Legal Hustlers

Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist:

On October 5, 2010, applicant filed a copy of its expert disclosures that were apparently served on counsel for opposer, with the Board.

Applicant is advised that expert disclosures, like requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process, should not be filed with the Board except when submitted (1) with a motion relating to discovery; or (2) in support of or in response to a motion for summary judgment; or (3) under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or (4) as exhibits to a testimony deposition; or (5) in support of an objection to proffered evidence on the ground that the evidence should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery. See Trademark Rule 2.120(j)(8).

In view thereof, the parties are advised that the Board will give no further consideration to applicant's expert disclosures, filed October 5, 2010.
