NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer, 1D Media Limited (“Opposer”), is the exclusive owner of the U.S. federal trademark Application Serial No. 85/623,537 and others. Additionally, Opposer claims common law rights to the ONE DIRECTION trademark. Opposer believes that it is being damaged and will be damaged, by the registration of Jeffrey S. Schmidt’s (“Applicant”) ONE DIRECTION mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/584,110, and hereby opposes the same. As grounds for this Opposition, Opposer alleges, upon actual knowledge with respect to itself and its own acts, and upon information and belief as to other matters, as follows:

Opposer And Its ONE DIRECTION Name And Mark

1. Opposer, 1D Media Limited, is a private limited company organized under the laws of England and Wales, having a principal place of business at 9 Perseverance Works, Kingsland Road, London, E2 8DD, United Kingdom.
2. Opposer is the applicant of record for U.S. federal trademark application for the ONE DIRECTION mark; namely Application Serial No. 85/623,537 filed May 11, 2012, covering, inter alia “[p]recious metals and their alloys and goods in precious metals or coated therewith, not included in other classes; jewellery, precious stones; horological and chronometric instruments; key fobs; key rings; badges of precious metal; structural parts and fittings for the aforesaid goods” in International Class 014, with further coverage in International Classes 009, 016, 025, 028 and 014 for related goods and services (individually, or collectively with other applications and common law trademark rights, the “ONE DIRECTION Mark”).

3. Opposer’s U.S. Application Ser. No. 85/623,537 was filed on May 11, 2012 and was based on its intent-to-use the mark under Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act, and with priority established as of November 11, 2011 under Section 44(d) with priority going back to its Community Trademark Application No. 010409514. (See Exhibit A).

4. Opposer is the exclusive owner of the ONE DIRECTION Mark which is exploited by the internationally recognized UK band of the same name (One Direction), which made its public debut on the popular British television program “The X Factor” in the fall of 2010. Since that time, One Direction has made continuous and international use of the mark in commerce in connection with entertainment and related goods and services, including jewelry, and the ONE DIRECTION Mark has come to be globally recognized as identifying the British band and its members that perform under the One Direction name and mark.

5. The ONE DIRECTION name and mark has been used in connection with a wide variety of merchandising, advertising and promotional activities, and the band has developed a continuous and rapidly growing global presence on social networking and media sites and forums, including Facebook, Twitter, and numerous websites devoted either to One Direction or “The X Factor,” generally. On or about August 9, 2010, the UK band registered its OneDirectionMusic.com domain name, and articles featuring One Direction and its members circulated worldwide beginning in September 2010. The first Twitter account pertaining to the UK band (“1DirectionTeam”) was created on or about September 12, 2010, and the UK band’s official Facebook account (which currently boasts more than 10.3 million “likes”) was created on or about September 30, 2010. (See Exhibit B). Among many other videos made available worldwide during fall 2010 and subsequently, the ONE DIRECTION Mark appeared in two videos uploaded on or about October 2, 2010 to the video-sharing website YouTube that were viewed widely—more than 5,800 times in the United States and more than 850,000 times worldwide that day. (See Exhibit C). These two videos alone have now been viewed in the U.S. more than 10,334,282 times.

6. Opposer's substantial use of the name and mark and development of goodwill in the United States is reflected in the band's unprecedented success and notoriety. For example, One Direction became the first UK musical act to have a debut album enter the U.S. Billboard chart at No. 1 (by comparison, The Beatles' first album debuted at No. 2). (See Exhibit D).

7. Opposer has used the ONE DIRECTION Mark in various forms, including but not limited to block letters and in stylized form shown below (and variations thereof), which consists of the literal elements 1D ONE DIRECTION with the "1D" portion appearing in large typeface with the words "ONE DIRECTION" appearing in smaller red capital letters creating a border to the right of the "1D" design element as shown below.

8. Opposer's U.S. Application Serial No. 85/623,537 received an Office Action wherein the Examining Attorney cited Applicant's Application Serial No. 85/584,110 as a potential bar to registration should it proceed to registration. A true and correct copy of the Office Action is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

9. Opposer has also filed the following applications, true and correct copies of which are attached hereto, collectively, as Exhibit F, covering substantially identical and similar marks with related goods and services:

- a. Serial No. 85/398,709– 1D ONE DIRECTION;
- b. Serial No. 85/622,966 – ONE DIRECTION; and
- c. Serial No. 85/615,447 – 1D (Stylized).

10. Through its continuous and substantial use of the ONE DIRECTION name and mark, Opposer has developed valuable goodwill in the name and mark, and the high level of association of the ONE DIRECTION Mark with the band has unquestionably established the mark as famous, both in the United States and around the world.

