Opposition No. 91209210

Nouvation, Inc.

v.

ASHI Holding Company

Denise M. DelGizzi,
Technical Program Manager:

On February 14, 2013, the Board forwarded application Serial No. 85622313 to the Deputy Commissioner for Trademark Examination Policy for consideration of an amendment filed prior to the commencement of the instant opposition. By proposed amendment, applicant sought to amend the identification of goods in International Class 9 from: "Software for the management of health and safety educational training services and software for the management of health and safety educational training service businesses" to: "Software for the management of health and safety educational training services and software for the management of health and safety educational training service businesses, not including software for operating and/or controlling elevators”

It has come to the Board’s attention that the amendment was approved and entered on February 15, 2013. Accordingly, opposer is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to notify the Board whether it wishes to proceed with this opposition with the amended identification, or to have the opposition dismissed as a nullity. If opposer wishes to proceed, or if no response is received, proceedings will be resumed and dates will be reset, including the time for applicant to file an answer.

Proceedings herein otherwise remain suspended.
