to, Whatta Wing!'s trademarks, service marks or trade names.

[redacted]

INTERROGATORY NO. 18. Identify each State in which Whataburger is, or ever has been, qualified and/or licensed to do business.

ANSWER: Opposer objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it is overly broad and unduly burdensome, particularly given Opposer's use and/or franchising of its WHATABURGER and other "whata" formative marks for a period approaching sixty years, seeks information that is not calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Opposer further objects to the term "licensed to do business" as vague, ambiguous and confusing. Without waiver of its objections, Opposer responds that it is or has been qualified to do business in at least Alabama, Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. Opposer further responds that, at various times, it has duly complied with the requirements for filing uniform franchise offerings and disclosures in each state in which it has offered to sell franchises.

Q. Are you familiar with Whataburger?

A. I am now.

Q. How did you become aware of Whataburger?

A. Cease and desist letter.

Q. And before the cease and desist letter, which I understand you say you received in the fall of 2008, had you ever heard of my client?

A. No.

Q. You've never eaten there?

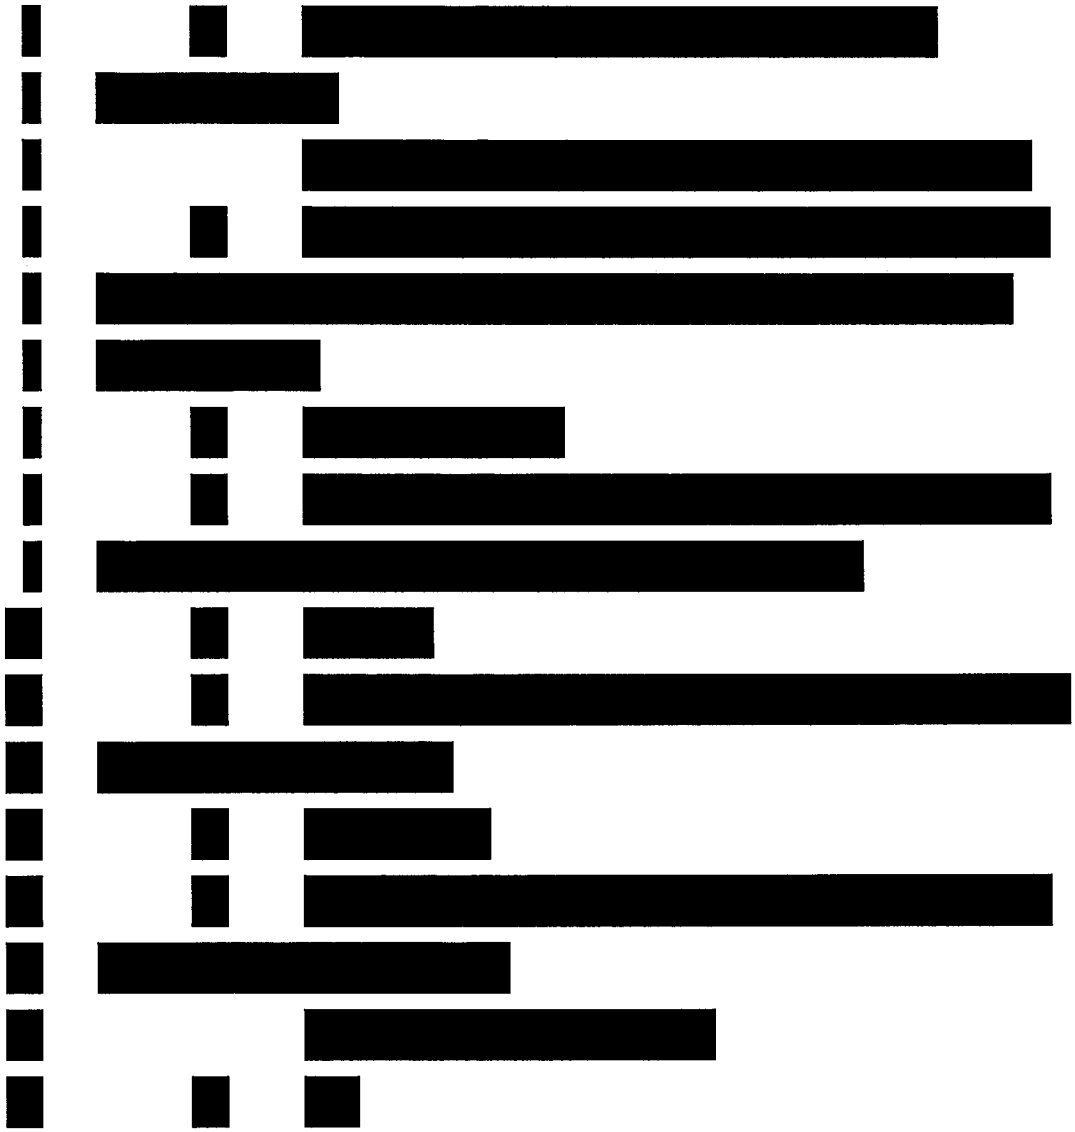
A. No.

