LFP IP, LLC

v.

Legal Hustlers

Michael B. Adlin, Interlocutory Attorney:

Applicant's "reply to plaintiff's motions for summary judgment," filed February 22, 2011, is noted. The filing is non-responsive, untimely and even if construed as a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b), it does not establish excusable neglect for failing to timely respond to opposer's motion for summary judgment. Accordingly, applicant's filing of February 22, 2011 will be given no consideration.
