In the matter of trademark application: Serial No. 85,642,208
For the mark: Authentic Country Brand
Published in the Official Gazette on: November 20, 2012

LML Investments, LLC

Catherine Liegey

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

LML Investments, LLC
225 Business Center Drive
Blacklick, OH 43004

The above-identified opposer, LML Investments, LLC (“LML”), believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in the above-entitled application and hereby opposes the same pursuant to Section 13 of the Trademark Act (15 U.S.C. § 1063).

As grounds for opposition, LML alleges as follows:

STANDING

1. LML has standing to bring this Notice of Opposition because it has a direct and personal stake in the outcome of the proceeding.
2. Registration of the above identified mark will cause confusion in the marketplace, an inappropriate association with LML and dilution of LML’s trademark. Therefore, LML will suffer damage from registration of the mark.

BACKGROUND

3. LML is a business organized and existing under the laws of the state of Ohio with its principal office in Blacklick, Ohio.
4. Through its Master Licensee, Artbrands LLC, LML designs, manufactures and distributes apparel and accessories throughout the United States and around the world.
5. Relative to this business, LML is the exclusive owner of a wide variety of intellectual property rights, including the following federally registered or applied-for trademarks: “COUNTRY BOY” in class 25 for clothing (registration number 3,041,648); “COUNTRY GIRL” in class 25 for clothing (reg. no. 3,041,646); “COUNTRY GIRL” in classes 3 (personal care products), 18 (bags and umbrellas), 24 (towels and bedding) and 35 (retail store, online and mail-order services) (reg. no. 3,607,619); “COUNTRY BOY” in classes 3 (personal care products), 18 (bags and umbrellas), 24 (towels and bedding) and 35 (retail store, online and mail-order services) (reg. no. 3,607,618); “COUNTRY GIRL JEANS BRAND” design mark in class 3 for personal care products (reg. no. 4,099,489); “COUNTRY GIRL” design mark in class 25 for clothing (reg. no. 3,443,913); “COUNTRY GIRL” in class 25 covering T-shirts and hats (reg. no. 3,443,872); “COUNTRY GIRL” in class 30 covering cocoa, coffee and tea (serial number 85,814,832); “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY GIRL” in class 25 covering apparel (serial no. 85,794,306); “COUNTRY GIRL JEAN BRAND” design mark in class 24 (serial no. 77,867,923); and “COUNTRY GIRL” in class

41 (serial no. 77,867,908) (collectively “the COUNTRY GIRL/COUNTRY BOY Marks”).

6. LML has used the Mark “COUNTRY BRAND” and/or “COUNTRY BRAND CLOTHING” continuously since 2007 to advertise and sell products, including but not limited to, clothing bearing the COUNTRY GIRL/COUNTRY BOY Marks. See Exhibits A - I for evidence of LML’s use of the COUNTRY BRAND mark including advertisements that have been placed in national publications, catalogs, which LML produces and distributes to over 40,000 customers nationally, corporate stationery used in sales with all customers and prospective customers, a copy of LML’s website, www.countrybrandclothing.com, other promotional materials and press clippings recognizing LML as the owner of the COUNTRY BRAND mark.
7. As a result of LML’s continuous use of the Mark “COUNTRY BRAND”, LML has acquired common law trademark rights in this Mark in relation to clothing and accessories.
8. Catherine Liegey (“Liegey”) has filed an application to register the “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND” design mark in class 25 covering lingerie.
9. Liegey has filed this application with knowledge that the COUNTRY GIRL/COUNTRY BOY Marks are owned by LML and that LML has used the Mark COUNTRY BRAND continuously for a period of more than five years to advertise and sell its COUNTRY GIRL/COUNTRY BOY-branded clothing and accessories.

10. Prior to June of 2012, Liegey attempted to develop a lingerie line under the name “Authentic Country Girl”, a name that clearly infringes upon LML’s various “COUNTRY GIRL”® registrations and rights. Liegey sought two federal trademark registrations in connection with this endeavor: (1) a “COUNTRY GIRL LINGERIE” design mark in class 25 (serial number 85,437,684); and (2) “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY GIRL” in class 25 (serial number 85,548,174). These actions by Liegey gave rise to a trademark infringement dispute between LML and Liegey but also spawned discussions centered around Liegey becoming a licensee of LML for the “COUNTRY GIRL”® mark, both of which commenced at the end of May 2012. As a result of this dispute Liegey ultimately abandoned her two COUNTRY GIRL applications on September 8, 2012. During the licensing/trademark dispute discussions, Liegey informed LML President Larry Levine (“Levine”) of her intentions to switch the name of her lingerie line from “Authentic Country Girl” to “Authentic Country Brand”. At this time, Levine admonished Liegey from doing so because of LML’s rights in the “COUNTRY BRAND” and “COUNTRY BRAND CLOTHING” marks. However, on June 4, 2012 licensing discussions between LML and Liegey broke down and Liegey filed the mark being opposed. It was at this time that Liegey began developing a line of lingerie using the name “Authentic Country Brand”, a continuation of her efforts to capitalize upon LML’s goodwill in the apparel industry. As such, Liegey’s application should be refused

