v.

Imaging Systems, Inc. d/b/a Integrated Document Technologies, Inc.

On October 14, 2009, "pursuant to a private agreement" between the parties, applicant filed a proposed amendment to its application Serial No. 77587020, with opposer's consent, and opposer's withdrawal of the opposition, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to change the identification of goods International Class 009 as follows:

"document management and imaging systems and software, namely, computer hardware and software used for records and document management, enterprise content management, enterprise resource planning, and regulatory compliance";

"document management and imaging systems and software, namely, software used for records and document management, enterprise content management, enterprise resource planning, and regulatory compliance."

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer consents thereto, it is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed in accordance with the "private agreement" between the parties.
