Joel L. Beling d/b/a Supa
Characters Pty Ltd

v.

Ennis, Inc.

Elizabeth A. Dunn, Attorney (571-272-4267):

On July 13, 2012, the Board ordered Joel Beling, plaintiff in the cancellation, to file a legally sufficient amended petition to cancel, and suspended proceedings until both the amended petition and Ennis Inc.'s answer is filed.

The Board specifically informed the parties:

With the exception of the need to respond to, and to meet and confer regarding the sufficiency of responses to, discovery requests already served, proceedings herein are suspended pending receipt of the amended petition to cancel and answer. No other papers may be filed and no new discovery requests may be served.

In contravention of this order, on July 16, 2012, Mr. Beling filed a motion to exceed page limits for his motion to compel. No consideration will be given to this paper, or any motion to compel which subsequently is filed, until the pleadings are closed. At that time the Board will reset the time for Ennis, Inc. to respond to the motion to exceed page limits.

As Mr. Beling already has been advised, it is strongly recommended that he obtain legal counsel to represent his interests. Actions taken in contravention of Board orders will not be tolerated because Mr. Beling chooses to represent himself.

Proceedings herein remain suspended.