Applicant And His Mark

11. Applicant Jeffrey F. Schmidt is a citizen of the United States with an address of 1446 Larkin William Road, Fenton, Missouri 63026.

12. Applicant is the listed current owner of Application Serial No. 85/584,110, filed on March 29, 2012, for the mark ONE DIRECTION for “[j]ewelry” in International Class 014 (the “Opposed Mark”).

13. Application Serial NO.85/584,110 was filed under the intent-to-use provisions of Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act.

14. Applicant did not use the ONE DIRECTION mark prior to the filing date of March 29, 2012.

15. Applicant did not use the ONE DIRECTION mark in commerce prior to the filing date of March 29, 2012

16. Applicant has made no use of the ONE DIRECTION mark on or in connection with the goods covered by the application in interstate commerce prior to March 29, 2012.

Likelihood of Confusion, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d)

17. Opposer repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 16 as though fully set forth herein.

18. Opposer has used its ONE DIRECTION name and mark in commerce, in the United States and worldwide, and acquired rights at common law to the ONE DIRECTION mark before the filing date of the opposed Application Serial No. 85/584,110, and any date of first use that may legitimately be alleged by Applicant. Moreover, Opposer’s ONE DIRECTION name and mark became famous before the filing date of the opposed Application Serial No. 85/584,110, and any date of first use that may legitimately be alleged by Applicant.

19. The Opposed Mark is identical to Opposer’s ONE DIRECTION word mark and is likely, when used in connection with Applicant’s goods, to cause confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive under Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. § 1052(d)).

20. Applicant’s goods as set forth in its application are closely related and identical to Opposer’s goods and would be offered through the same or similar channels of trade, and used by one or more of the same classes of purchasers and users, such that consumers will be confused, mistaken or deceived into believing that Applicant's goods originate from, are authorized by or are in some way connected with Opposer.

Dilution, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

21. Opposer repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 20 as though fully set forth herein.

22. Opposer's ONE DIRECTION name and mark became distinctive and famous before the March 29, 2012 filing date of the Opposed Mark, and any date of first use that may legitimately be alleged by Applicant.

23. In light of the identical nature of the parties' marks, and the indisputable fame of Opposer's name and mark, Applicant's use of ONE DIRECTION is likely to cause dilution of the distinctive quality of Opposer's famous name and mark.

Deception/False Suggestion Of Connection, 15 U.S.C. §1052(a)

24. Opposer repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 23 as though fully set forth herein.

25. Applicant's alleged mark so closely resembles the ONE DIRECTION Mark that it is likely to cause deception in violation of Section 2(a) of the Trademark Act, in that Applicant's identical mark, when used in connection with Applicant's goods, is likely to cause purchasers to materially affect their purchasing decisions.

26. Applicant's alleged mark, and the manner in which it would be exploited by Applicant, so closely resembles the ONE DIRECTION Mark that it falsely suggests a connection with Opposer in violation of Section 2(a) of the Trademark Act, because the Opposed Mark points uniquely to Opposer and purchasers will assume that goods and services sold under Applicant's alleged mark are connected with Opposer.

27. The Opposed Mark is deceptive in that it falsely suggests a connection with, sponsorship or approval by, Opposer.

28. Use and registration by Applicant of its alleged mark will deprive Opposer of the ability to protect the ONE DIRECTION Mark, the Opposer's reputation, persona, and goodwill.

Likelihood of damage to Opposer's goodwill is enhanced by the fact that prospective purchasers who encounter a material difference in the quality of the goods and services provided by Applicant will attribute the lower quality to Opposer and this will injure Opposer's reputation and goodwill.

WHEREFORE, Opposer believes that it is being damaged, and will be damaged, by the registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/584,110, and prays that the opposition be sustained, and that registration to Applicant be refused.

Dated: October 22, 2012.

The Wanted One Direction

When Melissa Lonner, senior entertainment producer for NBC's "Today," booked Brit pop quintet One Direction in January, she scheduled the group for a routine in-studio performance. But once news broke that the boyish fivesome would be at 30 Rock, a deluge of fan emails flooded the show's inbox, forcing NBC to relocate the appearance to Rockefeller Plaza. That was when the New York Police Department got involved. Spurred by reports of swelling public appearances by the band in other markets like Toronto and Boston – the latter of which attracting

COUNTDOWN: Top 10 Boy Bands Since 1987

When the group often referred to as 1D finally did appear in midtown Manhattan on March 12 -- the day before its chart-topping debut, "Up All Night", arrived on Columbia Records -- an estimated 15,000 fans descended on the plaza, spilling onto the surrounding streets. It was an unprecedented turnout for an act that had yet to release an album stateside. ("Up All Night" debuted at No. 2 in the United Kingdom when it was released there on Nov. 21.) But even beyond that: The crowd for 1D -- which consists of Niall Horan, Liam Payne, Zayn Malik, Louis Tomlinson and Harry Styles (ages 18-20) -- ranked among the biggest "Today" has seen. Only Justin Bieber, Lady Gaga and Chris Brown have drawn that kind of turnout to date.

