v.

Ashkan Ghandehari

Applicant's substantive response to the notice of default and proposed answer was due (as last reset) in this case on September 21, 2010.

The record shows no response thereto. Applicant was instructed if he failed to establish that default should be set aside or failed to file a proposed answer establishing that he has a meritorious defense within the time provided, judgment would be entered against him and the opposition will be sustained.

Accordingly, judgment by default is hereby entered against applicant, the opposition is sustained, and registration to applicant is refused. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55, and Trademark Rule 2.106(a).