GROUND FOR OPPOSITION

11. LML asserts four grounds for opposition: (1) likelihood of confusion; (2) likelihood of dilution; (3) false suggestion of a connection with LML; and (4) fraud upon the Office in conjunction with Liegey's application.
12. Liegey is applying for registration of a mark that is nearly identical to the Mark COUNTRY BRAND for which LML has developed common law trademark rights. The only difference between LML's "COUNTRY BRAND" Mark and Liegey's applied-for Mark is the word "AUTHENTIC" which simply serves as a qualifier to the core "COUNTRY BRAND" Mark. Moreover, the stylized script and design that Liegey has incorporated into her "AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND" application is confusingly similar to the stylized design found in two of LML's registered trademarks (registration numbers 4,099,489 and 3,443,913) and one of LML's pending applications (serial number 77,867,923).
13. Liegey has applied for the mark in class 25 and plans to use it in connection with lingerie, a type of clothing.
14. During the licensing/trademark dispute discussions between Liegey and Levine, Liegey admitted to having spent significant time studying LML's Facebook page, www.facebook.com/countrygirl, as well as LML's retail site, www.countrygirlstore.com. Liegey further admitted to her intentions to emulate the LML's COUNTRY GIRL brand in developing her lingerie line.
15. Due to the similarity of the marks and the fact that Liegey is applying for the marks in Class 25 for lingerie, a class in which LML has developed secondary meaning and common law rights for its COUNTRY BRAND line of clothing, there is a strong likelihood that consumers will be confused as to the affiliation of Liegey's mark with LML.

16. The proposed registration is also likely to dilute LML's COUNTRY BRAND Mark.
17. Liegey's use of the nearly identical mark in connection with lingerie is likely to falsely suggest a connection or association with LML.
18. Liegey filed her application with complete awareness of the prior rights of LML to the COUNTRY BRAND Mark and, as such, is not the rightful owner of the mark.
19. It appears that Liegey knowingly made a false statement to the Office on her application by stating that her date of first use for the "AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND" Mark was February 21, 2012 thereby perpetrating a fraud upon the Office. Upon information and belief, LML believes that Liegey's true date of first use was on or about June 8, 2012. LML's belief is based upon the following facts:
 - a. Most significantly is the fact that the parties had been in discussions about a potential license from late May of 2012 to early June of 2012. These licensing discussions were connected to LML's enforcement of its "COUNTRY GIRL" marks against Liegey for her use of "COUNTRY GIRL" in connection with a line of lingerie. In early June of 2012, those discussions between Liegey and LML ceased and LML continued its efforts to enforce its "COUNTRY GIRL" rights against Liegey. It was during these licensing/trademark enforcement discussions, in early June of 2012, that Liegey notified Levine of her intention to switch the name of her lingerie line from “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY GIRL” to “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND”. Based upon these facts, Liegey’s true date of first use of the “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND” name is believed to have been in early June of 2012.

- b. Additionally, Liegey registered the domains www.authenticcountrybrand.com and www.authenticcountrybrands.com on June 8, 2012 and, in the registration of the those domains, Liegey listed her business as “Authentic Country Girl”. See attached Exhibit J.
- c. Liegey’s Twitter account, @atruefarmgirl, became active on February 26th and was originally connected to the name “AUTHENTIC COUNTRY GIRL”. Liegey’s Twitter account remained connected to the name AUTHENTIC COUNTRY GIRL as recently as May 17, 2012 and only some time after May 17, 2012 was the @atruefarmgirl Twitter account name changed to Authentic Country Brand. See attached Exhibit K.
- d. Liegey also established a Facebook account using the name Authentic Country Girl rather than Authentic Country Brand. Only after LML took action to shut down Liegey’s Authentic Country Girl Facebook in early June 2012 did Liegey attempt to establish an Authentic Country Brand Facebook page – a page that Facebook also subsequently removed based upon LML’s rights related to the COUNTRY BRAND mark.

20. For these reasons, LML believes that the February 21, 2012 date of first use that Liegey included on her application for the Authentic Country Brand mark was purposefully erroneous and therefore fraudulent.
21. WHEREFORE, Opposer, LML Investments LLC respectfully requests that the application for the design mark, "AUTHENTIC COUNTRY BRAND", Serial Number 85,642,208, in class 25, be refused.

