Opposition No. 91200385

Suzanne Collins

v.

Wasp Enterprises

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney (571-272-4267):

Proceedings herein are suspended pending disposition of opposer's motion to compel (filed December 9, 2011), except as discussed below.¹ The parties should not file any paper which is not germane to the motion to compel. See Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(2).

This suspension order does not toll the time for either party to make any required disclosure, to respond to discovery requests which had been duly served prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel, or to appear for a discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing and

¹ The Board notes the duplicate answers filed electronically and by mail and advises applicant that only a single copy of any filing should be submitted.

The Board notes that opposer's October 19, 2011 consent motion to extend used the schedule for a case involving a counterclaim and no counterclaim has been pleaded in this proceeding.

service of the motion to compel. See Id. The motion to compel will be decided in due course.
