Cheryl S. Goodman, Interlocutory Attorney:

On February 9, 2012, the Board issued an order allowing the parties until February 17, 2012, to come to an agreement regarding a modified protective order. The parties were to either file an agreed to protective order with the Board by February 17, 2012 or provide a report to the Board on February 17, 2012 identifying what issues, if any, remained outstanding for Board consideration.

No modified protective order was filed with the Board nor was any report filed with the Board on February 17, 2012.

Opposition Nos. 91200832 and 91200146

Therefore, the Board presumes that the entire matter will require Board resolution.

In view thereof, the Board provides the following briefing schedule for the parties to provide their position on a modified protective order addressing the issues set forth in the Board's February 9, 2012 order. The briefing for each party will be limited to no more than 8 pages.

Opposers' Joint brief due	February 29, 2012
Applicant's Brief due	March 7, 2012

In the event that the parties fail to brief the matter, the parties are expected to proceed under the Board's three-tier standard protective order.

Dates in the consolidated proceeding remain as last reset.
