DIRECT TESTIMONY AND DECLARATION OF MICHAEL S. YOULEN

My name is Michael S. Youlen, President and Sole Shareholder of Applicant, Apollo Investigations, Inc., (hereinafter, "Applicant"). I give this written testimony in lieu of oral testimony that I would provide at trial. I do so under the pains and penalties of perjury, and hereby declare and state as follows:

1. Applicant is seeking a mark for "Apollo Investigations, Inc."
2. Apollo Security International, Inc., (hereinafter, "Opposer") does not hold a mark for "Apollo Investigations, Inc."
3. Applicant was established by the Virginia State Corporation Commission on September 30, 2011 (see attached Exhibit A).

4. Applicant is licensed to do business in Virginia and operates in Virginia, Maryland and Washington, DC, focusing primarily in Virginia and Maryland.

5. Applicant is licensed as a private investigator in Virginia by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services and in Maryland by the Maryland State Police (see attached Exhibit B). Washington DC recognizes the states' licenses so a private investigator's license is not necessary unless you maintain a physical office there.

6. Applicant is in the business of offering private investigator services to individuals, focusing primarily on matrimonial private investigations and surveillance, as well as service of process.

7. Applicant also provides an officer for a private police corporation as a Special Conservator of the Peace in Manassas, Virginia. This is not, however, a marketed service.

8. A complete list of Applicant's marketed services are located within the attached Exhibit C.

9. A Special Conservator of the Peace (SCOP) is appointed under Va. Code Ann. §19.2-13 by the Circuit Court of Virginia in the County/City where they operate.

10. A SCOP has arrest and police powers under Virginia law, and is trained in the same manner as police officers. An SCOP is treated the same as a law enforcement officer/police officer within the territorial limits of their appointment and has the right to use a police marked vehicle, carry a badge stating "police" and to use a firearm and police equipment in the course of their duties.

11. A SCOP is not a security guard and is not charged with asset protection. A SCOP can enforce all laws within their territory, including but not limited issuing court summonses, appearing in Court for their criminal docket, and making authoritative arrests for speeding tickets, reckless driving, driving while intoxicated, larceny, loitering, assault and battery, assault on a police officer, illegally carrying a concealed weapon, drug possession, etc.

12. Opposer is not licensed in Virginia to provide private investigator services and no individuals employed by Opposer are known to be a SCOP.

13. At paragraph 17 of the affidavit of Dennis M. Crowley, III, it is stated that Opposer has offices in Virginia and Maryland. However, Opposer is not licensed in Virginia with the Department of Criminal Justice Services (see attached Exhibit D), nor does it appear that Opposer is licensed by the Maryland State Police. Therefore, any such office would be operating illegally under Virginia law if they are offering private investigator services. If they are not offering private investigator services, then there is no basis for their opposition to Applicant's trademark. See, Va. Code Ann. §9.1-149, which requires licensure in Virginia with the Department of Criminal Justice Services, which includes private investigators and security services.

14. Furthermore, according to Exhibit M of the affidavit of Dennis M. Crowley, III, the President of Opposer, Opposer does not provide private investigator services or surveillance for individuals. Opposer provides asset protection services concerning "trademark violations, product diversion, product counterfeiting, trade secrets theft, employee theft, workplace drug abuse, time theft, fraud and other similar threats to the assets of the corporation or institution."

15. Furthermore, Opposer does not even offer its investigations to the general public. According to the aforementioned Exhibit M, Opposer "does not market its investigative services to outside companies. (Opposer limits their) investigative services to clients of security services."

16. Therefore, it is apparent from Opposer's own exhibits that it is a business asset security provider, and does not publicly market investigations. Rather, Opposer only looks into thefts of assets for which they are already providing security.

17. Applicant is not a business asset protection or security company, nor does it market itself as such. Applicant markets only its private investigator services publicly.

18. Applicant's offices are located in Manassas, Virginia and Bethesda, Maryland.

19. Applicant's gross revenue per year is between approximately $125,000.00 and $175,000.00.

20. Applicant markets and offers its services through the internet, or through referrals from clients located in the Washington DC Metropolitan area, but primarily Virginia and Maryland.

21. In approximately September, 2011, Applicant began using the domain name "www.appoloinvestigationsinc.com".

22. In the aforementioned affidavit of Dennis M. Crowley, III, at Exhibits U and V, the Opposer sets forth the investigative services that are purportedly offered by Opposer. However, as stated above and as set forth on Exhibit M to said affidavit, these services are not marketed publicly, but only offered to the asset protection clients that have already retained Opposer. This is further supported by paragraph 31 of said affidavit.