Q. At a Whataburger restaurant?

A. No.

[redacted]

 © 2010



Q. How did you choose the font for your trademark?

A. On my computer, put in the name and punch in different fonts.

Q. Which font did you choose?

 © 2010

A. Porkies.
Q. What is it?
A. Porkies.
Q. Porkies?
A. Mm hmm.
(Exhibit 12 marked for identification.)
Q. Why did you choose porkies?
A. Somewhere in '07.
Q. Why?
A. Oh, why?
Q. Yeah.
A. The funky font.
Q. Did you look at any other fonts before you chose that one?
A. About a hundred.
Q. Did you look at any other signages of other restaurants before you chose that?
A. No.
Q. So you just went through and found one that you liked?
A. I did.
Q. Why did you choose yellow?

A. Because red and yellow are food.

Q. I'm sorry?

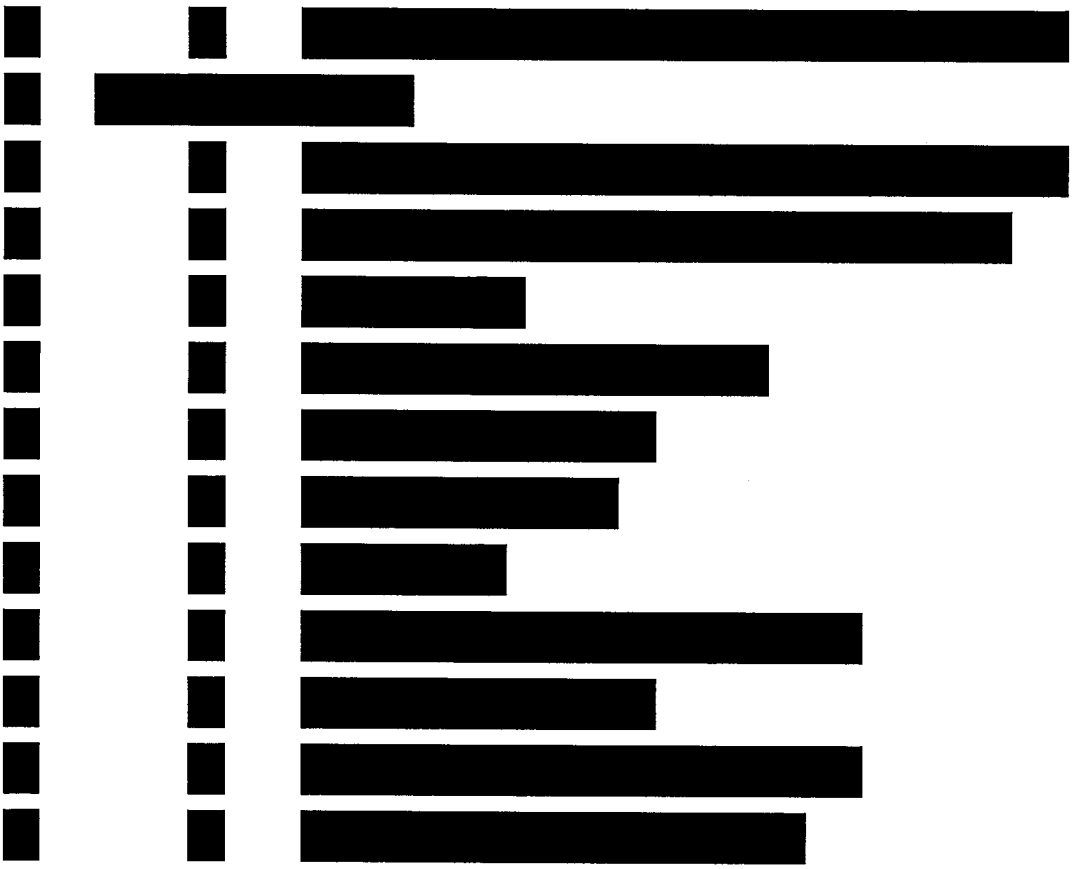
A. Red and yellow are food.

Q. Why is that?

A. It's a given.

Q. Where does that come from?

A. Restaurant surveys. McDonald's is red and yellow. Burger King is red and yellow. Represents mustard and ketchup.



[redacted]

Q. So when did you choose "Whatta Wing!"?

A. Somewhere in '07.

Q. Why?

A. Whatta, the way it's written, is a Boston slang for something that's, I guess, pretty good, is our slang for it.

Q. Can you give me some examples of how that's used?

A. WB Mason has an ad campaign that says "Whatta Bargain," and they only use it local.

Q. Anything else?

A. Just whatta is a slang -- I don't know how to describe it other than it's Boston slang for something you use talking.

Q. Okay. Did you go through any other names before you chose that one?

A. Yeah, I'm sure there were several.

Q. Do you recall any of them?

A. Originally, I was going to call it butta bing "Whatta Wing!" but it was too long.

Q. So what is "whatta" slang for?

A. Something that's -- something that's -- I don't know how to describe it. It's like a car, whatta car, if you see a nice car or a nice -- I don't know. How do you describe a slang?

