_____)

On August 11, 2011 the parties held their discovery conference and discussed the possibility of settlement of this matter without the need for further litigation. In light of their having entered into settlement discussions, the parties request that further proceedings in this matter be suspended for a period of six months to allow them sufficient time to fully explore a settlement of this matter without incurring significant additional litigation expenses.

This stipulation and request for suspension are made in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

Dated: August 17, 2011.