23. Applicant's customers include law firms referring matrimonial investigation work to Applicant or law firms needing process servers, as well as private individuals seeking investigations of family members or spouses, and private individuals seeking to enforce liens and judgments against property.

24. There is no likelihood of confusion between the private investigator services offered by Applicant and the business asset protection services offered by Opposer. Opposer is not even licensed to offer private investigator services in the geographic region where Applicant operates. Opposer only investigates theft issues for its asset protection clients. It does not offer these services publicly. Conversely, Applicant offers private investigator services publicly, but not asset protection services at all.

25. It must be assumed that Opposer's clients know who Opposer is. Since there are no investigative clients of Opposer except those that are already asset protection clients, there is no chance that Opposer's clients will confuse Applicant with Opposer.

26. Opposer primarily operates in the Northeastern United States. Applicant does not operate in the Northeast.

27. To Applicant's knowledge, no actual calls or confusion has ever occurred between the parties. That being said, Applicant received two solicitations for business from the Northeast area within a day of the Applicant's initial filing in this case. Applicant checked into the solicitations and determined that they were likely affiliated with the Opposer. Applicant's professional judgment is that these calls were made by Opposer's employees for the sole purpose of establishing evidence of confusion in the marketplace or to establish that Applicant operated in the Northeast.

28. The details of these inquiries are as follows:

11/13/13:

On this date, a Notice of Appearance was filed by counsel for Opposer along with Applicant's Answer in this matter.

11/14/13:

At 7:37pm, I received a suspicious email solicitation from a man claiming to be "Afaa Weaver" who is a professor at Simmons University in Boston, MA. This is the same location as the principal office of Opposer. This man was claiming to need help locating his granddaughter in the Fredericksburg, VA area. Afaa Weaver and Opposer's Co-CEO, Richard Ryer, both served in the military in DaNang Vietnam during the Vietnam War. Both served overseas at the same time. Mr. "Weaver's" request for service was denied by the Applicant.

At 11:22pm, I received another suspicious solicitation. This person was claiming to be named “Craig Vesling” and had a Rochester, NY telephone number. This person was claiming to be (family) from quote the “northeast.” This person was claiming to need help finding a friend. This email was very oddly worded as well. Rochester, NY is another location where Opposer alleges that it maintains an office. This solicitation was also not accepted.

Both solicitations were sent from individual iPhones. Before this date, Applicant had never received any solicitations from any individuals in the northeast. Since November 14, 2013 to the date of this Affidavit, Applicant has never received any solicitations from any individuals in the northeast.

29. Opposer has previously sent a demand letter to Applicant that Applicant cease and desist from using the name “Apollo Investigations, Inc.” and threatening legal action. Applicant responded by refusing to accede to their demands. Opposer has not followed up or pursued any litigation concerning the demand since it is not enforceable and any such litigation by Opposer would fail.

30. There are other firms using the term Apollo in connection with their services that Opposer has apparently never molested since they are not mentioned in Opposer’s Affidavit of Dennis M. Crowley, III (See attached Exhibit E).

31. By the use of its name, Apollo Investigations, Inc., Applicant has developed significant goodwill and a reputation for providing quality private investigator services and process server services in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area. This business also provides a good living for its principal, Michael Youlen, and is the sole source of income for himself and his family.

- (February 2014)

Mike,

My separation agreement has been finalized and signed. As you might expect, the spousal support amount was reduced and (Redacted) signed pretty quickly after I made her aware of the report I had detailing her activities with (Redacted) over the past few months. Many thanks to you for the help in getting the truth about what was going on. I am estimating that I saved in the hundreds of thousands of dollars since I am only paying alimony while the (Redacted) remain at home. After that I owe her nothing. Once again – thanks for your help. You did a great job, and I appreciate your efforts. If you need a recommendation, let me know. Doing business with you was great, despite the awful circumstances involved. Thanks.

- (January 2014)

I and my children will always remember you when they see the full picture of who their XXXXX was later. Your hard work has indeed paid off. What you did to get the truth out is an excellent example of a well organized professionalism, integrity and honesty one can wish for when executing a job such as this. I have the full report. God bless you and your family

- (Angie's List Jan. 2014)

He provided me with assistance in dealing with harassment from a resident in my development. Mike is very professional and courteous to deal with. He responded to my initial call very quickly. He gave me some practical and useful tips on how to deal with my situation. Mike was always responsive to my emails and questions. His rates are reasonable. I highly recommend his services.

