Subject: BFC0113011 ADVENTURES OF SHADOW

The below confidential report was prepared at the request of an attorney in anticipation of litigation.

Pursuant to your request to investigate William T.O'Donnell dba O'Donnell Entertainment in regard to their use of the mark ADVENTURES OF SHADOW and, if so, the nature and extent of that use, we have conducted the following:

According to the USPTO the owner of ADVENTURES OF SHADOW is William T.O'Donnell dba O'Donnell Entertainment, 7873 1/2 Myrtle Ave., Eureka, CA 95503.

We then located the apparent primary website for the Adventures of Shadow project at adventuresofshadow.com, which is a one-page simplistic website. It reads Coming in the Fall of 2012, The Adventures of Shadow®. This domain was registered in May 2008 by William Odonnell, Odonnell Entertainment, PO Box 771, Bayside, CA 95524; (707) 442-4117; odonnellent@sbcglobal.net.

We also believe this same individual to be the owner of these additional domains: shadow.ws, adventureofshadow.com, adventureofshadow.info, adventureofshadow.mobi, adventureofshadow.net, adventureofshadow.org, adventureofshadow.us, adventuresofshadow.biz, adventuresofshadow.co, adventuresofshadow.info, adventuresofshadow.me, adventuresofshadow.mobi, adventuresofshadow.net, adventuresofshadow.org, adventuresofshadow.tv, adventuresofshadow.us, adventureswithshadow.com, adventureswithshadow.net, adventureswithshadow.org, shadow.ws, shadowadventure.info, shadowadventure.net, shadowadventure.org, shadowadventure.us, shadowsaurs.biz, shadowsaurs.co, shadowsaurs.com, shadowsaurs.info, shadowsaurs.mobi, shadowsaurs.net, shadowsaurs.org, shadowsaurs.us, shadowsaurs.ws, shadowtoday.com, shadowtoday.info, shadowtoday.net, shadowtoday.org, adventuresofscath.net, scath.ws.

The earliest archived version of the subject's website, found as it was preserved in 2008, announced: "Coming in the Summer of 2006..." This is an indication that this website was probably launched far earlier and not updated for a long time. One of the subject's many websites (www.creationnews.com) displays the image and link to Adventures of Shadow at the bottom of the home page dated May 18, 2012. We most recent archived copy of this same home page dated September 23, 2010 does not display any reference to Adventures of Shadow.

The website for Odonnell Entertainment located at www.odonnellentertainment.com contains a link to adventuresofshadow.com. The most recent archived copy of this website dated February 1, 2011, however, contains no mention of this title at all.

© IPCybercrime.com LLC 2001-2012

The subject's Facebook page is located at facebook.com/adventuresofshadow and was created on April 18, 2012. The date "founded" was manually recorded by the page's creator as 2006. The page's author is shown as Bill Odonnell. On Odonnell's personal Facebook profile (facebook.com/WilliamTuftsOdonnell) he states on October 3, 2012 "... it is getting closer to taking "Adventures of Shadow®" to the next level..." and "Adventures of Shadow®" – Calendar 2013, Updated water bottle label and water in the bottle too, other type of items will start to come out in the coming months too, stay tuned… "Odonnell Entertainment®" – New video production of St. George Reef Lighthouse will have a promotion s in it about other upcoming titles and one will be on "Adventures of Shadow®".

In the subject's Facebook photo album we located a business card that was uploaded April 27, 2012 which reads: Odonnell Entertainment® / Adventures of Shadow® / Videos have been featured on History Channel / Bill Odonnell, Owner / billjr@odonnell.ws / PO Box 771 Bayside, CA 95524; (877) SIX-DAYS; (707) 442-4117; www.odonnellentertainment.com; www.adventuresofshadow.com.

We called (707) 442-4117 and the telephone was answered "Hello" by an individual who identified himself to us as Bill Odonnell. Using a suitable pretext we inquired about "Adventures of Shadow". Initially, we asked about DVD's and he responded, "We don't have DVD's at the moment. The only with Shadow in it right now is 'Last One Out Turns Out the Light' which has him in the end near a lighthouse looking at the camera." Odonnell stated that the only merchandise he has on hand are 8"x10" and mousepads. During our conversation Odonnell stated that he ran into problems when "the first Shadow" ran into health problems for six years with $9,000.00 in bills. He explained his plan was for Shadow to star in films but he was not healthy enough to shoot and eventually passed away. The first Shadow's name was originally 'Stormy' and Shadow was his stage name. The new Shadow, he explained, is named 'Scamp' and Shadow is the stage name. His plan now it to have "at least three Shadows on hand" before he begins filming so that he doesn't run into the same problem as before. In the future, he stated, he is planning on going "full force" with a calendar due for 2013 and possibly stuffed animals and collector's plates if he has the funds to do so. During our conversation, Odonnell stated that he has the trademark for 'Adventures of Shadow' and "if anyone else used the words 'Adventures of Shadow' with a dog they'd be nailed. After more small talk, we concluded the call.