Boy Bands Take Over Billboard

One Direction

The Wanted

CLICK TO BUY THE ISSUE

"Keep in mind, Justin and Chris have had hits in the U.S. and are known in the U.S.," Lonner says. "One Direction is relatively unknown with no hits yet. They basically exploded, and all the adults are saying, 'Who are these people, and how do they know about it?'"

In April, another all-male English import, the Wanted -- a quintet with a style a bit more built for the post-teenage demographic than 1D -- is booked for an in-studio performance at "Today." The appearance comes in anticipation of the April 24 release of the Wanted's self-titled debut, a seven-track EP arriving on Island Def Jam and complemented by a 10-song deluxe edition. The group's full-length debut, Battleground (Island Def Jam), which appeared in the United Kingdom in November and is slated to arrive stateside this fall, is certified gold there and has already spawned two No. 1s on the U.K. chart. According to Lonner, if the demand for the Wanted is anything near that of 1D, "Today" will once again move the show outside. With extra security in place, of course.

Not since the reigning days of Backstreet Boys, 'N Sync and 98 Degrees have boy bands crashed pop culture with such fervor. In the past few years, solo starlets including Bieber, Gaga, Katy Perry and Rihanna have presided over the pop charts. But as summer approaches, 1D and the Wanted are spearheading what could very well be the next boy band boom. The story is a familiar one: Backed by big-name managers, fresh-faced groups assemble, win over potential fans through grass-roots marketing, attack the charts with slick pop fare and sell out tours in seconds.

Without so much as releasing an album in North America, 1D and the Wanted have already accomplished feats that took past boy bands years to achieve. Ahead of "Up All Night"'s U.S. release, 1D's breakout single "What Makes You Beautiful" became the highest-charting debut for a U.K. artist on the Billboard Hot 100 since Jimmy Ray's 1998 hit "Are You Jimmy Ray?" when it bowed at No. 28 on Feb. 22. ("Are You Jimmy Ray?" entered the chart at No. 26.)

In the United Kingdom, "Beautiful" is mammoth: The summery track entered the singles chart at No. 1, selling 540,000 copies (according to the Official Charts Co.) and winning Best British Single at the BRIT Awards in February. In the United States, 1D has shut down malls with in-store signings and appearances from coast to coast. Fans even chased the group's car through Manhattan following a performance at Radio City Music Hall on March 9, where it appeared as the opening act for fellow boy band Big Time Rush on the sold-out Better With U tour. 1D and the Wanted have contemporaries — Big Time Rush, JLS, Mindless Behavior and others—but while all have found success at retail and on the road, that success pales in comparison to the explosive rise of the two British acts.

This week, "Up All Night" tops the Billboard 200 with 176,000 copies sold, according to Nielsen SoundScan, unseating Bruce Springsteen and holding off Adele to make 1D the first British band — let alone British boy band — to enter the top spot with its debut album, something not even the Beatles could accomplish. (The Fab Four's 1964 Vee-Jay Records debut, Introducing . . . The Beatles, reached No. 2.)

Despite still being a month out from its domestic debut, the Wanted has also soared in the States. Last August, Island Def Jam went to radio with "Glad You Came," from the group's U.K. sophomore album, Battleground.

Initially a slow build, "Glad You Came" took flight after the song was featured on the Feb. 21 episode of "Glee," breaking the record for highest-charting single by a British band since Take That's 1995 hit "Back for Good." The Take That track reached No. 7 on the Hot 100. "Glad You Came" sits at No. 3. In January, the group made its U.S. debut on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show," accompanied by a sold-out stateside trek that ran from January through February. When the Wanted returns in April, the group will have already lodged two No. 1 singles in the United Kingdom.

Chart Beat Meet & Greet: The Wanted

Simon Cowell, who signed 1D to his Syco Records imprint after the group's appearance on the U.K. version of "The X Factor" in 2010, is no stranger to boy bands. In 1999, Cowell, working with 1D manager Richard Griffiths, helped male pop group Westlife sell more than 40 million albums worldwide, according to Griffiths's company Modest! Management. The demand for all-male pop groups may appear to be sporadic, but according to Cowell, it always comes in algorithmic waves.