Q. Does it stand for something else?

A. Other than being a slang?

Q. It's not like a trick question here or anything.

A. I don't know how to answer.

Q. Does it mean like what a, is that what it means?

A. In a Boston slang, yeah.

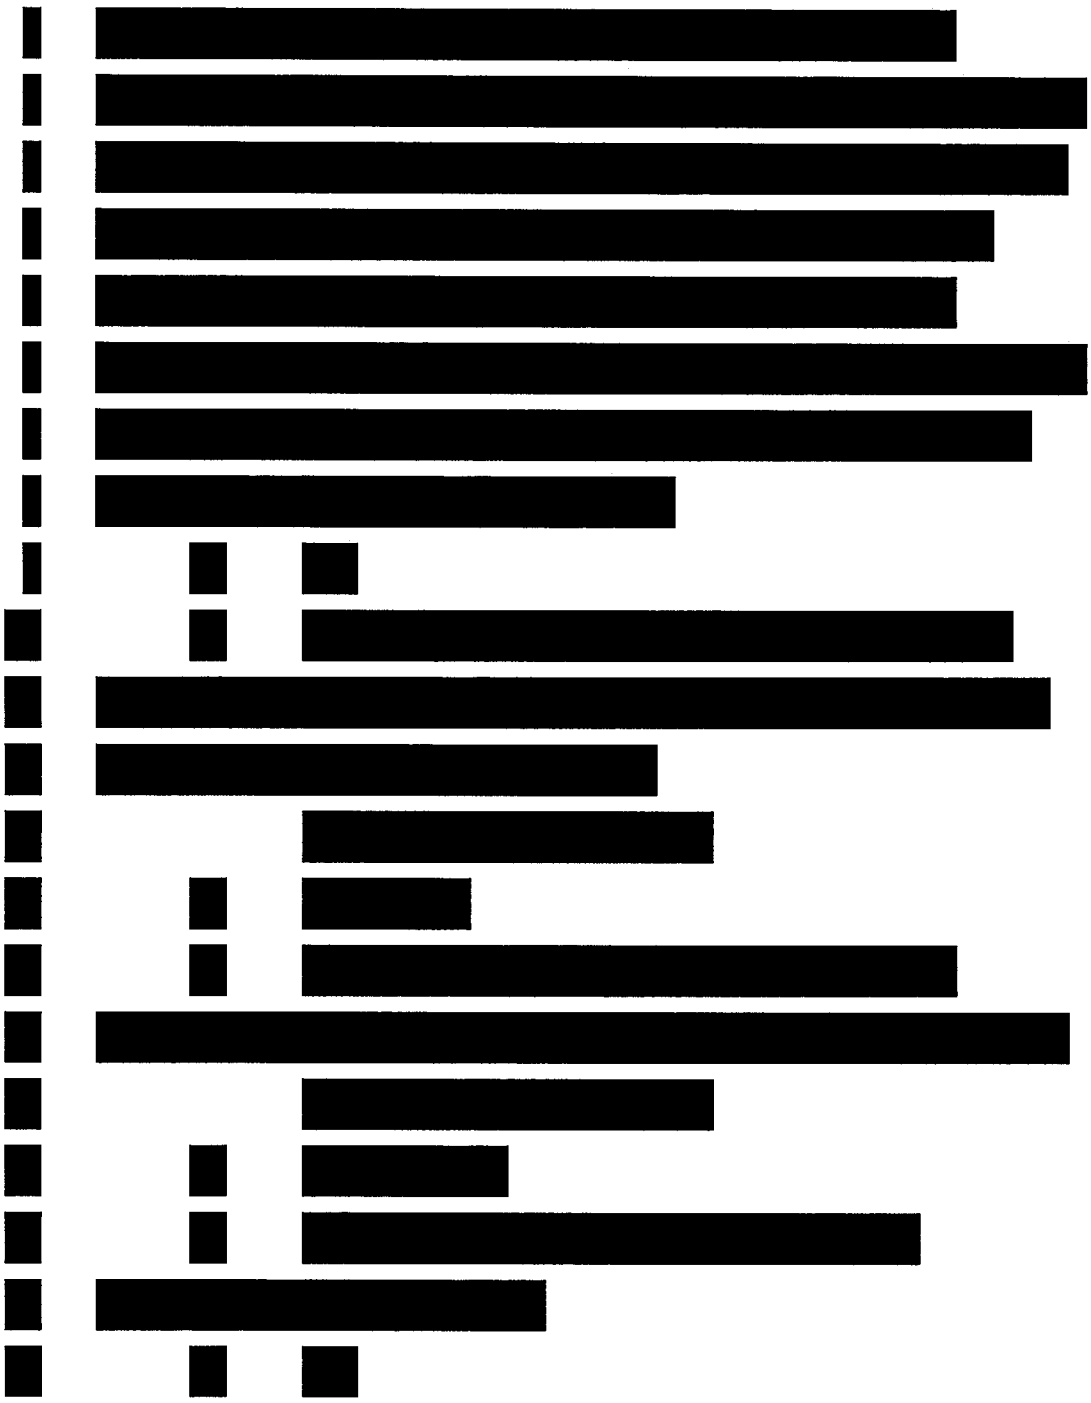
Q. Well, Bostonians say --

A. Whatta.

Q. "Whatta" instead of "what a"?

A. We abbreviate, yeah.

[redacted]



22 Q. Has anybody asked if you were affiliated with Whataburger?

 © 2010

A. No.

Q. Has anybody thought that you were Whataburger?

A. No.

Q. Anybody sent you an e-mail referring to Whataburger outside of your communications with your counsel?

A. No.

Q. Has anybody ever inquired whether "Whatta Wing!" is related to Whataburger in some way?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever been involved in a dispute before relating to a trademark?

