Opposition No. 91189169

Natural Couture, Inc.

v.

Xtreme Couture, Inc

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

It is noted by the Board that opposer's time for filing a brief on the case has expired, and no brief has been filed. Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

In view of the above, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the notice of opposition with prejudice will be entered against opposer.

The Board also notes that opposer's testimony period, as last reset, closed on May 10, 2010, yet the record demonstrates that opposer has not submitted any evidence in support of its asserted claims during its assigned testimony period. Accordingly, opposer is allowed the same thirty days provided above in which to show cause why judgment should not be entered against opposer for failure to prosecute this case, failing which judgment will entered against opposer. See Trademark Tule 2.132.

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
