Pet Holdings Inc.

v.

Combo Ventures

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal Specialist:

It is noted by the Board that opposer/counterclaim defendant's time for filing a brief on the case has expired, and no brief has been filed. Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

In view of the above, opposer/counterclaim defendant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to
