v.

Trine University, Inc.

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On January 21, 2015, the parties filed a stipulated proposed amendment to application Serial No. 85784250 and a withdrawal of the opposition with without prejudice, contingent upon entry of the amendment.

By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to amend the identification of goods in International Class 25 and the recitation of services in International Class 41 as follows (language in bold has been added to the goods and services):

International Class 25

From: Clothing and accessories, namely, shirts, t-shirts, sweatshirts, pants, shorts, sweat pants, jackets, and hats

To: Clothing and accessories, namely, shirts, t-shirts, sweatshirts, pants, shorts, sweat pants, jackets, and hats; all of the foregoing relating to an athletics program at a university and not identifying a sports team, league, mascot or stadium

International Class 41

From: Entertainment, education and training services, namely, participating in, conducting, and organizing collegiate sporting events in an array of sports fields, and education classes and training of persons in an array of sports fields

To: Entertainment, education and training services, namely, participating in, conducting, and organizing collegiate sporting events in an array of sports fields, and education classes and training of persons in an array of sports fields; all of the foregoing relating to an athletics program at a university and not identifying a sports team, league, mascot or stadium.

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because opposer stipulates thereto, the amendment is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed without prejudice.
