Opposition No. 91206406

Corrado's Wines and Liquors, Inc.

v.

Caputo 1890 s.r.l.

Denise M. DelGizzi,
Technical Program Manager:

Applicant's consented motion (filed April 28, 2014) to suspend this proceeding for 180 days is granted, nunc pro tunc.

Because the parties are negotiating for a possible settlement of this case, proceedings are suspended, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rules 2.117(c), and 2.127(a); and TBMP § 605.02.

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set forth in applicant's motion.

The Board repeats that any further motion to suspend or extend dates must include a progress report of the parties' efforts towards settlement.

Applicant is allowed until November 4, 2014 in which to answer the notice of opposition.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rules 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.¹

¹ If the parties are (or during the pendency of this proceeding become) parties to another proceeding involving the subject application/registration, the parties must notify the Board so the Board can consider whether consolidation or suspension of proceedings is appropriate.