A. A dispute?

Q. Yes.

A. I don't remember.

Q. Anybody ever accused you of trademark infringement?

A. Oh, no.

We've been making pickles for five generations

Making pickles is in our blood. When our family began making pickles in the early 1900's, our goal was to make the highest quality pickle at a competitive price. Today, our goal remains the same. The use of automated packaging equipment, direct contact with growers across America, and the buying power of the market leaders enables Gielow Pickles to accomplish our goal.

We look forward to being your pickle, pepper, sauerkraut, and relish partner.

Our History

Gielow Pickles has been the packer of Cool Crisp™ refrigerated dill pickles since 1970. The Gielow family has been making pickles for five generations and were the original founders of Aunt Janes Pickles in the early 1900s. Their commitment to making a quality product at a competitive price has been their cornerstone of success. Today, Gielow Pickles is one of the leaders in the manufacturing of refrigerated pickles for the food service industry.

It's all about the cucumber!

At Gielow Pickles quality starts with the cucumber. We work with only the finest growers in the best cucumber growing regions. All of our growers use the same seed variety to ensure a uniform size and quality cucumber. Our advanced produce handling techniques and express trucking ensues that we are using only the freshest cucumbers.

When you visit the Wot-a-Dog it's like taking a step back in time. We are one of the few true "drive in" restaurants around. Car hops still walk up to your car to take your order and then bring your food out to you on a metal car tray. For those who prefer not to eat in their car we suggest dining on our covered patio area. We don't know how the original owners came up with the name for the restaurant, but once you eat one of our famous coney dogs you can't help but say "Wot-a-dog".

We offer shakes, malts and floats, foot long hot dogs, coneys and hamburgers. Our signature sandwiches are the Wot-a-Burger (1/2 lb burger), the Rebel-Burger (sausage and beef patties served on a double bun w/Rebel Sauce), and our coney dogs (we make our own coney sauce!). Don't forget about our own homemade draft root beer – its best when served in one of our frosted mugs.

Remember – since we are a seasonal restaurant open from late March through the end of September, it's best to call to be sure we're open - 937-845-FOOD (3663).

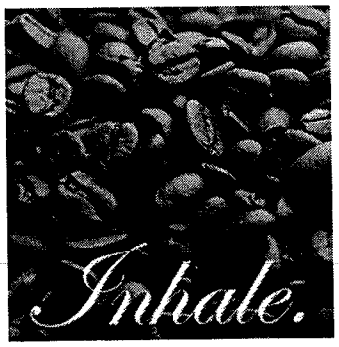
Welcome to What a Grind Coffee House

The What a Grind Coffee House is the place to get a great tasting coffee, latte, cappuccino, an irresistible snack or a hunger-satisfying meal.

Coffee, Food and Internet

Conveniently located on the Muni 2,3,4 line between Hyde and Leavenworth, What a Grind has a menu of tasty treats to help you recharge your batteries.
WiFi and broadband internet access are available for checking your email or just browsing the net.



The dark, rich aroma of the house blend fills the air. Sam greets you with a warm smile behind friendly but slightly tired eyes.

It's good to be here because this is the place where friends meet for lunch. Or just stop by to unwind with a cup and read their email.

It shouldn't be hard to find your own excuse to stop in. Get your coffee and sit down. Lift your cup and inhale.

A Great Local Café

What a Grind is a one of a kind café with roots in the San Francisco culture and community.
Local artist and musician Santie Huckaby painted the "Marilyn" mural which adorns the wall.
Santie, who modestly describes himself as a "sign painter", has a number of outdoor and indoor murals to his credit. Sam, the proprietor, has had a long friendship with Santie and has maintained an interest in his career as an artist.

Drop By and Say Hello

Sam invites you to drop by. On your way to work or on the way home. Get a cup and enjoy the comfortable, friendly atmosphere of this great gem of a coffee house.
And while your there, say hello and tell Sam your problems, and he will tell you his. There's no charge for the therapy.

Welcome to Whatta Crock, LLC

All crocks online are size Medium, we also have small large and large short available. Refills and Stained glass lampshades handmade for our crocks are also available. please contact us for details.

Life Cycle of a crock

First: The product was made from the 'ground-up' by first beginning with a prototype that was found of a stoneware crock. The prototype was then taken to a stoneware mold maker and created at the time 3 custom-made molds in 3 sizes. We use only high quality liquid stoneware and create our crocks in a four step process. We do not buy our crocks, they are completely home made.

Next: The crocks are hand poured into the molds. After a drying process, hand sanding , and trimming to specifications the crocks are cleaned and painted.

Third: The crocks are then fired in a commercial kiln for the first time.

Fourth: The next step is to glaze each crock by hand in a detailed dipping process.

Fifth: Then the crocks are again fired for the second time and are ready for the detail work to be decaled. These decals are adhered to the stoneware and again fired to permeate the stoneware and thus set the decal permanently into the crock.

Last: The final phase of creating the Whatta Crock Stone Ware crock candle is to custom make the scent of each candle. We hand pour each and every candle and stir in the scent with a whip to infuse the wax completely.We make the crocks in four sizes Large, Large short, Medium and small. Our goal is to have a slow burning richly scented candles contained in beautiful Stone Ware Crocks that has a scent that can permeate a room.Other fine products we create are mugs, coasters, lampshades, glass pendents baby bowls, Boo's burners and scent cups to accompany our crocks.

