APPLICANT’S REQUEST TO REMOVE
FILING NO. 43 IN THIS MATTER FROM THE PUBLIC RECORD

COMES NOW, Debra Wiseberg, Applicant and Counterclaim Plaintiff, (hereafter “Applicant”) to request that filing no. 43, received by the USPTO, TTAB on July 13, 2015 and filed of record in this matter on July 14, 2015 be removed from the public record. The Applicant sent a private letter to the USPTO, TTAB on July 10, 2015 regarding payment of the statutory fee for filing a counterclaim and evidence that such payment was received by the USPTO, TTAB in April 2013 and I did not intend for such letter and evidence of payment to become a part of the public record. This letter was sent in response to an order made by the Board on July 1, 2015 in which the Board stated that “the USPTO records indicate that Applicant did not submit the required statutory fee for filing a counterclaim”.

I emailed a copy of my July 10, 2015 letter to the interlocutory attorney in this matter and stated within my motion to suspend proceedings for 20 days and verification of counterclaim fee paid filed on July 10, 2015, that I mailed verification and proof of the statutory counterclaim fee payment to the USPTO, TTAB. The evidence supplied by the Applicant as proof of payment of the statutory fee for filing a counterclaim is irrelevant to this proceeding and contains private information that was not meant for public view. The Applicant respectfully requests that the Board remove or otherwise completely redact filing no. 43 in this matter from the public record.

Dated: July 31, 2015

Respectfully submitted,
