Opposition No. 91199922

Christopher A McGrath

v.

Nike, Inc.

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

By order dated March 28, 2012, the Board, inter alia, allowed opposer time in which to file and serve a revised amended notice of opposition which includes a proper claim of dilution and which re-alleges his approved claim of priority and likelihood of confusion, failing which opposer's dilution claim would be dismissed with prejudice.

The record shows no response thereto.

Accordingly, opposer's asserted claim of dilution is hereby dismissed with prejudice and this case will proceed solely in regard to opposer's claim of priority and likelihood of confusion.

Trial dates remain as reset by Board order dated March 28, 2012.
