NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer AARP (“Opposer”), a non-profit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the District of Columbia, having its principal place of business at 601 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20049, believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 85/742,072, and hereby opposes the same under the provisions of Section 13 of the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. §1063.

As grounds for opposition, Opposer alleges the following:

1. Opposer is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the interests of persons 50 years of age and older. With a membership of more than 37 million, Opposer has one of the largest memberships of any other non-profit organization in the United States.

2. Opposer is the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the AARP mark, and formatives thereof, which has been used extensively on and in connection with a wide variety of goods and services, including, but not limited to, association and advocacy services, namely, promoting the interests of mature individuals, charitable fundraising services, magazines and online magazines, providing legal information, providing medical and health information and services, providing news and information on political issues, legislation, regulation, and elections, and providing information, commentary, and discussions on the right to vote in elections.

3. Opposer owns extensive common law rights in and to its AARP marks. In addition, Opposer’s rights in the AARP mark have been recognized by the United States Patent and Trademark Office, which has issued to Opposer numerous U.S. trademark/service mark registrations for AARP and formatives thereof (hereinafter these registered and common law rights are collectively referred to as the “AARP Marks”). Among Opposer’s federally registered marks are the following, which are currently registered on the Principal Register for the following goods/services (hereinafter, collectively, “Opposer’s Services/Branded Goods”):

4. Opposer's above listed registrations are valid and subsisting, and U.S. Registration Nos. 2,461,155, 1,046,998, 1,047,005, 1,335,496, 741,334, 2,909,108, and 3,135,601 are incontestable and constitute conclusive evidence of Opposer's exclusive right to use the respective registered marks for the goods/services specified in those registrations. The remaining registrations listed above constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the marks covered by them and of Opposer's ownership of and exclusive right to use the marks in commerce for the listed goods and services. Copies of the registration information from the website of the United States Patent and Trademark Office are attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. Since long prior to the filing date of Applicant's Application Serial No. 85/742,072, and since long prior to any use that Applicant has claimed, Opposer has continuously used its AARP Marks in interstate commerce in connection with the advertising, social welfare services and the licensing and branding of Opposer's Services/Branded Goods. As a result, the AARP Marks have become well-known as a distinctive indicator of the origin of Opposer's Services/Branded Goods and as a symbol of Opposer's valuable goodwill.

6. Since long prior to the filing date of Application Serial No. 85/742,072, and since long prior to any first use date that Applicant has claimed, Opposer's AARP Marks have become particularly well-known in the relevant trade through extensive advertising and marketing in commerce in connection with the offering of Opposer's services and the sale of Opposer branded goods, which have been distributed, offered, and sold throughout the United States and in other countries.

7. Opposer has made substantial expenditures in the advertising and marketing of Opposer's AARP Marks over a period of many years and, thus, the AARP Marks have become well-known among consumers as a distinctive indicator of the origin of the services offered by Opposer and Opposer branded goods.

8. Notwithstanding Opposer's long prior established rights in and to the AARP Marks, Applicant filed an application with the United States Patent and Trademark Office to register the mark AAYP.ORG AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE, Ser. No. 85/742,072, for "Association services, namely, promoting the interests of young individuals under the age of 50; Conducting public opinion polls; Information in the field of government affairs; Lobbying services, namely, promoting the interests of young individuals under the age of 50 in the fields of legislation and regulation; Providing a website featuring information about political issues; Providing an internet website featuring news and information in the field of national and international politics; Providing information about political elections; Providing information regarding political issues, knowing how to vote and knowing how to register to vote” in Class 35.

9. Upon information and belief, Applicant knew or had reason to know of Opposer’s prior rights in the AARP Marks when Applicant filed its application.

Count I - Likelihood of Confusion - §2(d)

10. The mark which Applicant seeks to register is identical to or so closely resembles Opposer’s AARP Marks that the use and registration thereof is likely to cause confusion, mistake and/or deception as to the source or origin of Applicant’s services in violation of Section 2(d) of the Trademark Act, and will injure and damage Opposer and the goodwill and reputation symbolized by Opposer’s AARP Marks.

