Dear Ms. Rochelle:

I could not send answer to USPTO because I do not know how to answer to the opposition letter. I look through USPTO website and tried to find out but it was not clearly explained how to answer to opposition letter.

So, I tried to contact USPTO, and the opposer's attorney and left messages for both but no one called me either. I wish someone can call me and talk to me instead of sending documents I cannot understand.

I have quite large product inventory already manufactured. I may abandon my trademark filing but I would need at least time to sell off my inventory.

Please tell me what I need to do. Thanks.

Sincerely,

Pil Sung Kang

Rochelle Adams, Paralegal Specialist:

Answer was due in this case on April 1, 2013. Inasmuch as it appears that no answer has been filed, nor has applicant filed a motion to extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against applicant under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Applicant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against applicant in accordance with

Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).
