Hallmark Licensing, LLC

v.

Hallmark Industries, Inc.

ELIZABETH J. WINTER, INTERLOCUTORY ATTORNEY:

These cases now come up for consideration of Opposer's fully briefed motion (filed May 13, 2015) to compel Applicant's initial disclosures.

At the outset, the Board notes from Applicant's response that Applicant has served its initial disclosures on Opposer. Accordingly, Opposer's motion to compel is moot and will be given no further consideration. However, in its reply brief, Opposer argues that Applicant's initial disclosures are inadequate and requests that the Board compel better or fully responsive initial disclosures. In view thereof, Opposer's reply brief is construed as a second motion to compel to which Applicant is allowed to respond. Applicant is allowed until FIFTEEN DAYS from the mailing date of this order to submit a response to Opposer's motion for adequate initial disclosures. Opposer' may file a reply brief in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.127(a). These proceedings remain suspended.