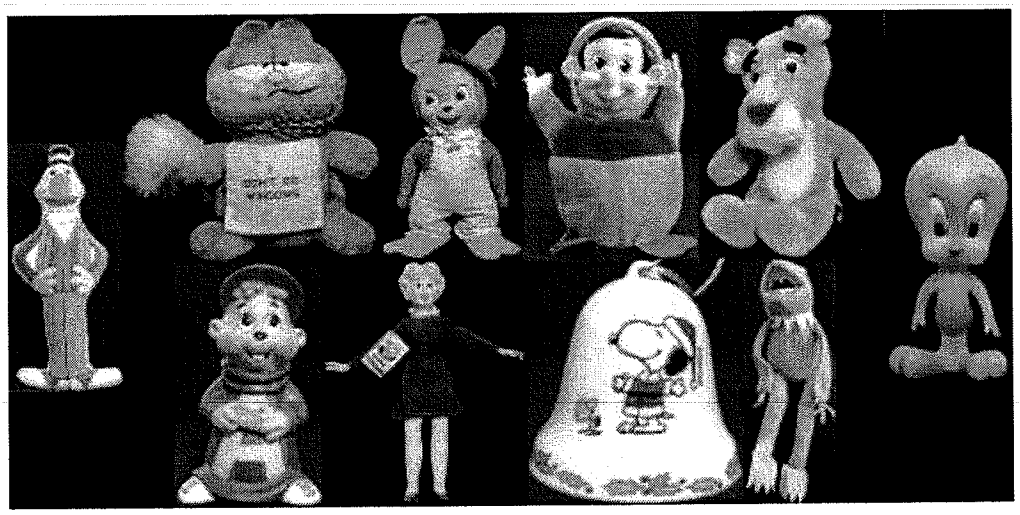
What a Character!



Welcome to the What a Character! web site!

Inside, you will find one of our largest-ever inventories, currently consisting of 8,286 toys and other memorabilia from some of your favorite television programs, comic strips, and cartoons of all time. What a Character! specializes in figural items (things that look great sitting on a shelf) from the 1940s through the 1980s. We get older items in stock whenever possible; we have some newer items in stock from time to time; and we definitely have things other than figural items in stock at all times. Feel free to browse through our merchandise--you just may find something that you can't live without!!

What a Character! has been in business since 1997, and does an extensive amount of mail order business, and we will ship our merchandise anywhere in the world. We're happy to do business with new customers and, of course, we welcome the continued interest of our many previous customers and collector friends.

NEW ITEMS IN STOCK

We get an average of 40-50 new items in stock each week. There's almost always something new (or should we say, something old?) in our inventory. So you might want to bookmark this page, and check back with us from time to time. Items that have been acquired recently (generally within the past 30 days or so) are marked with the following insignia:

This marking will appear BEFORE the listings of new items, immediately below the double red lines that separate our entries.

WE MAY BUY ITEMS FROM YOU

We're always looking for new items for our business, too. If you have comic, character, or cartoon-related items that you wish to sell, feel free to contact us to discuss the possibility of having us buy them from you. Regardless of whether you're looking to get rid of a single item or an entire collection of goodies, we might be interested in acquiring your things. Contact hugh@whatacharacter.com with information about any item(s) that you are considering selling.

Please note: In order to purchase items from you, we need to: (1) be able to see clear, representative pictures of the item(s) so that we know exactly what we might be buying, (2) have accurate information about the specific condition of the item(s) you want to sell, and (3) know how much you want for the item(s) in question. If you do not provide all three of these to us, we cannot make an acquisition; and time constraints prevent us from replying such inquiries unless all three are provided. If you do not have the ability to get scanned pictures to us for step #1, we have made arrangements with a few people to send us the item(s) "on spec" before we make a final commitment to purchase. That allows us to inspect the item(s) and make an informed purchasing decision.

APPRAISALS

We get many emails from people asking us what their own items are worth. While we are happy to answer questions like these, you should note that doing an appraisal takes time . . . both to reply to the inquiry itself and sometimes to research the item(s) in question. Accordingly, there is a $20 fee for each item that you wish to have appraised.

If you wish to have us appraise an item for you, please contact us at hugh@whatacharacter.com to initiate the process and to receive payment instructions. Please note that we are knowledgeable about many different types of items, but we are NOT professional appraisers. To obtain the most reliable assessments of what your items are worth, we recommend that you (1) seek multiple appraisals from different appraisers/consultants and that you (2) consult professional appraisers to assess the value of any item thought to be of considerable value.

OUR COLLECTOR'S MAILING LIST

If you are a collector of something specific and would like to be added to our "collectors and what they collect" mailing list, please send an email to hugh@whatacharacter.com. In that email, please provide the following information and we'll be happy to add your name and collecting information:

- Your full name
- Your full mailing address (where you would ordinarily want to have us ship your items)
- Your telephone number (in case we have any questions about your information, inquiry, or order)--This information will NOT be shared with ANY other sources; it is for our internal usage ONLY.
- Your email address (This is our usual mode of contact.)
- What you collect
- Any specific item(s) that you REALLY want to find for your collection, and your price ceiling on this/these item(s) (We're always happy to search for specific items of interest to collectors on our list. Whenever possible, we'll offer you your "gotta have it" items at prices below your ceiling price.)

HEY, TAKE A LOOK AT THIS!!