11. The services of Opposer and Applicant are identical or so closely related that the public is likely to be confused, to be deceived, and to assume erroneously that Applicant’s services are services offered by Opposer, or that Applicant is in some way connected with, sponsored by, or affiliated with Opposer, all to Opposer’s irreparable damage.

12. Likelihood of confusion is enhanced because Opposer’s AARP Marks are strong, well-known, and entitled to a broad scope of protection.

13. Likelihood of confusion is enhanced by the fact that Opposer's Services/Branded Goods and Applicant's services will likely be sold and/or distributed through the same trade channels to the same classes of prospective consumers.

14. Likelihood of confusion is enhanced by the fact that the parties will likely advertise their services in the same or similar types of media.

15. Likelihood of confusion in this case is enhanced by the fame and renown of Opposer's AARP Marks and by the fact that consumers will associate Applicant's alleged mark with goods/services sold, approved, or endorsed by Opposer.

16. Applicant is not affiliated or connected with or endorsed or sponsored by Opposer, nor has Opposer approved any of the services offered or sold or intended to be sold by Applicant under its alleged mark.

Count II - Likelihood of Deception/False Suggestion of Connection - Section 2(a)

17. Applicant's alleged mark so closely resembles Opposer's AARP Marks that Applicant's alleged mark is likely to cause deception in violation of Section 2(a) of the Trademark Act in that the mark misdescribes the nature or origin of the services, consumers are likely to believe that the misdescription actually describes the nature or origin of the services, and this is likely to materially alter consumers' decisions to acquire Applicant's services.

18. Applicant's alleged mark so closely resembles Opposer's AARP Marks that it falsely suggests a connection with Opposer in violation of Section 2(a) of the Trademark Act, because Applicant's alleged mark points uniquely to Opposer, and consumers will assume that services offered under Applicant's alleged mark are connected with Opposer.

19. When Applicant's alleged mark is used in connection with the services of the type described in its application, said mark will cause consumers to mistakenly assume that Opposer is endorsing, attempting to sponsor, or encouraging the sale of Applicant's services by permitting Opposer's AARP Marks to be used in connection with such services.

20. Applicant's alleged mark is deceptive in that it falsely suggests a connection with, or approval by, Opposer.

21. Use and registration of Applicant's alleged mark will deprive Opposer of the ability to protect its reputation, persona, and goodwill.

Count III - Dilution - §43(c)

22. For many years, Opposer's AARP Marks have been widely used and extensively advertised in the United States and internationally, and therefore, the AARP Marks have become well known and famous as a distinctive symbol of Opposer's goodwill.

23. Opposer's famous AARP Marks became well known and famous before Applicant made any use of or applied for registration of the alleged AAYP.ORG AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE mark.

24. Applicant's alleged mark will cause dilution of the distinctive quality of Opposer's famous AARP Marks.

25. Use and registration of Applicant's alleged mark will lessen the capacity of Opposer's famous AARP Marks to identify and distinguish Opposer's Services/Branded Goods.

26. Use and registration of Applicant's alleged mark will tarnish the goodwill symbolized by Opposer's famous AARP Marks.

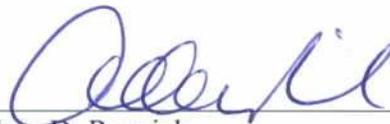

27. Use and registration of Applicant's alleged mark will cause dilution by blurring, thus diluting or weakening the unique and distinctive significance of Opposer's famous AARP Marks to identify and distinguish one source.

28. By reason of all of the foregoing, Opposer will be damaged by the registration of Applicant's alleged mark and registration should be refused.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that this opposition be sustained and that registration of U.S. Application Serial No. 85/742,072 be denied.
