Re: TTAB #91206495 Hon. Robert Coggins
Signal Share v. Amy Gurvey Trademark #85612859

Ref # 1387564248

Extension of Time to Comply with Discovery Order of 30 days

Dear Judge Coggins:

This is a proceeding brought by Signal Share against Amy Gurvey under 15 USC §1052 (d).

Please be advised that the complete files for this proceeding have not been returned by the previous attorneys for LIVE-Fi™ Technologies, LLC™ and LIVE-Fi Productions. Contrary to the contentions of Opposer Signal Share, there are multiple trademark filings in several categories relevant to the opposition proceeding since 2006 aside from the above trademark application, 85612859.

The NJ offices of LIVE-Fi Technologies™ were confirmed as contaminated with toxic levels of friable asbestos from a spontaneous collapse of the plaster ceilings by State Farm insurance and its retained contractors. Occupants were in forced evacuation. The offices are being sold because relocation was necessary per doctors orders.

Respondent Gurvey was injured with friable asbestos fibers in the left lung and treatment required broad spectrum antibiotics that caused chronic C. difficile colitis and now requires a partial colon transplant. The contents of the home office with the exception of wood furniture and metallic items were all required to be discarded by asbestos remediators.

Ergo, Respondent Gurvey requests an extension of time of 30 days to complete discovery of the relevant trademark documents.

Respectfully submitted,

/AMY R. GURVEY/