Not long ago, representatives from the book publishers, Dorling Kindersley Limited and The Price Guide Company Limited, contacted us and asked our permission to use some of our items in their new collectibles price guide book. We granted their request and, lo and behold, they decided to feature several of our collectibles in the book. The price guide, entitled Collectibles Price Guide 2006, was written by Judith Miller (with Mark Hill). Check it out . . . and check out some of our contributions to the book! If you happen to have the previous edition of the book, many of our items were shown in that version, too.

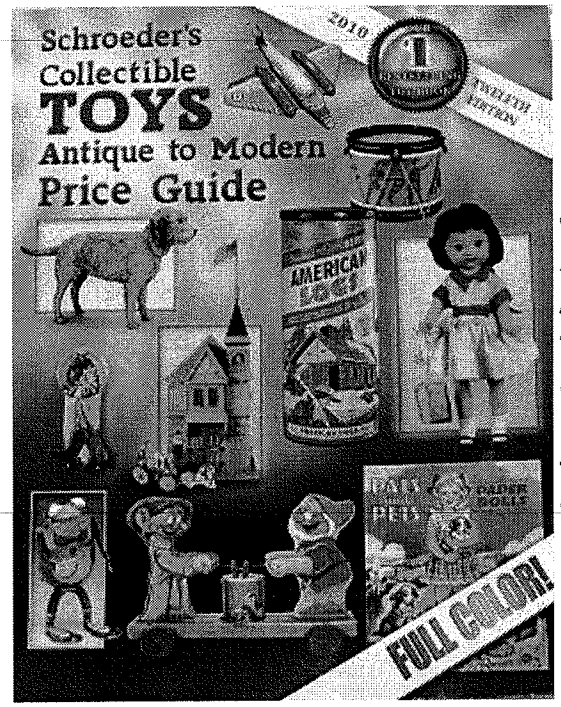
WHILE YOU'RE LOOKING AT THAT, CHECK OUT THIS TOO!!



Recently, we were contacted about contributing to the new 2010 edition of Schroeder's Collectible Toys Antique to Modern Price Guide. The publishers decided to use a number of photographs from our extensive inventory in their book, and they did a great job with the photography in the final publication. Check out our contributions to the book when you have a chance.

SPECIAL NOTE

Please remember to include the ZIP code where your package will be sent along with your initial inquiry about items that interest you, so that we can quote you an appropriate shipping charge!! Doing so enables us to provide you with the most accurate shipping cost information we can, as quickly as possible!

You have six (6) MONTHS from the ISSUE DATE of this Notice of Allowance (NOA) to file either a Statement of Use, or if you are not yet using the mark in commerce, a Request for Extension of Time to File a Statement of Use ("Extension Request"). If you file an extension request, you must continue to file a new request every six months calculated from the issue date of the NOA until the Statement of Use is filed. Applicant may file a total of five (5) extension requests. FAILURE TO FILE A REQUIRED DOCUMENT DURING THE APPROPRIATE TIME PERIOD WILL RESULT IN THE ABANDONMENT OF YOUR APPLICATION. Please note that both the "Statement of Use " and "Extension Request" have many legal requirements including fees. Therefore, we encourage use of the USPTO forms, available online at http://www.uspto.gov/teas/index.html (under "INTENT-TO-USE (ITU) FORMS"), to avoid the possible omission of important information. Please note that the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) provides line-by-line help instructions for completing the Extension Request or Statement of Use forms online. If you do not have access to the Internet, you may call 1-800-786-9199 to request the printed form(s).

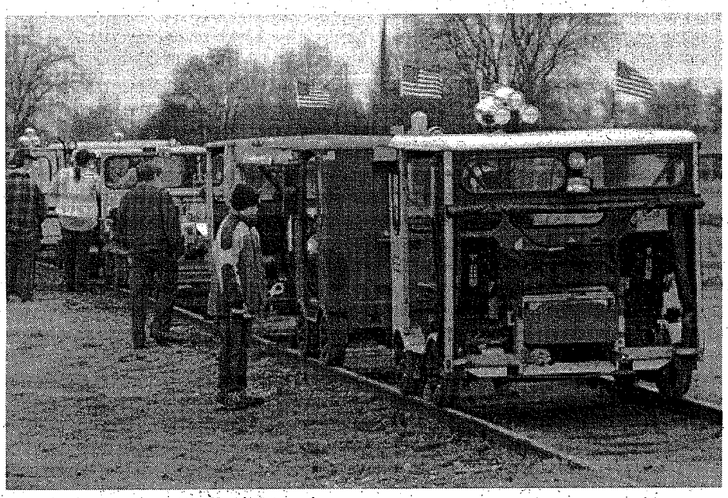
RRC, ACHS demonstrate safety on the rails

By GWEN BOHDAN
LEDGER DISPATCH CONTRIBUTOR

It was a workday, not a playday, Larry Bowler kept reminding people.

Bowler, president of the Recreational Railroad Coalition, led a group of 15 railroad enthusiasts in their small railway motor cars known as "speeders" on a tour of the 10-mile Amador Central Railroad between Ione and Martell Jan. 29. Although the event was fun for the dozens of guests who got to ride along, the purpose of the outing was to investigate a complaint filed against the RRC and the Amador County Historical Society, who jointly own the ACR.