"It's a track-oriented chart at the moment," Cowell says. "When we used to put records out years ago, two singles was the norm, three singles was a lot. And you have these solo artists now who could be, with collaborations, putting out seven or eight singles a year."

Cowell credits Bieber and his manager Scooter Braun — who also manages the Wanted — as the drivers for putting young adult stars back on the map. "I've done this long enough that everything in music and entertainment is cyclical," Cowell says. "[Even if] you go back to the Motown days, every time, it always comes back to 12 o'clock. It felt like that time again."

A full version of this article can be found in this week's Billboard, which arrives in two Tiger Beat-tastic versions (1D and The Wanted). Click here to buy the issue!

OFFICE ACTION

STRICT DEADLINE TO RESPOND TO THIS LETTER

TO AVOID PARTIAL ABANDONMENT OF APPLICANT'S TRADEMARK APPLICATION, THE USPTO MUST RECEIVE APPLICANT'S COMPLETE RESPONSE TO THIS LETTER WITHIN 6 MONTHS OF THE ISSUE/MAILING DATE BELOW.

ISSUE/MAILING DATE: 9/3/2012

The referenced application has been reviewed by the assigned trademark examining attorney. Applicant must respond timely and completely to the issues below. 15 U.S.C. §1062(b); 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(a), 2.65(a); TMEP §§711, 718.03.

Search Results – CLASS 014 SERVICES ONLY

The trademark examining attorney has searched the Office's database of registered and pending marks and has found no similar registered mark that would bar registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d). TMEP §704.02; see 15 U.S.C. §1052(d). However, a mark in a prior-filed pending application may present a bar to registration of applicant's mark.

The filing date of pending U.S. Application Serial No. 85584110 precedes applicant's filing date. See attached referenced application. If the mark in the referenced application registers, applicant's mark may be refused registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d) because of a likelihood of confusion between the two marks. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); 37 C.F.R. §2.83; TMEP §§1208 et seq. Therefore, upon receipt of applicant's response to this Office action, action on this application may be suspended pending final disposition of the earlier-filed referenced application.

In response to this Office action, applicant may present arguments in support of registration by addressing the issue of the potential conflict between applicant's mark and the mark in the referenced application. Applicant's election not to submit arguments at this time in no way limits applicant's right to address this issue later if a refusal under Section 2(d) issues.

However, applicant must respond to the following requirements.

Therefore, applicant must satisfy one of the following:

- (1) Amend the identification of goods and/or services in the U.S. application to correspond to the goods and/or services identified in the foreign application or registration, ensuring that all goods and/or services beyond the scope of the foreign application or registration are deleted from the U.S. application; or
- (2) Delete the Trademark Act Section 44 basis for the goods and/or services beyond the scope of the foreign application or registration and rely solely on the Section 1 basis for those goods and/or services.

See 15 U.S.C. §§1051, 1126(d)-(e); 37 C.F.R. §§2.32(a)(6), 2.34(b); Marmark Ltd. v. Nutrexpa S.A., 12 USPQ2d 1843, 1845 (TTAB 1989); TMEP §§806.02, 806.04, 1012, 1402.01(b).

Please note, it appears that applicant has filed both a 44(d) and 44(e) application. If so, applicant must designate which goods and/or services fall under each basis.

1(b)/44(e) Dual Basis – Option to Delete 1(b) Advisory

The application specifies both an intent to use basis under Trademark Act Section 1(b) and reliance on a foreign registration(s) under Section 44(e). See 15 U.S.C. §§1051(b), 1126(e); 37 C.F.R. §2.34(a)(2)-(3). However, the foreign registration alone may serve as a basis for obtaining a U.S. registration. See 37 C.F.R. §2.34(a)(3); TMEP §806.01(d). If applicant wants to rely solely on the foreign registration under Section 44(e) as the basis, applicant can request deletion of the Section 1(b) basis. See 37 C.F.R. §2.35(b)(1); TMEP §806.04.

Unless applicant indicates otherwise, this Office will presume that applicant is relying on both Sections 1(b) and 44(e). Thus, although the mark may be approved for publication, it will not register until an acceptable allegation of use has been filed for the goods and/or services based on Section 1(b).

Conclusion

If applicant has questions about its application or needs assistance in responding to this Office action, please telephone the assigned trademark examining attorney.

Failure to Respond - Partial Refusal/Requirement Advisory

If applicant does not respond to this Office action within the six-month period for response, then International Classes 003, 014, 016, 018, 021, 024, 025, 028 and 030 will be deleted from the application and the application will proceed forward for International Classes 006, 026, 029 and 032 only. 37 C.F.R. §2.65(a).
