Meso Scale Diagnostics, LLC

v.

AvanSci Bio, L.L.C.

Lalita Greer, Paralegal Specialist:

On March 5, 2014, the Board entered judgment against applicant and abandoned application Serial No. 85792881 because no response was received to the Board's January 9, 2014 show cause order. However, it has come to the attention of the Board that on November 8, 2013, applicant filed a change of address using the TEAS system, in lieu of with the Board as required, resulting in the show cause order being sent to applicant's previous address.<sup>1</sup>

In view of the foregoing, the Board's March 5, 2014 order is hereby vacated and the notice of default is being remailed. Applicant is allowed until THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this order to show cause <sup>1</sup> Applicant is reminded that when applications are involved in an inter partes proceeding before the Board, all papers filed thereafter should be filed with the Board listing the inter partes proceeding number within the header. Applicant is further advised that the Board also provides an electronic system via the web, namely, ESSTA, and strongly promotes the use of such for inter parte filings. See <http://estta.uspto.gov/>.