Last October, then-ACR owners Sierra Pacific Industries sold the property to the two nonprofit groups. Since that time, the ACHS and RRC formed the Amador Central Railroad Management Committee to manage the railroad. One of the committee's first missions was to investigate a complaint filed with the Public Utilities Commission by the Amador County Historical Railroad Foundation, claiming the crossings were unsafe. The Jan. 29 tour hosted several members of the ACHS and RRC, as well as two inspectors from the PUC and nine reporters from local media outlets.



Small railway motor cars line up in Ione as the Recreational Railroad Coalition gears for a 10-mile tour. LEDGER DISPATCH PHOTO BY BILL LAVALLIE

The ACR crosses three state highways — once each on highways 124 and 104, and twice on Highway 88. Although the crossing signal was out of order on the Highway 124 stop due to a recent theft for its scrap metal, safety-vest-clad volunteers following the tour in vehicles stopped highway traffic at each crossing by waving red flags. The speeders did not traverse any of the highways until the paths were clear.

Before the tour started, Bowler announced that, while the cars can reach speeds of 40 to 50 mph, the speeders were not to exceed 20 mph along this route. He also advised everyone that the tour led through several ranch properties, therefore giving cattle the right of way at all times.

One of the speeders was Cortland resident Jim Culbertson, who drove an A6 Gang Car, the largest speeder on the tracks during the event.

"I call this the Vista Dome," he said. "It's high enough to see over the other speeders."

The entire cab of the A6 rides on springs, giving the car a smooth ride. Other models riding that day included the MT19, which also has spring suspension, and the smaller, rougher MT14.

The tour gave riders views of the pastoral Amador countryside that cannot be seen from any other vantage point. One stretch had a 3.8 percent grade — which Culbertson claimed was rather steep for a railroad line — and some sharp turns around the hills of Ione. The tour also paralleled old State Highway 88 along part of the route, and offered a distant view of Lake Camanche.

Culbertson's car hosted four reporters and two guests. One of the guests was ACHS member and Pioneer resident Rebecca Brown. This was the third time Brown had ridden on the ACR.

"It's a peaceful kind of experience," she said. "I like talking to the drivers, listening to the sound of the train and feeling the rhythm. It's an opportunity to look at the beauty that's along the road."

After the tour, Daren Gilbert, Supervisor for the Rail Crossings Engineering Section of the Public Utilities Commission, said the next step for his office would be to conduct an assessment of their experience, and then write a letter to the ACR management committee, outlining what he expects to see in the crossings. He anticipates completion of his assessment within the next 30 to 60 days.

The next public tour of the ACR will be during the Ione Rail Fair May 28 and 29.

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 77/057,347 – WATTAFRUIT & Design ("WATTAFRUIT") for "fresh fruits; fresh vegetables," in International Class 31, filed December 5, 2006, by Agroamerica Corporation ("Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated May 15, 2007. Whataburger Partnership will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. Whataburger Partnership puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. Whataburger Partnership, successor in interest to WhataPartnership, L.P., is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Opposer").

2. Opposer operates over 500 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name in the United States and Mexico.

[redacted]

U.S. Patent & TMOfc/TM Mail Rcpt Dt. #34

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABUGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to identify its food products, and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Opposer will submit current status and title copies of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. Photocopies are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Opposer has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. The constructive and actual dates of first use of Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks precede the filing date of the opposed application.

11. On information and belief, Applicant intends to adopt and commence use of the designation WATTAFRUIT in connection with food products consisting of fresh fruits and fresh vegetables.

12. The food products identified in the opposed application are closely related to the products and services offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

The products in the opposed application is not restricted as to types of customers and channels of trade.

13. The designation WATTAFRUIT so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to Applicant's food products, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

14. The designation WATTAFRUIT is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of the designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive and prior rights in its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

15. Any defect, objection or fault found with any food product sold under the designation WATTAFRUIT would injure the valuable reputation and goodwill Opposer has established for products and services sold under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

16. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that the opposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding in two classes to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein, Account No. 501129.

Opposition No. 91179671

Whataburger Partnership

v.

Agroamerica Corporation

On November 3, 2009, the parties filed applicant's proposed amendment to application Serial No. 77057347, with opposer's written consent; and opposer's withdrawal of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment, with applicant's written consent.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods in International Class 31 from "Fresh fruits; Fresh vegetables" to "Fresh fruits and vegetables not sold through restaurants, including quick and full-service restaurants." Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a). The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed without prejudice.

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Whataburger Partnership, a general partnership organized under the laws of Texas, with offices located at One Whataburger Way, Corpus Christi Way, Corpus Christi, Texas 78411, hereby opposes registration of application Ser. No. 78/679,691 – WHATABAG for "plastic bags for packaging," in International Class 16, filed July 27, 2005, by COM-PAC International, Inc. ("Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette dated October 10, 2006. Whataburger Partnership will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration. Whataburger Partnership puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. Whataburger Partnership, successor in interest to WhataPartnership, L.P., is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses said marks for use in connection with the WHATABURGER restaurant system (Whataburger Partnership and its licensees are collectively referred to as "Opposer").

2. Opposer operates over 500 restaurants under the WHATABURGER name in the United States and Mexico.

[redacted]

U.S. Patent & TMOfc/TM Mail Rcpt Dt. #2

3. Opposer, through its predecessors in interest, adopted and commenced use of the WHATABUGER name as a service mark for restaurants services in 1950 and has used the name continuously and without interruption to the present day.

