Opposition No. 91199905

Dallas Manufacturing Co.,
Inc.

v.

IMJ Marketing Inc.

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

By order dated August 16, 2011, the Board allowed applicant time to explain why it filed its answer late on August 16, 2011. By the same order, the Board noted that its default notice issued on July 18, 2011 will be held in abeyance until applicant responded to the order.

It has come to the Board's attention that applicant's counsel's copy of the Board's August 16, 2011 order was returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable. The Board, however, has been able to ascertain a current mailing address for applicant's counsel as set forth below:

Jerry Dweck
The Law Firm of Jeffrey S. Dweck PC
43 West 33rd Street
Suite 304
New York, NY 10001

Board records have been updated accordingly to reflect applicant's counsel's current mailing address.

In view of the foregoing, applicant is allowed twenty days from the mailing date of this order in which to explain why it filed its answer late, failing which the Board may enter judgment against applicant. A copy of the Board's August 16, 2011 is forwarded to applicant's counsel with his copy of the instant order.

Proceedings otherwise remain suspended pending applicant's response to this order.
