Opposition No. 91201218

Redbox Automated Retail, LLC

v.

Stanley Lee Barnes dba Red
Box Tickets USA, LLC

Answer was due on March 4, 2012.¹ A review of the record shows that an answer has not been filed.

This case now comes up for consideration of opposer's motion, filed May 9, 2012, for default judgment against applicant for failure to file an answer. The motion is uncontested.²

Inasmuch as applicant failed to file an answer in this case to the amended notice of opposition, and failed to respond to opposer's motion in any manner, the motion for

¹ The Board's order of January 13, 2012, set applicant's time to answer twenty days from the service date of the amended notice of opposition.

² If a defendant fails to file an answer to a complaint during the time allowed therefor, the Board, on its own initiative, may issue a notice of default allowing the defendant time to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against it. The issue of whether default judgment should be entered against a defendant for failure to file an answer may also be raised by means of a motion filed by the party in the position of default judgment is granted. See Trademark Rule 2.127(a). Accordingly, judgment is hereby entered against applicant, the notice of opposition is sustained, and registration to applicant is refused. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55 and Trademark Rule 2.127(a).³