4. Opposer uses the WHATABURGER name not only to identify its restaurant services, but also as a trademark to identify food products sold at its restaurants and elsewhere.

5. Opposer has developed a family of WHATA marks to identify its food products, and collateral products and services, such as printed materials, clothing and stadium services.

6. Based on Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in connection with restaurant services, food products and collateral goods, the name WHATABURGER and Opposer's other WHATA marks have come to be recognized among the consuming public as designators of origin with respect to said services and products.

7. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the following federal service mark and trademark registrations, which presently are valid and subsisting in law. Opposer will submit current status and title copies, prepared by the Patent and Trademark Office, of its pleaded registrations at the appropriate time in this proceeding. 8. Opposer's Reg. Nos. 652,137; 891,082: 1,011,927; 1,011,928; 1,014,196; 1,116,918; 1,206,344; 2,150,703; 2,160,285 and 2,335,590 are incontestable as to the products and services listed therein and are conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, Opposer's ownership thereof, and of Opposer's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products and services identified in the registrations.

9. By reason of Opposer's extensive, exclusive and continuous use of its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks, Opposer has become known and recognized as the owner of the aforesaid marks.

10. On information and belief, Applicant has adopted and uses the designation WHATABAG in connection with plastic bags for packaging.

11. The product identified in the opposed application is closely related to the products and services offered by Opposer under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks. The product in the opposed application is not restricted as to types of customers and channels of trade.

12. The designation WHATABAG so resembles Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks in terms of appearance, sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to Applicant's goods, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

13. The designation WHATABAG is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and WHATA marks so that registration of the designation would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive rights in its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Any defect, objection or fault found with any product or service sold under the designation WHATABAG would injure the valuable reputation and goodwill Opposer has established for products and services sold under its WHATABURGER and WHATA marks.

15. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that the opposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding in two classes to be debited from the deposit account of Wiley Rein, Account No. 501129.

This opposition is being filed by the undersigned attorneys at law, duly authorized to represent Opposer in this proceeding, pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.101(b).

Respectfully submitted,

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

WhataPartnership, L.P., a limited partnership organized under the laws of Delaware, with offices located at 300 Delaware Avenue, Suite 900, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (hereinafter "Opposer"), hereby opposes registration of Service Mark Application Serial No. 76/579,951 – THE "WOW!...WHAT A SUB!!" BOYZ SUBS & STEAKS & Design covering "restaurant and take-out food services" in International Class 43, filed on March 8, 2004 by Halbro, LLC, a New Jersey limited liability company with offices at Springdale & Greentree Roads, Cherry Hill, New Jersey 08003 (hereinafter "Applicant"), and published for purposes of opposition in the Official Gazette of the U.S Patent and Trademark Office dated June 28, 2005 at page 1292. Opposer will be damaged should the opposed application mature to registration and puts forth the following grounds for opposition:

1. Opposer is the owner of all right, title and interest in and to the trademarks and service marks pleaded in this Notice of Opposition and licenses to Whataburger, Inc., a Texas corporation with principal offices at 4600 Parkdale Drive, Corpus Christi, Texas 74811-9230, the right to operate and to authorize franchisees to operate restaurants using the pleaded marks and service marks.

sound, connotation and commercial impression as to be likely, when applied to the food services identified in the opposed application, to cause confusion and mistake and to deceive.

13. Applicant's proposed mark is confusingly similar to Opposer's WHATABURGER and family of WHATA marks so that registration of Applicant's mark would be inconsistent with and damaging to Opposer's exclusive rights in and to its registered marks in connection with the products and services with which they are used.

14. Opposer will be damaged by registration of Applicant's proposed designation.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that its opposition be sustained and that Applicant's proposed mark be denied registration.

Opposer hereby authorizes the filing fee of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($300.00) and any additional charges necessary to institute this proceeding to be debited to the deposit account of Wiley Rein & Fielding, Account No. 501129.

BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

WHATABURGER PARTNERSHIP Opposer, v. SARKIS AVAKIAN Applicant.	Mark: WHATTA WING! Serial No.: 77/494,179 Published: 11/04/2008 Opposition No. 91189023

APPLICANT'S FIRST NOTICE OF RELIANCE

Applicant Sarkis Avakian ("Applicant"), pursuant to Trademark Rules of Practice 2.120 and 2.122 (37 C.F.R. § 2.120 and § 2.122), hereby relies upon the following evidence.

Notices of Opposition and Petitions for Cancellation

1. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 2.122(e), Applicant hereby introduces into evidence the attached notices of opposition and petitions for cancellation, brought by Opposer against marks which incorporated any spelling or version of a "WHAT A" formative phrase, as well as Board orders terminating those proceedings. These official records, obtained from the Patent and Trademark Office, are considered self-authenticating, and as such, require no extrinsic evidence of authenticity as a condition to admissibility.

These materials are relevant to show that although Whataburger has initiated frequent and numerous opposition or cancellation proceedings against a diverse swath of marks sharing a reference to this common "WHAT A" idiom, there has been no TTAB decision on the merits (excluding defaults) which ordered the rejection of these applications or registrations based on Whataburger's preexisting marks. Each of the proceedings terminated with default, abandonment, or amendment.
