As a result of the discussions, the parties continue to make progress towards finalizing settlement. As such, the parties believe in good faith that a continued extension of time will allow the parties time to finalize settlement, and will also save the time and resources of both the parties and the Board. For these reasons, the parties' respectfully submits that good cause has been shown for an extension of ninety (90) days.

Counsel for Applicant, Dr. Mario Golab, consented to this request in a telephone message left with counsel for Opposer, B. Brett Heavner, on October 4, 2011 and joins this request.

Respectfully Submitted,