The filing fee for this Opposition has been submitted electronically with this Notice of Opposition.

Respectfully submitted:

"country" is a state of mind:
 it's not just where you are,
 it's how you feel

You can take the girl out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the girl. She's down to earth, romantic and sensual, yet boyish and sassy. She's just as comfortable watching...

Country Brand Clothing Searching for the Genuine Country Girl and Country Boy

You can take the girl out of the country but you can't take the country out of the girl.

Are you like Jessica Simpson, who recently declared in an interview that she was "just a country girl"? Are you a city dweller but "country at heart"? Do you have the confidence, ease of being and charm to wow our MySpace friends and win the hearts of our judges? Would you look amazing on a glossy poster? Then Country Brand Clothing wants to hear from you!

Country Brand Clothing is conducting a national search for the quintessential American Country Girl and Country Boy 2008 to be announced September 1 on their website and MySpace page.

The winner will receive an all-expenses paid trip to the Western and Country Lifestyle trade show in Denver, Colorado in September; a photo-shoot for a national advertising campaign, a poster-signing gig, cash prizes and a wardrobe from the new Country Girl and Country Boy clothing line.

Entries will be accepted from June 2 through August 1, 2008 directly on the website at <http://www.CountryGirlStore.com> and the Country Girl MySpace page <http://www.Myspace.com/countrygirl>. Friends and members will be able to vote for their favorite "country hottie" and see if their choice wins over the judges.

Entrants must be 18 years of age or older; must send or upload a recent full-length photo and write a paragraph telling us why you are the perfect Country Girl or Country Boy.

The Country Girl and Country Boy contest winners will be featured on the CountryGirlStore.com homepage alongside celeb fans like Britney Spears, Jaime Pressly, Kelly Monaco, Rodney Atkins and many others.

Country Girl/Country Boy is a fast-growing brand based in Columbus, Ohio. Their products are available online and in select high-end retail outlets throughout the country. For more information please contact Country Girl or Country Boy directly at 866-755-4278 or via email at: info@countrybrandclothing.com.

Country Girl 2008 Collection appeals to stars' "country state of mind".

Columbus, OH (PRWEB) May 7, 2008

There is no shortage of celeb fans for the new Country Girl 2008 Collection; they can be seen in all their smiling glory in a special section at the <http://www.CountryGirlStore.com> website.

Special mention must be given to the most popular item, unofficially dubbed the "Nice Guns" top for women. The skimpy, sexy top is brandished with 2 six-shooters in a sparkly, eye-catching graphic.

Launching primo May, the site offers Country Girl's fresh and sophisticated view of the term "country clothing". An emphasis on the lifestyle concept is explained by Larry Levine, the owner of Country Girl and Country Boy brands:

"Country is really a state of mind, a love of nature and classic style. It's not who you are or where you live; it's how you feel, and the quiet confidence that comes with being completely at ease with who you are. Country Girl and Country Boy brand clothing expresses that sentiment whether you live in Nashville, L.A. or the Hamptons."

The 2008 Collection for Country Girl and Country Boy includes clothing, hats and caps in price ranges from $14.99 to $29.99, making it effortlessly affordable to get your own "Nice Guns". Featured in the printed garment section are special effect graphics including rhinestones, foil and colorful tone-on-tone line art.

Other exciting features of the CountryGirlStore.com website include videos from featured singing artists and a MySpace page complete with so many "friends" from the music, television and film industry to light up the Montana sky.

CountryGirlStore.com is based in Columbus, Ohio and its products are available online and in select high-end retail outlets throughout the country. Applications for wholesale dealers are currently being accepted through the website or via email at: info\(at\)countrybrandclothing.comcountrybrandclothing.com).

In an unprecedented and savvy marketing play, Country Girl / Country Boy brand will officially premiere their new signature song directly to fans on social media. With over 370,000 fans and counting on FaceBook, an eager following awaits the release of what is sure to be a nationwide smash hit in the music industry.

The song performed by Union Rose with talented singer Marti Dodson on vocals tested off the charts with a focus group of fans which is no surprise given Marti's achievement as a BMI award winning singer and songwriter.

Union Rose, a three piece country act from Columbus, Ohio, describe their music as "gritty pretty". The new song for Country Girl is immediately identifiable as a theme song for can-do independent country girls. Rolling out the song for purchase on Amazon.com and iTunes is expected to boost the FaceBook following for Country Girl to 1 million by November.

According to Larry Levine, President of Country Brand Clothing: "This is the first time that a clothing and lifestyle brand has created their own single directly for its fans. "Proud to be a Country Girl" will be Country Girl Nations' theme song. It embodies all of what a Country Girl is and it is made especially for them." The song will be available for purchase on iTunes and at <http://www.Amazon.com>.