This case will be closed unless otherwise instructed. If there is anything else you need regarding this matter, please contact us anytime. This concludes the report of Rob Holmes.

Sincerely,

Rob Holmes, CEO

Bill Odonnell Since it is getting closer to taking "Adventures of Shadow®" to the next level - I decided to show both of them with me. This picture, as some may know, is the last day all three of us were together.

The picture was taken about three hours or so before "Shadow" Stormy left us on July 11th.

Some dates to know:

October 4, 2012 - Shadow "Scamp" will be 10 months old

October 11 - Shadow "Scamp" will have been with us now for 8 months

October 11 – "Shadow" Stormy would have been gone for 3 months but never forgotten.

December 4 – Shadow "Scamp" will be one year old

December 27 – "Shadow" Stormy would have been 14 years old but considering her health to have lived 13 years and little over 6 months was not too bad considering both vets thought she would have died over three years earlier.

As mention before she was a fighter and making the decision I did made it even harder. But she had one final adventure before she went down at Trees of Mystery and many people petting her and taking her picture on her final day here. She probably would have never had that and I am pretty sure she would have gone on her own within days or max a few weeks. As you can see in this picture she was enjoying herself.

Coming soon:
"Adventures of Shadow®" – Calendar 2013, Updated water bottle label and water in the bottle too, other type of items will start to come out in the coming months too, stay tuned...
"Odonnell Entertainment®" – New video production of St. George Reef Lighthouse will have a promotion s in it about other upcoming titles and one will be on "Adventures of Shadow®".

Thanks to all for caring about the "Adventures of Shadow® dogs.

Last One Out, Turn off the Light: Keeping the Watch

VHS Retail: $14.99 and DVD Retail: $14.99 * ISBN:0-9720152-0-5

On May 13, 1975, the last United States Coast Guard crew vacated St. George Reef Lighthouse, extinguishing its light after 83 years of service. Prior to the closing, a film was produced which portrayed the daily life of the lighthouse keepers, the final guardians of "Dragon Rock". Nearly a quarter of century later, in 1996, the St. George Reef Lighthouse Preservation Society (SGRLPS) began preserving the legacy by restoring this now darkened chapter in the maritime history on the Pacific Coast.
"Last One Out, Turn Off the Light" is both rare and new footage, with updated graphics, showing the lighthouse in operation. This production provides a compelling look at both the past and present of St. George Reef Lighthouse. Due to the age of the original film, certain portions show some visual fading. Running Time: 31 minutes, Color and B/W, VHS, NTSC, N/R. Revised Copyright 1999/2002/2006
Part of the sale of this video goes to help with restoring the lighthouse the way it was. DVD version is NOW out!!

Last One Out, Turn off the Light: Keeping the Watch

VHS Retail: $14.99 and (NEW NOW ON DVD Retail: $19.99 * ISBN:0-9720152-0-5

On May 13, 1975, the last United States Coast Guard crew vacated St. George Reef Lighthouse, extinguishing its light after 83 years of service. Prior to the closing, a film was produced which portrayed the daily life of the lighthouse keepers, the final guardians of "Dragon Rock". Nearly a quarter of century later, in 1996, the St. George Reef Lighthouse Preservation Society (SGRLPS) began preserving the legacy by restoring this now darkened chapter in the maritime history on the Pacific Coast.
"Last One Out, Turn Off the Light" is both rare and new footage, with updated graphics, showing the lighthouse in operation. This production provides a compelling look at both the past and present of St. George Reef Lighthouse. Due to the age of the original film, certain portions show some visual fading. Running Time: 31 minutes, Color and B/W, VHS, NTSC, N/R. Revised Copyright 1999/2002/2006
Part of the sale of this video goes to help with restoring the lighthouse the way it was. DVD version is NOW out!!