- (December 2013)

Mike,

I want to express all my gratefulness for what you have done on my behalf, your work was excellent, very professional and caused the effect it was intended for, nevertheless was not necessary to expose it publicly, the sole document was useful to negotiate with (redacted). Thank you very much for your efficient help, I don't find more words to express my gratitude to you.

- (October 2013)

Mike,

I wanted to write and thank you for your assistance last month with the interviews. As you know, I have been in law enforcement for more than 25 years and spent many of those years supervising investigators. Your approach in locating the witnesses was tenacious; your interviewing skills were well honed and your demeanor exhibited in rapport building with the witnesses was remarkable. It was evident in all aspects of your work that you had served a number of years as a sworn police officer; the professionalism and experience shone through. I would highly recommend your services to those in need of a private investigator in Northern Virginia.

Thank you, my dear. You have been an absolute joy to work with and I will refer anyone I come across to you. I admire your integrity and your willing spirit to go out at any hour of the day or night to get the job done. I also admire your ability to work with angry people like me who are so mad and so betrayed that we cannot see straight. I am appalled in my own work at people who take their anger out on others and yet I have seen myself doing this a couple of times in the last few months and for that I am so very sorry. I will surely keep you updated on the outcome of all of this. You are like me. You are interested and invested in the outcomes of all your hard work. And your heart is in this. I hope to be able to meet you one day. I thank you for everything. To give me the truth has been an unbelievable gift, and that is what you do.....you give the truth. Thank you Michael. You are a good person with a faithful heart.

April 2013

Hi Mike,

First and foremost, many thanks for everything you have helped me with! Your professionalism, understanding and kindness have made this situation the best it possibly could have been. I'm hoping that the services will NOT be needed in the future, but I appreciate the information. I'm moving forward, but have learned however to never say never to any situation! Anything is possible ☺

Thanks again and wish you all the best!

Feb. 2013

Michael,

With the most sincerest gratitude am I writing this email to you. I wanted to let you know that you are truly a god sent angel in my life. Not sure why did the idea of hiring investigator never popped into my head before but when it did after nearly 6 years of marriage I am so happy that I was able to search your name/website via internet. From the day one you were very approachable & considerate about the entire situation. You always made yourself available via personal cellphone & email and were extremely prompt at replying back to my emails/concerns.

As you may have guessed my wife and I have permanently separated and the evidence collected by you saved me & my family from a lifetime of torment, torture & shame. I was truly shocked, disturbed and mentally/emotionally shaken up to the core after seeing your surveillance evidence. But during all this somehow god & my faith has given my strength to move past this relationship and focus on establishing new life & future for myself. I am so glad I was able to leave my spouse after watching the evidence because just recently I found out again thru mutual friends that my cheating ex-spouse is still on the cheating spree with multiple other people/partners. Not sure where the ex-spouse is going in life and if they will ever find true love but from this point forward I will focus solely on me and start a new positive chapter in life.

My parents and I always talk about you and we truly are in your debt for saving our family from the clutches of this cheater who even till the last day of relationship had no remorse. We always heard about bad people but you showed me that I was living with one for years. This entire case has now been resolved within our attorneys as my spouse has signed & handed over notarized copy of the 'Property Settlement Agreement'. I can file for divorce in the first week of November. Your evidence alone was the single most important artifact that saved me from financial collapse as my spouse barely got anything out of me during the time of separation. Please keep the money that was left in my retainer balance as a gift to you for all your services.

If in future I can assist you in anyway please do not hesitate to contact me and I will do best to my abilities to help you. God Bless!

Michael,

Finally my divorce is 99.9% over and done. Thanks to your investigation, this was all settled in mediation. She got what she more or less deserved. Instead of $1200 a month alimony for life she ended up with $350 for 4 years and 3 years medical insurance. I offered the 350 and insurance, just so I didn't have to take the chance that a judge would pity her and stick it to me as the mediator advised me to do.

The best part came when we tossed out the paper with her up-dated daycare license, she lost it in front of the mediator. Then she wanted my Harley and when the mediator and her lawyer found out that it was bought with inheritance money, that was out, and she was about at the end of her rope at this point and they split us up.

I believe her lawyer advised her to take what she could get and run because of all your hard work overwhelmed them. I basically ended up with it all. House, bike, truck and best of all, my money or most of it at least.

We would like to thank you again. If the occasion arises again we will definitely be calling you. Thanks again!

July 2012

My attorney was delighted to see the pictures. He used them to contact opposing counsel, and try to coerce Mr. (Redacted) into action. I don't need any more evidence, since what we have thus far is perfect and completely addresses the alleged "death bed" excuse. I wish there was more work that needs to be done. You're a master in your field! I'll have to refer you to anyone needing P.I. service.
